21 days without power. 2 brothers on a desperate trek. 72 hours before time runs out. . .

The Lockwood brothers are supposed to be able to survive anything. Their dad, a hardcore believer in self-reliance, has stockpiled enough food and water at their isolated Nevada home to last for months. But when they are robbed of all their supplies during a massive blackout while their dad is out of town, John and Stew must walk 96 miles in the stark desert sun to get help. Along the way, they're forced to question their dad's insistence on self-reliance and ask just what it is that we owe to our neighbors, to our kin, and to ourselves.

From talented newcomer J. L. Esplin comes this story of survival and determination as two young brothers confront the unpredictability of human nature in the face (...)

TO BE BORN OF THE FOREST IS A GIFT AND A CURSE.

Rora is a shifter, as magical as all those born in the wilderness - and as feared. She uses her abilities to spy for the king, traveling under different guises and listening for signs of trouble.

When a magical illness surfaces across the kingdom, Rora uncovers a devastating truth: Finley, the young prince and her best friend, has caught it, too. His only hope is stardust, the rarest of magical elements, found deep in the wilderness where Rora grew up - and to which she swore never to return.

But for her only friend, Rora will face her past and brave the dark, magical wood, journeying with her brother and the obstinate, older prince who insists on coming. Together, they must survive sentient forests and creatures unknown, battling an ever-changing landscape while escaping human pursuers who want them dead. With illness gripping the kingdom and war on the horizon, Finley's is not the only life that hangs in the balance.

Nick Bell? Not extraordinary. But being the most popular fanfiction writer in the Extraordinaries fandom is a superpower, right?

An Education in Ruin

by Alexis Bass

From Alexis Bass, the acclaimed author of Happily and Madly, comes this lush and sophisticated YA tale of scandal, greed, love, and revenge, An Education in Ruin.

The Mahoney brothers are the golden boys of Rutherford Institute. Theo is well-connected and popular - but he's hiding something. Jasper is studious and focused. Though he isn't as impenetrable as he seems.

Collins Pruitt is going to expose them for who they really are. She will earn their trust - and then she'll ruin them. Unless she gets what she wants. Even if that means her own secrets may be exposed.

As she's pulled further into Theo's and Jasper's orbit, she uncovers truths she wasn't expecting - truths that make her question why she's doing this in the first place . . . and if it's possible to ruin them without destroying herself.

With gorgeous writing and secrets that keep you turning pages until the heartfelt end, this deeply immersive tale asks how far we'll go to protect those we love - and what happens when we're wrong. I devoured this masterfully plotted and beautifully executed story." - Lori Goldstein, author of Sources Say and Screen Queens
