“You know it’s blazin’ up in my kitchen. I’m takin’ the cookbook game higher with a dipped and whipped collection of my favorite recipes, ya dig?”

—SNOOP DOGG

From Crook to Cook

Platinum Recipes from Tha Boss Dogg’s Kitchen • By Snoop Dogg

You’ve seen Snoop work his culinary magic on VH1’s Emmy-nominated Martha & Snoop’s Potluck Dinner Party. And now, tha Dogg’s up in your kitchen . . . with his first cookbook.

Delivering 50 recipes straight from his own collection, Snoop’s cookbook features OG staples such as Baked Mac & Cheese and Fried Bologna Sandwiches with Chips, and new takes on classic weeknight faves like Soft Flour Tacos and Easy Orange Chicken. And it don’t stop . . . Snoop’s giving a taste of the high life with remixes on upper-echelon fare such as Lobster Thermidor and Filet Mignon. But we gotta keep it G with those favorite munchies, too, ya know? From chewy Starbursts to those glorious Frito BBQ Twists, you should have an arsenal of snacks that’ll satisfy. And of course, no party is complete without that Gin and Juice, plus other platinum ways to entertain.

The Doggfather’s got you covered—complete with epic stories and brand-new photography that bring this masterpiece to life.

Snoop Dogg is a 17-time Grammy nominee, cohost with Martha Stewart of the hit show Martha & Snoop’s Potluck Dinner Party, and a cultural icon living in Los Angeles.

Ruffage

A Practical Guide to Vegetables • By Abra Berens
 Illustrated by Lucy Engelman • Photographs by EE Berger

Vegetable-forward is the way we eat now, and Ruffage is the cookbook that promises to truly change the way we approach vegetables. Author Abra Berens—chef, farmer, Midwesterner—shares a collection of techniques that result in new flavors, textures, and ways to enjoy all the vegetables you want to eat. From raw to caramelized and everything in between—pureed, braised, blistered, confit—the methods covered here make this cookbook a go-to reference, while the beauty of this chunky, richly illustrated volume serves as an endless source of inspiration. A veritable treasure trove of ideas, with more than 140 photographs of finished dishes, farms, tabletops, and vegetables, this is the timeless vegetable book for every kitchen.

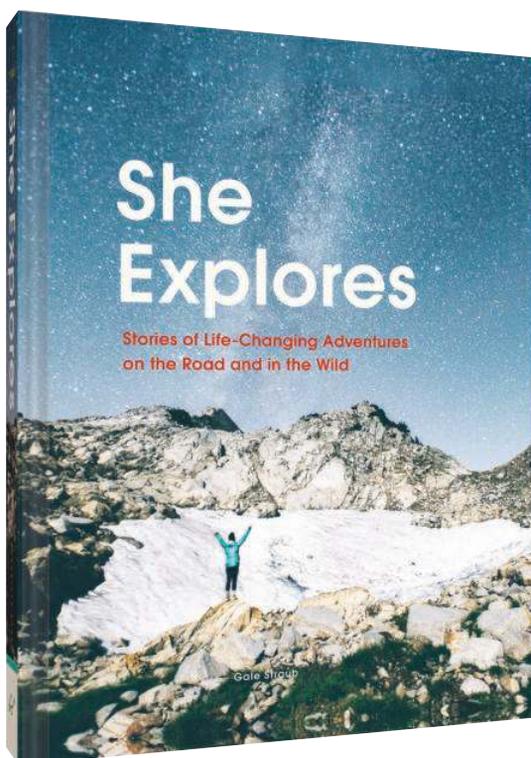

Abra Berens is a chef, writer, and cofounder of Bare Knuckle Farm. She lives in Galien, Michigan.
Lucy Engelman is an illustrator based in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

She Explores

Stories of Life-Changing Adventures on the Road and in the Wild
By Gale Straub

Combining breathtaking travel photography with compelling personal narratives, She Explores shares the stories of 40 women on unforgettable journeys—women who live out of vans, trucks, and vintage trailers, exploring wild landscapes, cooking meals over campfires, and sleeping under the stars. Complementing the narratives are practical how-tos with advice for planning an adventure, including tips for preparing for a solo hike and must-haves for a road-trip kitchen. Beautiful, empowering, and exhilarating, She Explores is a spirited celebration of female courage and an inspirational companion for any woman who wants to explore the world on her own terms.

Gale Straub is the founder of She Explores, a media platform for curious, creative women who love travel and outdoor adventure. She lives in Massachusetts.

¿Cómo te llamas?

