The Year of the Dogs

By Vincent J. Musi

As a National Geographic photographer, taking pictures of lions, tigers, and bears was a regular day's work for Vincent Musi, but in 2017 he gave himself a new challenge: dogs. Using the same lighting and photographic techniques he uses for his wildlife photography, Musi spent a year shooting portraits of dogs. From a farting bulldog to a Labrador that likes opera, he chronicled the character and personality of everyday dogs. The result was a wildly successful Instagram account. The Year of the Dogs features 75 dogs from this series of exquisite photos with close-ups, profiles, and full body shots along with a narrative about each dog. Presented in an elegant package that properly showcases the vitality of Musi's photos, The Year of the Dogs will be the go-to gift book for dog lovers of the holiday season.

Vincent J. Musi is a popular speaker, National Geographic photographer, and owner of the Unleashed Studio. He resides in South Carolina.

American Sfogolino

A Master Class in Handmade Pasta • By Evan Funke with Katie Parla
Photographs by Eric Wolfinger

This debut cookbook from Evan Funke, esteemed chef of L.A.’s Felix Trattoria, is a comprehensive guide to the best pasta in the world. Sharing classic techniques from his Emilia-Romagna training, Funke provides accessible instructions for making his award-winning sfoglia (sheet pasta) at home. With little more than flour, eggs, and a rolling pin, home cooks can recreate 15 classic pasta shapes, spanning simple pappardelle to perfect tortelloni. Beginning with four foundational doughs, American Sfogolino takes readers step by step through recipes for a variety of generous dishes, from essential sauces and broths, like Passata di Pomodoro (Tomato Sauce) and Brodo di Carne (Meat Broth) to luscious Tagliatelle in Bianco con Prosciutto (Tagliatelle with Bacon and Butter) and Lasagna Verde alla Bolognese (Green Bolognese Lasagna). Stories from Italy and the kitchen at

Felix Trattoria add the finishing touches to this master class in pasta, while sumptuous photographs and a bold package offer a feast for the eyes.

Evan Funke is a master pasta maker and the chef-owner of Felix Trattoria in Venice, California. He lives in Los Angeles.

Katie Parla is a food writer and IACP award-winning author whose work has appeared in numerous outlets, including the New York Times, Food & Wine, and Saveur. She lives in Rome, Italy.

Creative Spaces

People, Homes, and Studios to Inspire

By Ted Vadakan and Angie Myung with Gregory Han

Photographs by Ye Rin Mok

This debut book from acclaimed Los Angeles lifestyle brand Poketo proves creativity can be sparked anywhere. From a colorful desk in a tiny closet to expansive homes, Creative Spaces explores the lives, homes, and studios of 23 artistic entrepreneurs, authors, and designers through a collection of inspired interiors from across the country that brings art into the everyday. With stunning photography, intimate profiles, and unexpected takeaways, the book showcases an eclectic mix of creatives, including artist Adam J. Kurtz, ceramicist Helen Levi, and DJ Chris Manak, among others. Fusing lifestyle with interior design, this peek into the spaces and lives of creative professionals will motivate dreamers and thinkers to become doers and makers.

Ted Vadakan and Angie Myung are the Los Angeles–based husband-and-wife team behind Poketo. Founded in 2003, Poketo quickly became recognized for their collaborations with more than 200 international artists, offering custom lines of stationery, home goods, and apparel. With five retail locations and weekly creative workshops, Poketo also works with brands such as Nike, MTV, Target, and Nordstrom, as well as institutions including the Guggenheim and SFMOMA.

Jim Marshall: Show Me the Picture

Images and Stories from a Photography Legend

By Amelia Davis • Essays by Amelia Davis, Karen Grigsby Bates,
Michelle Margetts, Joel Selvin, and Meg Shiffler

Jim Marshall created iconic images of rock 'n' roll stars, jazz greats, and civil rights leaders. He had the power to look into the soul of an individual and to capture the mood of an entire generation. This deluxe, career-spanning volume showcases hundreds of photographs: intimate portraits, heady crowd scenes, and haunting street shots evoking the sights and sounds of the 1960s and 1970s. Marked-up proof sheets offer insight into Marshall's process, while in-depth essays from his contemporaries tell a compelling story about this larger-than-life man. Nearly a decade after his death, Marshall is the subject of a documentary feature film. This gorgeous hardcover—housed in a die-cut slipcase—is a must-have for devoted fans and newcomers alike; a fitting tribute to a true legend.

Amelia Davis is the owner and manager of Jim Marshall Photography LLC. She lives in San Francisco.

Farm + Land's Back to the Land

A Guide to Modern Outdoor Life

By Freddie Pikovsky and Nicole Caldwell

A spectacular treehouse suspended above a lush forest. A cozy cabin perched on a mountainside. A small farm growing heirloom vegetables in the high desert. These are the extraordinary stories of the modern-day back-to-the-land movement, a movement that embraces slow living, sustainability, and the value of doing things with your own two hands. Here are remarkable narratives, essential how-tos, and hundreds of breathtaking photographs from people who have embraced lives of adventure in wild places. Delivered in a handsome volume that inspires feelings of wanderlust, this book is a must-have for outdoor enthusiasts and anyone who has ever dreamed of escaping to a simpler way of life.

