Sensations

The Empirical Genius of British Art
by Jonathan Jones

Laurence King • On Sale: Apr 9/19 • 7 x 9 • 336 pages
9781786272973 • $70.00 • cl • Art / History / General

In this new and spirited account of British art from the dawn of the scientific revolution to the present, Jonathan Jones argues for empiricism as the artistic impulse that unites the greatest British art. Artists from Hogarth to Tracey Emin, Gainsborough to Lucian Freud, have all shared a passion for looking hard at human beings and the natural world. While this zeal for precision and careful observation can be suffocating, Jones also shows how these national tendencies paved the way for Realism, Impressionism and the birth of modern art (...)

Art of Renaissance Florence
A City and Its Legacy
by Scott Nethersole

Laurence King • On Sale: Jan 15/19 • 6 x 9 • 224 pages
9781786273420 • $49.99 • cl • Art / History / Renaissance • Renaissance Art

In this vivid account Scott Nethersole examines the remarkable period of cultural, artistic and intellectual blossoming in Florence from ca. 1400 to 1520 - the period traditionally known as the Early and High Renaissance. He looks at the city and its art with fresh eyes, presenting the well-known within a wider context of cultural reference. Key works of art - from painting, sculpture and architecture to illuminated manuscripts - by artists such as Michelangelo, Donatello, Botticelli and Brunelleschi are showcased alongside the unexpected and less familiar (...)

Global Art and the Cold War
by John J. Curley

Laurence King • On Sale: Jan 29/19 • 6 x 9 • 288 pages
9781786272294 • $70.00 • cl • Art / History / Contemporary (1945-) • Global Perspectives
Art History

In this readable and highly original book, John J. Curley presents the first synthetic account of global art during the Cold War. Through a careful examination of artworks drawn from America, Europe, Russia and Asia, he demonstrates the inextricable nature of art and politics in this contentious period. He dismantles the usual narrative of American abstract painting versus figurative Soviet Socialist Realism to reveal a much more nuanced, contradictory and ambivalent picture of art making, in which the objects themselves, like spies, dissembled, housed and managed ideological differences (...)

Pattern Making

Techniques for Beginners

by Barbara Arata-Gavere

Laurence King • On Sale: Jan 8/19 • 11 x 9 • 352 pages

9781786271969 • $100.00 • cl • Crafts & Hobbies / Fashion • University of Fashion

Pattern making, patternmaking, pattern cutting or flat patterning, are all words that describe the process of creating a two-dimensional diagram or template of a garment, drafted on a flat surface from either body measurements or transferred from a draped muslin. The starting point of a pattern is a sloper. Slopers are basic patterns that are drafted containing a certain amount of wearing ease for the wearer's comfort and are created without seam allowances. Slopers are used as the foundation or template for creating design variations that are subsequently cut (...)