Everyday Llamas You Might Know • By Kristin Llamas

Artist Kristin Llamas (her real name) has been drawing adorably odd portraits of llamas for years. Inspired by a name and her affection for these delightfully expressive animals, she creates detailed, personality-rich portraits in her realistic and humorous black-and-white style. The results are charming and funny, raising the question, which llama are you? Some mornings are Claire mornings. Allyn, we know just how you feel. . . . This smile of a gift book collects 60 of Llamas's most amusing and endearing portraits, pairing them with biographical quips and jewel-tone color washes to capture these llamas' quirky inner lives, and our own.

Kristin Llamas creates project-based work ranging in scale from digital drawings to large paintings to street-art installations. She lives in Nashville, Tennessee.

Best in Class

Essential Wisdom from Real Student Writing
 By Tim Clancy • Illustrated by Johnny Sampson

From the very first week of Tim Clancy’s 25-year career as a high school English teacher, he began to notice and collect funny and strange moments he discovered in his students’ writing, such as: “The word ‘witch’ has become a household word, like ‘spatula,’” and “Wherever excitement is, there will always be romance. Trust me.” He would occasionally share them with his classes, who enjoyed them as much as he did, and so this book was born. Best in Class collects nearly 200 of the most entertaining of these moments culled from real student writing and complements them with dozens of playful illustrations to create a sympathetically hilarious book for anyone who has muddled their way through the wilderness of a school writing assignment.

Music is the aspirin of the soul.

Huck Finn’s family is made up of family pride and chewing tobacco.

I like literature, I just don’t like to read.

My grandma died last July.
 She was never the same after that.

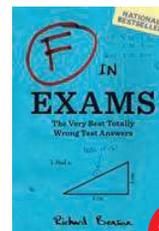

Tim Clancy taught high school English in Michigan’s Upper Peninsula for more than 25 years.

Johnny Sampson is a Chicago-based cartoonist and illustrator. His clients include Mad magazine, National Lampoon, Mother Jones, and the New York Times.

JR: The Chronicles of San Francisco

By JR • Foreword by Neal Benezra

World renowned artist, TED Prize winner, Oscar nominee, and one of Time's 100 most influential people of 2018, JR is a contemporary art superstar. In 2018, he brought his legendary photo truck to San Francisco. More than 1,000 citizens posed for his camera and told their stories, and JR compiled their portraits into an astounding photographic mural, a portrait of the city. To be installed in April 2019 at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, it is the latest of his ground-breaking and deeply compelling art projects. This rich volume features all the individual portraits and selected stories alongside behind-the-scenes photos, a foreword by Neal Benezra, and an introduction by JR. A removable poster showcases the entire mural. For JR's legions of fans and anyone who loves or lives in San Francisco, this book reveals art and urban community from a new angle.

JR is a celebrated artist whose oversized black-and-white portraits adorn walls, streets, and rooftops around the world. He lives in Paris and New York.

Neal Benezra is the Helen and Charles Schwab director of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art.

The Future Is Feminist

Radical, Funny, and Inspiring Writing by Women
Introduction by Jessica Valenti

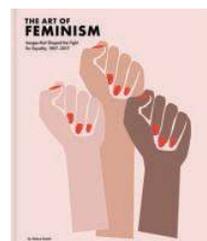

A star-studded roster of iconic women write powerfully about what it means to be a feminist yesterday, today, and tomorrow. These poets, essayists, activists, actors, and professors address topics ranging from workplace harassment to resting bitch face. The results are by turns refreshing, provocative, moving, and hilarious. A diverse chorus of intersectional voices and a forward-looking stance set this book apart, and its vibrant, textured package makes it a beautiful gift. It's the smart, covetable anthology that women of all ages will turn to for support and inspiration in the ongoing fight for gender equality.

Jessica Valenti is a writer and founder of the award-winning website Feministing.com. Her memoir Sex Object was a New York Times bestseller. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

The Field Guide to Dumb Birds of North America

By Matt Kracht

Perfect for the anti-aviary (or bird fanatic with a sense of humor), this snarky illustrated handbook is equal parts profane, funny, and—let's face it—true. Featuring 50 common North American birds, such as the White-Breasted Butt Nugget and the Goddamned Canada Goose (or White-Breasted Nuthatch and Canada Goose for the layperson), Kracht identifies all the idiots in your backyard and details exactly why they suck with humorous, yet angry, ink drawings. Each entry is accompanied by facts about a bird's (annoying) call, its (dumb) migratory pattern, its (downright tacky) markings, and more. With migratory maps and tips for birding, plus musings on the avian population and the ethics of birdwatching, this is the essential guide to all things wings. No need to wonder what all that racket is anymore!

Matt Kracht is a professional designer and art director based in Seattle who enjoys gazing out the window at the beautiful waters of Puget Sound and making fun of birds.