Freddie Pikovsky, travel writer and photographer, is the founder of Farm + Land, an outdoor lifestyle brand and retreat center in upstate New York.

Nicole Caldwell is a writer, farmer, sustainability educator, and former editor of Playgirl. She runs Better Farm, a 65-acre organic farm in upstate New York.

Witch, Please!

Magical Musings on Life, Love, and Owing Your Power
By Sonia Lazo

There's more than one way to be a witch! Some witches harness the properties of herbs and crystals, and some craft their own spells and rituals for empowerment and success; some dress all in black, and some prefer a more colorful aesthetic. Author and illustrator Sonia Lazo celebrates the power and diversity of contemporary witches in this enchanting love letter to all things occult. Her charming illustrations offer an inclusive, body-positive message to modern mystics all over the world, reminding readers that anyone can tap into their inner magic—all you have to do is be true to yourself.

Sonia Lazo is a tropical witch from tiny El Salvador. This is her first book.

40 Portraits of Courage • By KK Ottesen

If you need inspiration in tough times, look no further. In this book, 40 activists recount the experiences that sparked their journeys and share the beliefs that keep them going. These individuals cross generations and embody different (sometimes opposite) perspectives. But their powerful narratives and KK Ottesen's luminous photographs reveal the passion, purpose, and optimism that unite these diverse figures. Together, their visions for peace, equality, and justice have reshaped society—from voting to reproductive rights, and from the environment to the economy. Their stories remind us that anyone can take the future into their own hands. This is an essential book for those who have fought to shape today's world and those who aspire to shape the world of tomorrow.

KK Ottesen is an author, photographer, and regular contributor to the Washington Post Magazine. She lives in Washington, DC.

She Can Really Lay It Down

50 Rebels, Rockers, and Musical Revolutionaries (Who Happen to Be Women) • By Rachel Frankel • Foreword by Amanda Petrusich

The artists in this book defied genre and social convention to shape the music industry as we know it. But many of these incredible musicians have been overlooked or cast in supporting roles in their own stories simply because they are women. Until now. Author and illustrator Rachel Frankel shines a spotlight on 50 groundbreaking musicians through vivid portraits and heartfelt biographies that bring each icon to life on the page. Featuring an exposed spine designed to look like the neck of a guitar, this book pays homage to the rock goddesses who shredded, sang, and stormed the stage with ferocity and passion, inspiring a whole new generation of fearless, talented performers.

Rachel Frankel plays in a band called Phosphene. She is an author, illustrator, and designer living in Portland, Oregon. This is her first book.

Amanda Petrusich is a music journalist and staff writer at the New Yorker, as well as the author of three books. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

From internationally acclaimed Stephen Fry

“Perfect for the 21st Century. Ebullient, funny, Fry retells the Greek myths with elegance.”

—The Times

“A wondrous new immersion in ancient stories we only thought we knew. Page to page, Mythos is brilliant, funny, erudite, inventive, surprising and enthralling.”

—Richard North Patterson

“In the starlight over Mount Othrys, Zeus and his five liberated siblings laughed and stamped and hooted and howled with delight. . . . Together they would overthrow Kronos and his whole ugly race and establish a new order. . . . They would not, despite their parentage, call themselves ‘Titans.’ They would be gods. And not just gods, but the gods.”

Mythos

The Greek Myths Reimagined • By Stephen Fry

Here are the thrills, grandeur, and unabashed fun of the Greek myths, stylishly retold by Stephen Fry. The legendary writer, actor, and comedian breathes life into ancient tales, from Pandora’s box to Prometheus’s fire, and transforms the adventures of Zeus and the Olympians into emotionally resonant and deeply funny stories, without losing any of their original wonder. Classical artwork inspired by the myths and learned notes from the author offer rich cultural context. This collectible volume, complete with a textured case and full-color art throughout, is a doorway into a captivating world.

Stephen Fry is an award-winning writer, comedian, actor, and director. He rose to fame in A Bit of Fry & Laurie and Jeeves and Wooster. He hosted over 180 episodes of QI, and narrated the audio versions of the Harry Potter novels. His books include four novels and three volumes of autobiography. He lives in Los Angeles and London.

A Wild Child's Guide to Endangered Animals

By Millie Marotta

From New York Times bestselling author Millie Marotta comes this gorgeous celebration of the animal kingdom. A Wild Child's Guide to Endangered Animals highlights the plight of 43 endangered species from around the world, including rare and well-known animals living in freshwater, oceans, forests, mountains, tundras, deserts, grasslands, and wetlands. Vivid illustrations bring caribous, axolotls, giraffes, agami herons, and many more to life on these rich and varied pages. Illuminating text relays the story of each species, from how they live and why they are endangered to what is being done about it. Complete with a map detailing where each species can still be found, this visually rich, timely, informative book raises awareness in the most spectacular way.

