

DUNDURN

WINTER 2019

KIDS & TEENS

HIGHLIGHTS FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS

"Irresistibly funny and at times heartrending."

– School Library Journal

"This book comes at a time when it is most needed, offering a powerful and positive antidote to knee jerk racism and social media fuelled culture wars."

– Canadian Materials

Hannah must rely on her survival instincts to outlast a brutal ice storm and save her family.

At first, when a massive ice storm traps fourteen-year-old Hannah and her family in a remote cabin, it feels like a game to try out the survival skills she's been practising. That all changes when an accident leaves her mother desperately low on insulin. With no power and no way to contact the outside world, Hannah steals away with the four family dogs tied to an ancient dogsled.

All she has to do is make it to the nearest cabin and find a working phone to save the day. But a wrong turn and worsening weather leave her in grave danger and saddled with an unexpected passenger. Hannah must use all her skills and resourcefulness to get help for her family – before they all freeze to death in the wilderness.

Jo Storm grew up in Muskoka and makes frequent pilgrimages there to lean her back up against the Canadian Shield. She has trained dogs in wilderness skills including agility, obedience, scent detection, and dog sledding. She lives in northern Ontario.

Dewey Divas and the Dudes Winter
2018 Pick, 2017, Canada – Commended

The Final Battle is coming, whether the Seers are ready or not.

Sixteen-year-old twins Jasmine and Jade and the rest of the Seers are not only separated between Toronto and London, they're internationally wanted fugitives. While away in the Place-In-Between trying to return Solomon's Ring, the girls became the prime suspects in a deadly terrorist attack in Toronto.

The Seers, their Protectors, and a handful of others know the truth: not only are they innocent, the world is dying, demons are around every corner, and darkness is taking over. As the only hope in the coming apocalyptic battle, foretold in an ancient prophecy, the Seers will have to work together to save the world from the brink of destruction.

Mary Jennifer Payne is the author of Finding Jade, book one in the Daughters of Light series, the YA novel Since You've Been Gone, and several YA graphic novels. Her writing has been published in journals, anthologies, and magazines in Canada and abroad. She teaches special education with the Toronto District School Board and lives in Toronto.