How Music Can Make You Better

By Indre Viskontas, PhD

How can certain songs carry us through a tough workout, comfort us after a breakup, or unite 50,000 diverse fans? In this fascinating field guide, neuroscientist and opera singer Indre Viskontas investigates what music is and how it can change us for the better—from deep in our neurons to across our entire society. Whether hip-hop fans, classically trained pianists, or vinyl collectors, readers will think about their favorite songs in a whole new way by the end of this book. This is a vibrant and smart gift for any audiophile.

Indre Viskontas, PhD, is the creative director of the Pasadena Opera, host of the podcasts Cadence and Inquiring Minds, and a professor at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. She lives in San Francisco.

How Poetry Can Change Your Heart

By Andrea Gibson and Megan Falley

How can a poem transform a life? Could poetry change the world? In this accessible volume, spoken-word stars Andrea Gibson and Megan Falley roll out the welcome mat and prove that poetry is for everyone. Whether lapsed poetry lovers, aspiring poets, or total novices, readers will learn to uncover verse in unexpected places, find their way through a poem when they don't quite “get it,” and discover just how transformative poetry can be. This is a gorgeous and inspiring gift for any fan of the written word.

Andrea Gibson is a leading voice in spoken-word poetry, headlining prestigious performance venues internationally.

Megan Falley is a National Poetry Slam finalist and creator of the online writing course “Poems That Don't Suck.” Both authors live outside Boulder, Colorado.

Autocomplete: The Book

By Justin Hook

Every time a browser autocompletes our search query, it's showing us what millions of other people all over the world are searching for. This curious collection showcases the very best of the often strange yet 100% real autocomplete suggestions offered up by popular search engines, compiling them into one hilarious, fascinating, and mildly disturbing volume. Each page contains one search and its 10 best autocomplete suggestions, including the most and least common, from "Why is Ryan Gosling . . . eating cereal?" to "If the Earth is round . . . why are shoes flat?" With easy-to-read spreads and playful black-and-white line art throughout, Autocomplete provides a nearly unfiltered look at what people actually search for when they think no one's watching.

Delicious Metropolis

The Desserts and Urban Scenes of Wayne Thiebaud
By Wayne Thiebaud

Delicious Metropolis brings together two of Wayne Thiebaud's most celebrated bodies of work: desserts and cityscapes. Between the two, fascinating juxtapositions develop. The layers of a Neapolitan cake echo the shadows cast across a street in the late afternoon. The pastel hues of iced sponge cakes match California's candy-colored houses. Curators, critics, and artists guide the reader through the book via insightful bite-size essays. This gorgeous hardcover offers fans and newcomers a refreshing and accessible way to enjoy the oeuvre of this iconic American painter. Complete with multicolored page edges evoking the layers of one of Thiebaud's mouthwatering cakes, it's a treat for art lovers, city-dwellers, and gourmets alike.

Moby-Dick

A Pop-Up Book from the Novel by Herman Melville • Paper engineering by Gérard Lo Monaco • Linocut illustrations by Joëlle Jolivet

In time for the 200th anniversary of author Herman Melville's birth, this graphically arresting, beautifully rendered pop-up retelling of Moby-Dick is a wonder to behold. Rich linocut artworks portray ten key chronological moments from the story in shadowbox-style pop-ups that reward time spent poring over the details and offer fresh perspectives on the classic. Each spread is accompanied by select quotations from the book, while brief page notes provide additional context for the depicted plot moments. With striking typography presented in an authentic broadsheet style, here is an adventure in book craft and storytelling.

Gérard Lo Monaco is an Argentinian illustrator, paper engineer, and a former art director for several prestigious illustrated publishing houses. He is based in Paris.

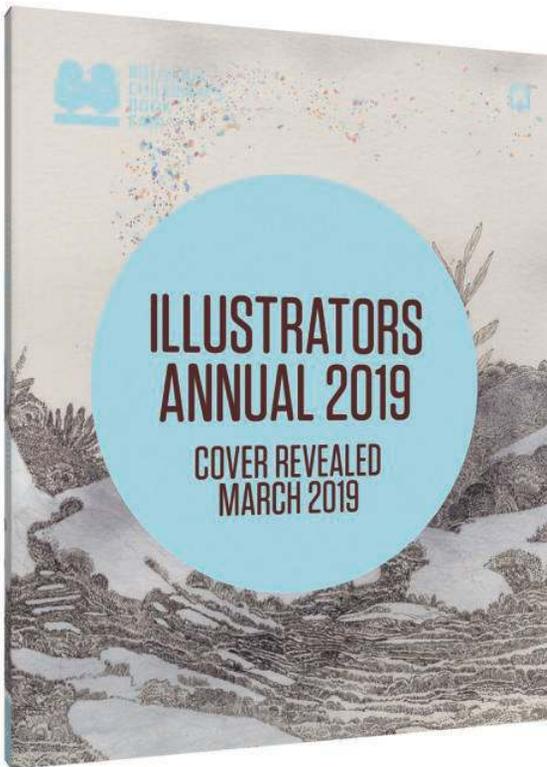

Joëlle Jolivet is the illustrator and author of numerous books for children. She lives in France.