Millie Marotta is a freelance illustrator working from her studio by the sea in a little corner of West Wales. She grew up in the wilderness of rural Wales where she developed a fascination with all things flora and fauna, which, along with intricate pattern and detail, remains an ongoing theme in her work. Millie's intention is simply to create beautiful artwork which captivates, charms, and inspires a curiosity in others for the natural world.

Some Terminology:

Pronouns: The pronouns people identify themselves with (she/her, he/him, they/them, ze/zir). It is not optional to call someone by their preferred pronoun — it is a required act of respect.

Agender: Not identifying with any gender.

Gender dysphoria: The feeling that one's body and one's gender identity are misaligned.

Seeing Gender

An Illustrated Guide to Identity and Expression

By Iris Gottlieb • Foreword by Meredith Talusan

Seeing Gender is an of-the-moment investigation into how we express and understand the complexities of gender today. Deeply researched and fully illustrated, this book demystifies an intensely personal—yet universal—facet of humanity. Illustrating a different concept on each spread, queer author and artist Iris Gottlieb touches on history, science, sociology, and her own experience. This book is an essential tool for understanding and contributing to a necessary cultural conversation, bringing clarity and reassurance to the sometimes confusing process of navigating ones' identity. Whether LGBTQ+, cisgender, or nonbinary, Seeing Gender is a must-read for intelligent, curious, want-to-be woke people who care about how we see and talk about gender and sexuality in the 21st century.

Iris Gottlieb is a freelance illustrator and the author of Seeing Science. She lives in Durham, North Carolina.

Meredith Talusan is an award-winning author, journalist, and contributing editor for them., a platform dedicated to celebrating inspiring voices, people, and stories in the LGBTQ+ community. They live in New York City.

The Pink Book

An Illustrated Celebration of the Color, from Bubblegum to Battleships • By Kaye Blegvad

What do we think of when we think pink? In this richly illustrated homage to the color, artist Kaye Blegvad explores its significance across history and cultures, from gender connotations to product marketing, symbols and iconography, and more. Through engaging mini essays, interactive exercises, object studies, and interviews, readers will learn about a vibrant miscellany of pink facts and pink occurrences: like iconic applications of the color, from Elvis's cars to cotton candy; or the etymology of phrases like "tickled pink," "pink slip," and "rose-tinted glasses." Presented in an eye-catching pink package with vibrant page edges, this collection will captivate those with a passion for pink and anyone with a curiosity about color.

Kaye Blegvad is a New York-based artist, illustrator, and designer.

Homophones Visualized

By Bruce Worden

Do you know what homophones are? They're words that sound alike but are spelled differently and have completely different meanings—it's not always easy to get it right. Based on his blog Homophones, Weekly, Bruce Worden's Homophones Visualized uses simple but clever graphics to help illustrate the differences between 100 pairs (or triplets or quadruplets) of words that sound alike. From beat and beet to flee and flea, baron and barren to golf and gulf, each spread contains a pair or group of homophones and corresponding illustrations that provide context for each word. Word lovers, educators, and kids all will delight in this witty and useful homophone guide to understanding which word is witch.

Bruce Worden is an award-winning author and illustrator, and the creator of the weekly picto-blog Homophones, Weekly. He lives in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Voted one of Imbibe magazine's
 "10 Great Podcasts for Imbibers"
 2017 Taste Award,
 Viewer's Choice for Best Podcast

WHY IS BORDEAUX SUCH A BIG DEAL? THE NUMBERS.

Maybe this won't further your drinking satisfaction but I think a quick fact-check will help answer this essential question. Check this out:

- The area is about 280,217 acres (113,400 ha), far bigger than New York City, for example, which is only about 205,000 acres (82,900 ha).
- Bordeaux makes 59 million cases of wine per vintage on average. That's about 10 percent of France's output and 25 percent of the country's protected appellation wine (AOC).
- If it were a country, Bordeaux would rank twelfth in wine production, with nearly double the production of New Zealand or Austria.
- It produces several billion dollars in revenue annually. Billion. It's big business.
- There are approximately 6,300 wine-growers in Bordeaux and hundreds of châteaux, or winemaking operations.

Wine for Normal People

A Guide for Real People Who Like Wine, but Not the Snobbery That Goes with It • By Elizabeth Schneider

This is a fun but respectful (and very comprehensive) guide to everything you ever wanted to know about wine from the creator and host of the popular podcast Wine for Normal People, described by Imbibe magazine as “a wine podcast for the people.” More than 60,000 listeners tune in every month to learn a not-snobby wine vocabulary, how and where to buy wine, how to read a wine label, how to smell, swirl, and taste wine, and so much more! Rich with charts, maps, and lists—and the author’s deep knowledge and unpretentious delivery—this vividly illustrated, down-to-earth handbook is a must-have resource for millennials starting to buy, boomers who suddenly have the time and money to hone their appreciation, and anyone seeking a relatable introduction to the world of wine.

Elizabeth Schneider is a certified sommelier, certified specialist of wine, and the creator of the podcast Wine for Normal People. She lives in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina.

Seasons of the Moon

Folk Names and Lore of the Full Moon • By Michael Carabetta

From Strawberry to Dragon, Harvest to Storm, the full moon is known by many names around the world and across the seasons, and each name has a story behind it. This beautiful photographic celebration of our closest celestial neighbor captures the visual wonder and the connection we feel to the moon. Including three dozen folk names and short evocative explanations drawn from Native American, Inuit, Celtic, medieval English, Hindu, Chinese, Japanese, and pagan cultures, Seasons of the Moon presents an inspired visual pairing for each, taken in the month the folk name represents. Featuring a poetic moon die-cut cover, this portrait of our eternal fascination with the moon is a welcome companion as we look to the sky throughout the seasons.

Michael Carabetta is an award-winning creative director, designer, and moonwatcher. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Hope, Never Fear

A Personal Portrait of the Obamas • By Callie Shell

Award-winning photographer Callie Shell presents an intimate portrait of Barack and Michelle Obama and the guiding principles that defined their time in the White House. While documenting the journey from the Obamas' family home in Chicago to the most powerful house in the United States, Shell and the Obamas became fast friends, swapping stories about their families and sharing tips about coping with life on the road. Over 100 compelling photographs from behind the scenes, including many previously unpublished, are paired with insightful quotes from Michelle and Barack that reveal their warmth, compassion, and unending commitment to service. Featuring an in-depth introduction by Shell and notes drawn from the diaries she kept during her time with the Obamas, this is an affecting, deeply personal insight into an extraordinary couple who energized and empowered millions of people around the world.

Callie Shell is a World Press Photo Award-winning photographer whose work has appeared in magazines, books, galleries, and museums throughout the world. She has covered five presidential campaigns, served for eight years as the official photographer for Vice President Al Gore during the Clinton administration, and spent over 10 years capturing more than 400,000 images leading up to and during Barack Obama's presidency. What begins as a test of bravery or a sleepover activity—chanting in front of a mirror, riding an elevator alone, taking pictures in the dark—can become something . . . dangerous. This compendium collects the most spine-chilling games based on urban legends from around the world. Centuries-old games such as Bloody Mary and Light as a Feather, Stiff as a Board are detailed alongside new games from the internet age, like The Answer Man, a sinister voice that whispers secrets to whomever manages to contact him with a cellphone. With step-by-step instructions, historical context, and the stakes for each game, this black handbook is the ideal gift for anyone looking for a late-night thrill—but beware who, or what, may come out to play.

They Drew as They Pleased: Volume 5: The Hidden Art of Disney's Early Renaissance

By Didier Ghez • Foreword by Don Hahn

In the 1970s and 1980s, the Disney animation studio redefined its creative vision in the wake of Walt Disney's death. This latest volume from renowned Disney historian Didier Ghez profiles Ken Anderson and Mel Shaw, whose work defined beloved classic Disney characters from films like The Jungle Book, The Aristocats, Robin Hood, and The Rescuers. With vivid descriptions of passages from the artists' autobiographies and interviews, accompanied by never-before-seen images of their art and process, this visually rich collection offers a rare view of the Disney legends whose work helped shape the nature of character and story development for generations to come.

Didier Ghez is the author and editor of numerous books about the Disney studio and its artists, including the books in the Walt's People series and in the They Drew as They Pleased series. In 2018, Ghez received the prestigious June Foray Award for significant and benevolent impact on the art and industry of animation. He lives in Coral Gables, Florida.

Don Hahn is producer of The Lion King and of Beauty and the Beast, the first animated film to be nominated for a Best Picture Oscar®. His other credits include The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Maleficent, and the 2017 box office hit Beauty and the Beast. Hahn serves on the board of directors of PBS SoCal and the Advisory Committee of the Walt Disney Family Museum. He lives in Los Angeles.

Dear Juliet

Letters from the Lovestruck and Lovelorn to Shakespeare's Juliet in Verona • Collected by the Juliet Club

This is true: Every year, over 10,000 letters from all over the world addressed to Juliet Capulet arrive in Verona, Italy, the celebrated setting of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Dear Juliet presents a curated collection of 60 of these letters, which capture the pain, joy, melancholy, sappy certitude, and confusion of love. Including responses from Juliet herself, these letters offer encouragement, comfort, and hope. A perfect year-round gift, this romantic and relatable nod to the human condition proves that love is the universal language.

The Juliet Club is a nonprofit cultural organization started by Giulio Tamassia, now managed by his daughter Giovanna. Together, she and her fellow Juliet's Secretaries collect and respond to every letter addressed to Juliet. They are located in Verona, Italy.