This Land Is My Land

A Graphic History of Big Dreams, Micronations, and Other Self-Made States • Written by Andy Warner • Illustrated by Sofie Louise Dam

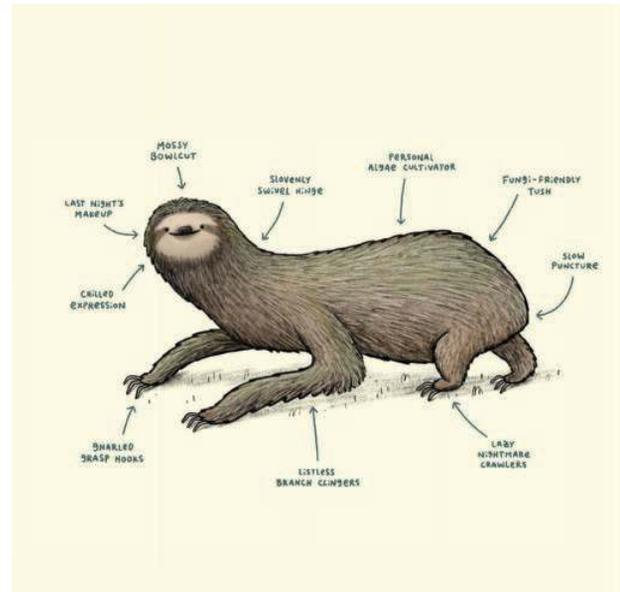

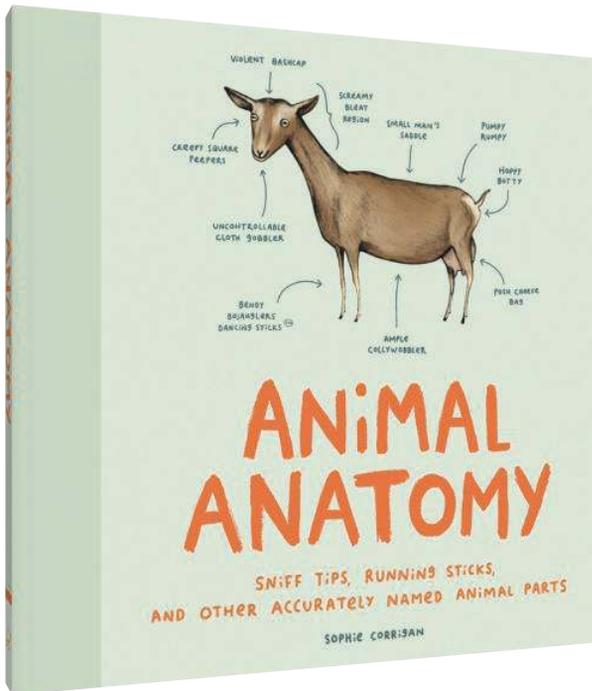

Tired of your country's bad politics? Feeling powerless to change things? Start your own utopia instead! This nonfiction graphic novel collects the stories of 30 self-made places around the world built with a dream of utopia, whether a safe haven, an inspiring structure, or a better-run country. From the Gay and Lesbian Kingdom of the Coral Sea Islands to the Indian rock garden of Nek Chand, the micronation of Sealand to the pirate-founded, anti-slavery community of Libertatia, here are the empowering and eccentric visions of creators who struck out against the laws of their homelands, the approval of their peers, and even nature itself to reshape the world around them.

Andy Warner is the New York Times bestselling author of Brief Histories of Everyday Objects. He lives in San Francisco.
Sofie Louise Dam is a cartoonist and illustrator based in Viborg, Denmark.

Animal Anatomy

Sniff Tips, Running Sticks, and Other Accurately Named Animal Parts • By Sophie Corrigan

Sophie Corrigan evokes everyone’s inner zoologist in this charmingly illustrated and wittily worded menagerie. Each critter featured in this fun book is tagged with totally fictitious yet comically accurate anatomical labels, from a tree frog’s “clingy jazz hands” and a raccoon’s “sneaky bandito mask” to a velociraptor’s “disembowly prowlies” and many more. Rife with animal puns, eye-catching bonus art, interesting animal facts, and laugh-out-loud labels that beg to be shared, Animal Anatomy will bring smiles to animal lovers of all ages.

Tomorrow Most Likely

By Dave Eggers • Illustrated by Lane Smith

Rather than focusing on going to bed—and what kid wants to think about going to bed?—this book explores all of the dreamy, wonderful, strange things the next day might bring. Poignant, joyful, and witty, this revolutionary rewriting of a classic goodnight book from bestselling author Dave Eggers and award-winning illustrator Lane Smith is a bedtime story for tomorrow ever after.