Connoisseur Kids

Etiquette, Manners, and Living Well for Parents and Their Little Ones • By Jennifer L. Scott • Illustrated by Clare Owen

From Jennifer Scott—author of the New York Times best-selling Madame Chic series and founder of the Daily Connoisseur blog—comes this playful take on manners and being a good global citizen. Parents and younger children work together to read about a wide range of topics: communication, table manners, tidiness, thinking of others, grooming, and health. Activities, learning games, fill-in-the-blanks, letter-writing exercises, recipes (for food and for slime!), and some fun songs and rhymes help kids learn concepts and practice good behaviors. Featuring charming illustrations and go-to advice from a trusted source, this is a timely guide for raising well-mannered, neat, and gracious children for parents, grandparents, and children of reading age.

Jennifer L. Scott is the bestselling author of the Madame Chic books, the blogger behind the Daily Connoisseur, and the mother of four children. She lives with her family in Los Angeles, California.

Cats Are the Worst

By Bexy McFly • Illustrated by Megan Lynn Kott

From shredded furniture to messy litter boxes to fur on everything, there are times when every cat owner wants to shout, “Cats are the worst!” This playful book shows what it looks like if cats could shout back, “No, humans are the worst!” For every grievance humans have about their feline friends (knocked over glasses!), cats have one about their humans (unprovoked vacuuming!)—and each is explored in a lively exchange that is as funny as it is familiar. Filled with watercolor illustrations that perfectly capture every moment of cat-titude and packaged in a lovingly clawed case, Cats Are the Worst is a relatable laugh for anyone who might agree that cats are the worst—but also, maybe, a little bit the best.

Paws for effect: claw marks expose the book board!

Bexy McFly is a Sydney-based feline translator who runs a publication empire which she created from scratch (pun intended).

Megan Lynn Kott is a Milwaukee-based illustrator who has collaborated with Maximum Fun, Tea Collection, MeowBox, and others. Her first word was “kitty.”

Nordic Tales

Folktales from Norway, Sweden, Finland, Iceland, and Denmark
Illustrated by Ulla Thynell

Trolls haunt the snowy forests, and terrifying monsters roam the open sea.

A young woman journeys to the end of the world, and a boy proves he knows no fear.

This collection of 16 traditional tales transports readers to the enchanting world of Nordic folklore. Translated and transcribed by folklorists in the 19th century, and presented here unabridged, the stories are by turns magical, hilarious, cozy, and chilling. They offer a fascinating view into Nordic culture and a comforting wintertime read. Ulla Thynell's glowing contemporary illustrations accompany each tale, conjuring dragons, princesses, and the northern lights. This special gift edition features an embossed, textured case and a ribbon marker.

Ulla Thynell is an artist, illustrator, and graphic designer based in Helsinki, Finland.

Stories include:

- East of the Sun and West of the Moon
- The Giant Who Had No Heart
- Jack of Sjöholm and the Gan-Finn
- Death and the Doctor
- Hildur, the Queen of the Elves

Cocktails with a Twist

21 Classic Recipes. 141 Great Cocktails. • By Kara Newman

For anyone looking to expand their palate and discover a new favorite go-to drink, this inventive cocktail book is just the thing. Each chapter is based on a classic (like the Manhattan), but inside the unique gatefolds, readers will discover numerous riffs (like swapping Irish whiskey for rye to make a Blackthorn, or substituting amaro for vermouth to make a Black Manhattan). More than 100 variations on 21 modern classic cocktail recipes are accompanied by helpful tips on keeping a well-stocked bar, garnishing drinks, and throwing a party. With bold coloring and a foil cover, Cocktails with a Twist is a handsome addition to any home bar. And with 21 gatefolds, with classic recipes and intriguing variants, this is a cocktail book unlike any other.

Kara Newman is the spirits editor at Wine Enthusiast magazine and author of four cocktail books. She lives in San Francisco.

Cassatt

Mothers and Children • Essays by Judith A. Barter and Sue Roe

Mary Cassatt's tender and profound paintings redefined portraiture and broke down barriers for women in art—both as artists and as subjects. This collection focuses on Cassatt's insightful portrayal of women and children living their everyday lives. Fifty magnificent images cover the scope of Cassatt's work, from her early interest in Japanese wood-blocks all the way to her exploration of Modernist techniques. Two essays contextualize her as a pioneering female artist and as the American face of Impressionist painting. This is a luminous, robust, and timely celebration of an artist with a unique legacy. A luxurious textured case makes the book a meaningful gift for mothers, feminists, and art lovers.

Judith A. Barter is the Field-McCormick chair and curator of American art emerita at the Art Institute of Chicago.

Sue Roe is the author of The Private Lives of the Impressionists and other books. She lives in Brighton, England.

Trumpty Dumpty

Trumpty Dumpty wanted more power.
Legal constraints made him cranky and sour.
Revered institutions and customs could fall
As long as he got his preposterous Wall.

He peevishly called for a government shutdown
With wages and services drastically cut down.
His folly came off as an unfunny joke
When thousands of Federal workers went broke.

The face-off in Congress was not even close, he
Was handily snookered by Nancy Pelosi.
He angrily mounted a counter insurgency,
Launching a spurious National Emergency.

Trumpty Dumpty thus had begun
His maniacal trashing of Article One.
Behold a gorilla, let loose from the zoo:
Your Chief Executive, working for you.

Renowned journalist and New York Times bestselling author's inspirational stories and wisdom on recovery, mental health, and life beyond stroke

"I felt more alive, and yet more in touch with death, than I had for a long time, maybe ever. I suppose I felt that I had died—because part of my brain literally had—and I'd come back to life. It was like I was one of those mysterious middle-aged men you hear about now and then—men saddled with debts, overwork, and family burdens who suddenly vanish into thin air, shedding the skin of their old lives and starting life anew somewhere as a different person."

—David Talbot

Between Heaven and Hell

The Story of My Stroke • By David Talbot

Acclaimed writer, bestselling author, and founder of Salon magazine, David Talbot has brought us masterful and explosive headline-breaking stories for more than 25 years with books like the New York Times bestsellers Brothers, The Devil's Chessboard, and nationally recognized Season of the Witch. Now for the first time, journalist and historian David Talbot turns inward in this intimate journey through the life-changing year following his stroke, a year that turned his life upside down—and ultimately—saved him.

In his signature voice and with powerful storytelling, Talbot examines the physical, emotional, and psychological impact his stroke has had on his identity. Along the way Talbot offers readers insider stories on the wild early days of Internet journalism, insights into the new tech culture, the down and dirty of Hollywood, and much more. This is an illuminating, often humorous, portrait of how a health crisis can truly shift one's perspective on life and purpose.

Hard science for a generation that speaks emoji

Find Your Fuckyeah

Stop Censoring Who You Are and Discover What You Really Want

By Alexis Rockley

Grounded in cutting-edge science but translated for people who speak emoji, Find Your Fuckyeah disrupts the warm and fuzzy “personal growth” fads made fashionable by mock gurus and self-proclaimed #selfcare experts. This bold guide combines humor, pop culture, and psychology to show us why the one-size-fits-all success formulas and trendy morning routines keep us caught in a cycle of boredom and stress, never fully sustaining our happiness. With hard science, guided experiments, and modern wisdom—

Fuckyeah is the feeling you’ve been chasing since the first time you tasted ice cream, the first time you learned to ride a bike, the first time you cried laughing. It is the electric joy that we can’t seem to find, or hold onto, in our adult lives no matter how many me-time bubble baths, sunrise meditations, and #blessed Instagram posts we attempt.

from Beyoncé to Carl Jung—Alexis Rockley takes us step-by-step through the biological, cultural, and social factors that create our self-limiting beliefs. Debunking self-sabotaging ideals like “You Are a Living Brand” and “You Have One Calling,” Rockley encourages us to discover our real, uncensored selves and find a sense of purpose, even when we don’t have all the answers. For those of us tired of feeling the pressure to be better, do more, and work faster—to self-optimize and fall in line—Find Your Fuckyeah teaches us how to find joy where we are right now and to let our genuine self-expression guide us.

Silver. Skate. Seventies.

By Hugh Holland

In the 1970s, photographer Hugh Holland masterfully captured the burgeoning culture of skateboarding against a sometimes harsh but always sunny Southern California landscape. This never-before-published collection showcases his black-and-white photographs that document young skateboarders sidewalk surfing off Mulholland Drive in concrete drainage ditches and empty swimming pools in a drought-ridden Southern California. From suburban backyard haunts to the asphalt streets that connected them, this was the place that inspired the legendary Dogtown and Z-Boys skateboarders. With their requisite bleached-blond hair, tanned bodies, tube socks and Vans, these young outsiders evoke the sometimes reckless but always exhilarating origins of skateboarding lifestyle and culture.

Hugh Holland is a Los Angeles-based photographer and author of Locals Only. He is represented by M+B gallery in Los Angeles.

Tree of Life

By Tim Biskup

This first career-spanning look at Southern California artist Tim Biskup's prolific aesthetic range begins with his early roots in animation and traces the evolution of his distinct style, which incorporates a complex interplay of color, geometry, and layering, resulting in a gorgeous plethora of abstract, graphic paintings and drawings. Tim Biskup has been referred to as a Baroque Modern master, and his work has been celebrated for its dense, character-driven style inspired by mid-century design infused with a healthy dose of punk rock energy. In addition to the more than 450 pieces of artwork featured here, there is also a 12-page autobiographical account detailing Tim Biskup's artistic journey, including his significant struggles and considerable triumphs along the way.

Tim Biskup is a Los Angeles-based artist with early roots in animation whose work spans the genres of painting and sculpture.

CHILDREN'S

Why?

By Adam Rex • Illustrated by Claire Keane

This sweet book will appeal to anyone familiar with the universal tendency of young children to always ask WHY? When supervillain Doctor X-Ray swoops in threatening to vanquish an innocent crowd, the only one brave enough not to run away is a little girl, who asks him simply, “Why?” He is taken aback—but he answers. She keeps asking. And he keeps answering—until a surprising truth is uncovered, and the villain is thwarted. In this laugh-out-loud take on the small-and-determined-beats-big-loud-bully story, simple questions lead to profound answers in a quest that proves the ultimate power of curiosity.