Dave Eggers is the author of many books, including What Can a Citizen Do? and Her Right Foot. He is the cofounder of: Voice of Witness, an oral-history series focused on human rights; 826 National, a network of writing and tutoring centers; and Scholar-Match, which connects donors and under-resourced students to make college possible. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Most Marshmallows

By Rowboat Watkins

Most marshmallows are born into marshmallow families, play with marshmallow friends, and go to marshmallow school where they learn to be squishy. Most marshmallows read a book before bed and then fall asleep to dream ordinary marshmallow dreams. Is this book about most marshmallows? It isn't. Because Rowboat Watkins knows that just like you, some marshmallows have big dreams, and just like you, these marshmallows can do anything they set their minds to. This sweet and silly book is an inspiring reminder that by being true to ourselves each of us can be truly extraordinary.

Rowboat Watkins was a recipient of the 2010 Sendak Fellowship. His book Rude Cakes was an Ezra Jack Keats Honor Book and his most recent title, Big Bunny, was lauded by the New York Times as "homey yet mind-bending." Rowboat lives with his family in Brooklyn, New York.

A new book in the award-winning series!

One Is a Piñata

A Book of Numbers

By Roseanne Greenfield Thong • Illustrated by John Parra

One is a rainbow. One is a cake. One is a piñata that's ready to break! In this lively picture book, a companion to the Pura Belpré–honored Green Is a Chile Pepper, children discover a fiesta of numbers in the world around them, all the way from one to ten: Two are maracas and cold ice creams, six are salsas and flavored aguas. Many of the featured objects are Latino in origin, and all are universal in appeal. With rich, boisterous illustrations, a fun-to-read rhyming text, and an informative glossary, this vibrant book enumerates the joys of counting and the wonders that abound in every child's day!

Roseanne Greenfield Thong has lived in Guatemala and Mexico and is the author of more than a dozen award-winning children's books, including Round Is a Tortilla, Wish, 'Twas Nochebuena, Día de Los Muertos, and Green Is a Chile Pepper. She now lives in Orange County, California.

John Parra is an award-winning illustrator whose books have received starred reviews. He has received the SCBWI Golden Kite Award for illustration, the International Latino Book Award for Best Children's Book Illustrations, and three Pura Belpré Illustrator Honor awards. He lives in Queens, New York.

Brave Molly

By Brooke Boynton-Hughes

What do you do when no one can see your monsters but you? At first, Molly runs from them. But they follow her down the sidewalk, getting in the way when she tries to make a new friend, popping up unexpectedly out of shadows, and multiplying. Until finally . . . Molly faces her fears. Author-illustrator Brooke Boynton-Hughes delivers a modern classic in this moving adventure that honors everyday acts of bravery and the power of friendship to banish the monsters that haunt us.

Brooke Boynton-Hughes is an introvert who often finds going out into the world anxiety-inducing. Just like Molly, Brooke found her voice with the help of books. She writes and illustrates children's books in Fort Collins, Colorado.

A warm and reassuring picture book that speaks to the experience of kids on the autism spectrum

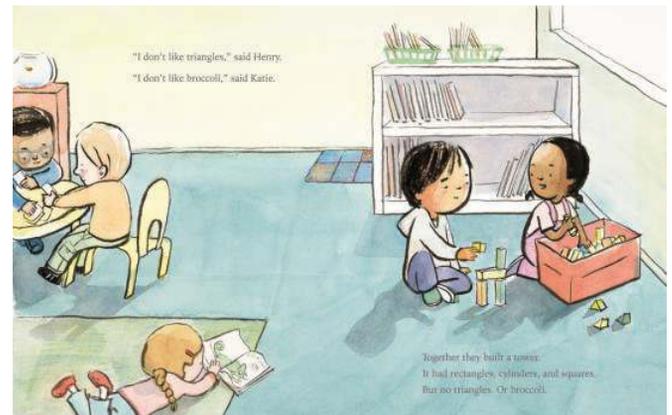

A Friend for Henry

By Jenn Bailey • Illustrated by Mika Song

In Classroom Six, second left down the hall, Henry has been on the lookout for a friend. A friend who shares. A friend who listens. Maybe even a friend who likes things to stay the same and all in order, as Henry does. But on a day full of too close and too loud, when nothing seems to go right, will Henry ever find a friend—or will a friend find him? With insight and warmth, this heartfelt story from the perspective of a boy on the autism spectrum celebrates the everyday magic of friendship.

Jenn Bailey is an author, editor, documentarian, blue-ribbon pie baker, and eager traveler. She lives in Kansas City, Missouri. This is her first picture book.