Adam Rex is an illustrator and author of books such as Nothing Rhymes with Orange and Chu’s Day. He lives in Tucson, Arizona.

Claire Keane is the illustrator of Love Is and is known for her development art for the movies Tangled and Frozen. She lives in Venice Beach, California.

A new modern classic from the author-illustrator of the Caldecott Honor-winning They All Saw a Cat

A Stone Sat Still

By Brendan Wenzel

In this moving companion to the Caldecott Honor-winning They All Saw a Cat, Brendan Wenzel tells the story of a seemingly ordinary stone. But it isn't just a stone—to the animals that use it, it's a resting place, a kitchen, a safe haven . . . even an entire world. With stunning illustrations in cut paper, pencil, collage, and paint, and soothing rhythms that invite reading aloud, A Stone Sat Still is a gorgeous exploration of perspective, perception, sensory experience, color, size, function, and time, with an underlying environmental message that is timely and poignant. Once again Wenzel shows himself to be a master of the picture book form.

Brendan Wenzel is a New York Times bestselling author and illustrator based in upstate New York. He wrote Hello Hello and They All Saw a Cat, which was the recipient of a Caldecott Honor. He is a proud collaborator with groups working to protect and conserve wild places and creatures.

Rabbit and the Motorbike

By Kate Hoefler • Art by Sarah Jacoby

Rabbit isn't sure he'll ever be brave enough to go on an adventure. He's a homebody who lives in a quiet field of wheat he dreams of leaving every night. His world is enlarged by his friend Dog and Dog's tales of motorbike adventures. But one day, Dog is gone, and with him, go the stories Rabbit loves so much. Dare Rabbit pick up the motorbike and live his own story? This timeless fable of the journey from grief to acceptance will touch every reader. For those confronting loss and those eager to explore and experience, Rabbit's bravery in the face of sadness will console, nurture, and inspire.

Kate Hoefler received her MFA in poetry from the University of Michigan, where she studied as a Colby Fellow. She is the author of Real Cowboys and Great Big Things. She lives in a quiet village in Ohio where she can hear the distant sounds of the highway.

Sarah Jacoby grew up wandering the woods outside of Philadelphia. She now draws for many people and places, including the New York Times, and she is the author and illustrator of Forever or a Day. She lives in Philadelphia.

Draw Here

An Activity Book • By Hervé Tullet

Experiment, play, and draw—but most of all, just have fun—inside and outside the box with bestselling author Hervé Tullet’s new activity book! Tullet’s signature bold dots bounce, spin, and splatter across spread after spread, brilliantly communicating the foundations of whimsical imagination. More than 135 pages brimming with activities invite readers to fill in, connect, decorate, and above all, reimagine the dots, opening up eyes and minds to see things differently, playfully, and creatively!

Hervé Tullet is celebrated for his prodigious versatility, from directing ad campaigns to designing fabric for Hermès. But his real love is working with children, for whom he has published dozens of books, including the New York Times bestsellers Press Here, Mix It Up!, and Let’s Play! He lives in New York City.

Ready, Set, Draw!

A Game of Creativity and Imagination • By Hervé Tullet

From master of the imagination Hervé Tullet comes an irresistible package that makes drawing a fast-paced, non-competitive game of chance. Showcasing Tullet’s signature bold colors and minimalist shapes and lines, this wildly graphic and highly intuitive card game will unlock every young (and old) artist’s creative potential. Select what to draw from one deck and how to draw it from the other; then flick the colorful spinner wheel to randomize the options. From “draw a tree . . . with your eyes closed” to “draw flowers . . . upside down!,” the combinations are endless—and endlessly fun!

T. Rex Time Machine: Dinos in De-Nile

By Jared Chapman

Two T. Rexes are whisked away by their time machine to ancient Egypt, where King Tut mistakes them for Sobek, god of the Nile. They are treated to glorious feasts and magnificent tours. But when the aliens land—they're in the middle of constructing the pyramids—and expose the supposed gods as mere dinosaurs, everyone's mad. Will the dinosaurs escape? This laugh-out-loud romp through time and space is perfect for storytime, bedtime, read-alouds, and guaranteed giggles!

Get Up, Stand Up

Based on the song by Bob Marley

Adapted by Cedella Marley • Illustrated by John Jay Cabuay

Bob Marley's music has inspired millions of listeners around the world with messages of peace, love, and truth. This third picture book adaptation of one of his beloved songs has a timely message for children: To counter injustice, lift others up with kindness and courage. As a young girl goes on with her day in school, she comes across several instances of teasing and intimidation. But with loving action and some help from her friends, she's able to make things right for herself and others. With exuberant pictures by John Jay Cabuay accompanying Marley's iconic lyrics, Get Up, Stand Up is a vibrant testament to the power we all have to make a difference.

Praise for Every Little Thing:

"A sweet elaboration of the original's reassuring message that 'every little thing is gonna be all right.'"