Mika Song is a children's writer and illustrator. She grew up in Manila, Philippines, and Honolulu, Hawaii, before moving to New York, where she worked as an animator prior to making children's books. She lives in New York City.

I'm a Baked Potato!

By Elise Primavera • Illustrated by Juana Medina

When a baked potato-loving lady adopts a dog, she adores him unconditionally—and given the pup's small, round frame and warm, brown coat she can't help but call him "Baked Potato"! But what happens when a dog who thinks he's a baked potato gets lost? Will he find his lady? And more importantly, will he find himself? I'm a Baked Potato! is a fun, big-hearted story about the names we're given, the names we choose, and how both can help us find our way home. Full of heart and laugh-out-loud moments, this story will leave readers giggling—and looking at pets in a whole new way.

Elise Primavera has been writing and illustrating children's books for more than 25 years. Her bestselling book Auntie Claus has sold more than half a million copies. She lives in New Jersey.

Juana Medina was born in Bogotá, Colombia. She studied at the Rhode Island School of Design and is the winner of the Pura Belpré Author Award for Juana & Lucas. She lives in Washington, DC.

Guitar Genius

How Les Paul Engineered the Solid-Body Electric Guitar and Rocked the World • By Kim Tomsic • Illustrated by Brett Helquist

This is the story of how Les Paul created the world's first solid-body electric guitar, countless other inventions that changed modern music, and one truly epic career in rock and roll. How to make a microphone? A broomstick, a cinderblock, a telephone, a radio. How to make an electric guitar? A record player's arm, a speaker, some tape. How to make a legendary inventor? A few tools, a lot of curiosity, and an endless faith in what is possible. Featuring richly detailed, dynamic illustrations by Brett Helquist, this unforgettable biography will resonate with inventive readers young and old.

Kim Tomsic lives in Boulder, Colorado. This is her first picture book. Brett Helquist is the New York Times bestselling illustrator of many books, including the Lemony Snicket books, A Series of Unfortunate Events. He lives in Brooklyn, New York.

Polly Diamond and the Super Stunning Spectacular School Fair

Book 2 • By Alice Kuipers • Illustrated by Diana Toledano

Polly and her magic book, Spell, have all kinds of adventures together because whatever Polly writes in Spell comes true! But when Polly and Spell join forces to make the school fair super spectacular, they quickly discover that what you write and what you mean are not always the same. Filled with the familiar details of home and school, but with a sprinkling of magic, this book is just right for fans of Ivy + Bean, Judy Moody, and Dory Fantasmagory, as well for aspiring writers, who, just like Polly, know the magic of stories.

Alice Kuipers is the author of four novels and two picture books. Her work has been shortlisted for the Carnegie Medal and selected as a Bank Street College of Education Best Children's Book of the Year. She lives in Saskatoon, Canada.

Diana Toledano divides her time between working as a freelance illustrator and teaching in museums. She lives in San Francisco.

Back in print to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the Moon Landing

Mom and Me, Me and Mom

By Miguel Tanco

The joy of being a mom is palpable in this touching tribute to parenthood. Whimsical illustrations capture the poignant moments that make motherhood so special: pinning up a daughter's hair, getting messy during playtime, reading quietly side by side, and, above all, cherishing precious moments together. Bright pops of Pantone coral infuse each spread, and a cloth spine adds an irresistible specialness. At once a treasured Mother's Day gift and a year-round "I love you," this book will delight parents and children in a celebration of a supremely meaningful relationship. This lovely testament to the inimitable mother/daughter bond goes straight to the heart.

Miguel Tanco is the author and illustrator of more than 40 books, including You and Me, Me and You—which has been translated into 8 languages. He lives in Milan, Italy.

The Man Who Went to the Far Side of the Moon

The Story of Apollo 11 Astronaut Michael Collins

By Bea Uusma Schyffert

Everyone knows the story of the first astronauts to step foot on the moon, but what about the astronaut who manned the spaceship orbiting the moon 14 times alone in space while the others walked? Awarded both a Boston Globe–Horn Book Honor and a Batchelder Award Honor, this lauded book describes what Michael Collins did, saw, and thought about during his journey as well as the larger story of how the astronauts prepared for their historic space flight, what they brought with them . . . and what they left behind. Reminiscent of a scrapbook and featuring drawings as well as photos taken both in space and on Earth, this is a book for anyone who has ever looked at the moon and wondered what it would be like to see it up close.

Bea Uusma Schyffert is exactly one inch too short to become an astronaut, so she studied illustration instead. She lives in Sweden.

Fox & Chick Are Back!

Fox & Chick: The Quiet Boat Ride

and Other Stories • By Sergio Ruzzier

In the second book of this lauded series, Fox and Chick are off on three new adventures involving a boat ride, a mysterious box, and an early morning trip to see the sunrise. Despite the antics ensuing from their opposite personalities, the contradictory duo always manages to find a happy center. This early chapter book in comic-book form is perfect for emerging readers, while the sweet and funny characters and captivating art hold appeal for picturebook audiences as well.

Sergio Ruzzier is a Sendak Fellow whose work has been praised by the Society of Illustrators, Communication Arts, and the Society of Publication Designers. Born in Milan, Italy, he now makes his home in Brooklyn, New York.

The third book in the Geisel Award-winning series!

Charlie & Mouse

Book 1 • By Laurel Snyder • Illustrated by Emily Hughes

Four hilarious stories, two inventive brothers, one irresistible and award-winning beginning chapter book—now in paperback! Join Charlie and Mouse as they talk to lumps, take the neighborhood to a party, sell some rocks, and invent the bedtime banana. With imagination and humor, Laurel Snyder and Emily Hughes paint a lively picture of brotherhood that children will relish in a beginning chapter book format perfect for young readers graduating from picture books.

Charlie & Mouse Even Better

Book 3 • By Laurel Snyder • Illustrated by Emily Hughes

In this heartwarming follow-up to Laurel Snyder’s award-winning beginning chapter book Charlie & Mouse, the two brothers prepare to celebrate one very special birthday: their mom’s! Follow along as they choose the best pancakes, hunt for presents, decorate with snakes, and more. Things don’t go exactly as planned . . . but with plenty of humor and heart, Charlie and Mouse prove that sometimes when things aren’t perfect, what they turn out to be is even better.

Laurel Snyder is the author of many books for children. She lives and writes in Atlanta, Georgia.

Emily Hughes is an illustrator (and sometimes writer) who lives in windy Brighton, England, while thinking fondly of her hometown in Hilo, Hawaii.

Pigs in a Blanket

By Hans Wilhelm • Illustrated by Erica Salcedo

Three little piglets are all bundled up and as cozy as can be. Open the “blanket” flaps of this novelty board book and help the piglets start their day! Young readers will follow their wacky antics and ever-changing wardrobes as these energetic pigs jump, prance, and dance through a fun-filled day before finally climbing back into bed again. A delightful rhyme reinforces key daily rituals and the importance of winding down the day and going to sleep.

Hans Wilhelm is the author of Guess Which Hand. He lives in Weston, Connecticut.

Erica Salcedo is an illustrator living in Cuenca, Spain.

Catch Me: A Seek-and-Find Book

By Anders Arhoj

Cats and dogs rule—and wreak humorous havoc—in this innovative picture book that reads from front to back and back to front! In this action-packed follow-up to Find Me: A Hide-and-Seek Book, readers will delight in tracking a sly cat, Big Meow, and an elusive dog, Little Woof, through 11 richly detailed scenes populated with dogs, cats, and other cute creatures. Finding each protagonist is made even more fun with vibrant color changes on every page. Open the book from the front to search for Big Meow, then open the book from the back to turn the tables and catch Little Woof. It's two seek-and-find experiences in one book!

Anders Arhoj is the author-illustrator of Find Me: A Hide-and-Seek Book and the creative director of Studio Arhoj, a Danish design studio. He lives in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Just Between Us: Conversation Cards for the Whole Family

By Meredith and Sofie Jacobs

From the bestselling authors of the Just Between Us series comes a set of conversation cards to help the whole family get beyond the chit-chat and deepen the conversation. Housed in an elegant keepsake box, these conversation starters can sit on display at a kitchen table or be tossed into a bag for a road trip. Slip a conversation card into the display window and take turns answering the question. Then flip the card over for more ways to enrich the conversation. With more than 150 prompts, these cards generate many rich opportunities for connection, and because the questions are open-ended, they can be reused again and again.

Meredith Jacobs is an award-winning columnist and author. She lives in Rockville, Maryland. Sofie Jacobs graduated from the University of Michigan and lives in Rockville, Maryland.

Ice Cream Scoop Puzzle

Countless Sweet Creations with 32 Flavors
Illustrated by Sarah Ferone

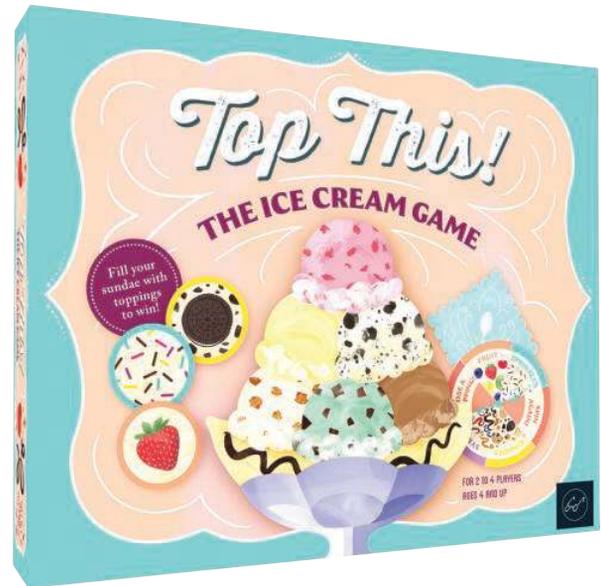

Cup or cone? How about both?! Create countless towering ice cream treats by assembling 16 double-sided, scoop-shaped puzzle pieces: 32 flavors in all! First choose a base—a cup, cone, banana split, or pie. Then, add a topping! Kids will delight in mixing and matching their favorite ice cream flavors just as much as discovering delicious new combinations. Bonus learning prompts encourage early concept color and counting skills.

Sarah Ferone is the illustrator of Top This! The Ice Cream Game. She lives in Philadelphia.

Top This! The Ice Cream Game

Concept by Naomi Kirsten and Olivia Bartz • Illustrated by Sarah Ferone

Kids will delight in this irresistible family game! Here's how to play: Players have a dream job, working at an ice cream shop, creating delicious sundaes for customers. The ice cream dish and scoops are ready—all that needs to be added are toppings! But there's a catch: Each customer has a special request, and there are ice cream shop surprises in store that may hinder or accelerate the players' progress. Spin the spoon to select a topping, then draw a napkin story card for a bonus topping, a topping trade, or a topping loss. The first player to complete his or her sundae wins! This sweetly spirited board game provides heaps of opportunities for engaged play and boundless creativity!

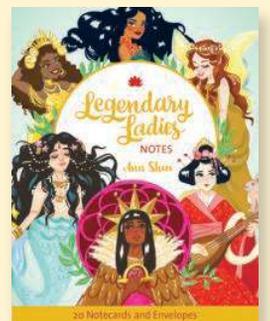

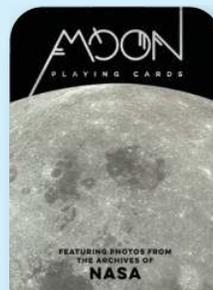

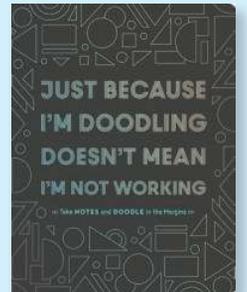

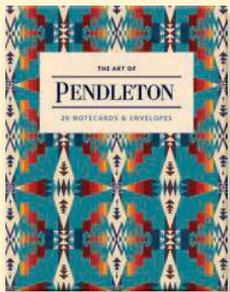

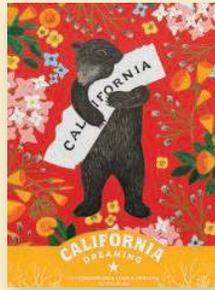

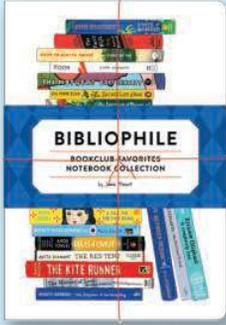

Naomi Kirsten is a writer and editor living in San Francisco.

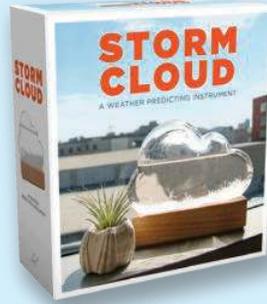

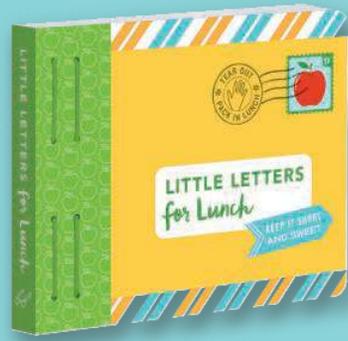

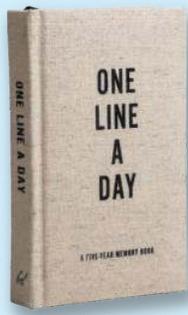

Olivia Bartz is an editor living in New York City.

Storm Cloud

A Weather Predicting Instrument
By Bitten

In the 1800s, during his voyage with Charles Darwin, Admiral Robert Fitzroy used and later popularized the storm glass, which promised to predict the weather. A beautiful twist on this classic device, the Storm Cloud is a fun way of seeing what the weather has in store. Filled with a special liquid that responds to changes in the atmosphere, the crystals within the cloud-shaped glass indicate whether it'll be fair, cloudy, rainy, windy, or stormy. Whether sitting on a windowsill or a desk, the Storm Cloud is irresistible décor for the curious-minded.