—Kirkus Reviews

"Will strike a chord with worrywarts and loving children everywhere."

—School Library Journal

Praise for One Love:

"A feel-good story of a community coming together."

—Publishers Weekly

"This celebration of community is joyful."

—Kirkus Reviews

"Exuberant."

—School Library Journal

Bob Marley, a Jamaican singer-songwriter, is one of the 20th century's most important and influential entertainment icons, and his lifestyle and music continue to inspire new generations as his legacy lives on through his music.

What Color Is Night?

By Grant Snider

Look closer. Grant Snider's beautiful debut picture book explores the wonders—and colors—of nighttime. For night is not just black and white. Ending in colors yet unseen, and a night of sweet dreams, this lilting lullaby is sure to comfort those drifting off to sleep. With luminous art as spare and glowing as the moon, and lyrical text that reads like a friend leading the way through the wilderness, What Color Is Night? is a rich and timeless look at a topic of endless fascination, and a perfect bedtime read-aloud.

Grant Snider is an orthodontist by day and an author and artist of comics and picture books by night. He lives in Wichita, Kansas.

The first picture book from Annie Barrows, the New York Times bestselling author of the Ivy + Bean series

What John Marco Saw

By Annie Barrows • Illustrated by Nancy Lemon

John Marco is small. And everyone around him is busy. Too busy to listen to John Marco.

John Marco is busy, too—noticing the world around him. Maybe everyone should slow down and listen to John Marco. If they do, they might discover some pretty amazing things. They just need to pay attention. Like John Marco does.

Bestselling author Annie Barrows has a singular talent for creating stories that speak directly to young readers. Here, in her first picture book, she celebrates the importance of slowing down as she reminds us that sometimes the smallest people have the biggest things to say.

Annie Barrows has written many books for children, including the New York Times bestselling Ivy + Bean series—which has sold more than 5 million copies. She lives in Northern California.

Nancy Lemon lives in Charleston, South Carolina. This is her second book.

Hungry Jim

By Laurel Snyder • Illustrated by Chuck Groenink

When Jim wakes up one Tuesday morning, he doesn't feel like eating his pancakes. In fact, Jim doesn't feel like Jim. He feels rather, well, beastly. But he is hungry. Very hungry. . . . This clever and relatable tale of moods from Laurel Snyder and Chuck Groenink offers a lighthearted depiction of the beastliness that lives inside all of us—and the power we have to put it in its place. Surprising yet satisfying, this richly illustrated book brims with humor that readers of all ages will be roaring to devour.

Laurel Snyder is the author of many books for children, including the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award–winning Charlie & Mouse. She lives and writes in a small yellow house in Atlanta, Georgia, which she shares with her husband and two sons.

Chuck Groenink hails from a village in the north of the Netherlands, where he spent his formative years climbing trees, drawing, reading, and cycling. He lives in Syracuse, New York.

A book with bite from the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award-winning author of Charlie & Mouse!

The fairy tale follow-up to Interstellar Cinderella

Reading Beauty

By Deborah Underwood • Illustrated by Meg Hunt

When a fairy's curse—a deathlike sleep via paper cut—threatens to make her kingdom barren of books, it's up to space princess Lex to break the spell and bring books back to her people. Set in the universe of the acclaimed Interstellar Cinderella, this irrepressible fairy tale retelling will charm young readers with its brave heroine, its star-studded setting, and its hilarious, heartwarming happy ending.

Deborah Underwood is the author of Interstellar Cinderella and many other books for children, including the New York Times bestsellers Here Comes the Easter Cat, The Quiet Book, and The Loud Book. She lives in San Francisco.

Meg Hunt is the illustrator of Interstellar Cinderella and a print-maker, educator, and all-around maker of things. She was also the recipient of the 2015 Society of Illustrators Gold Medal Award for her contribution to the Illustrators 58 exhibition. She lives and works in Portland, Oregon.

The Hike

By Alison Farrell

With lyrical language that captures the majesty of the natural world coupled with fun narrative featured throughout, this spirited picture book tells the victorious story of three girls' friendship—and their tribulations and triumphs in the great outdoors. Here is the best and worst of any hike: from picnics to puffing and panting, deer-sighting to detours. Featuring a glossary, a sketchbook by one of the characters, abundant labels throughout, and scientific backmatter, this book is a must-have for budding scientists, best friends, and all adventurers. And it proves, as if proof were needed, what epic things can happen right in your own backyard.

Alison Farrell has a BA in painting and an MSE in art education. Her first book was Cycle City, and she lives in Portland, Oregon.

An adventure to lands near and far from bestselling author Dave Eggers

Most of the Better Natural Things in the World

By Dave Eggers • Illustrated by Angel Chang

A tiger carries a dining room chair on her back. But why? Where is she going? With just one word per page, in lush, color-rich landscapes, we learn about the features that make up our world: an archipelago, a dune, an isthmus, a lagoon. Across them all, the tiger roams. This enigmatic investigation of our world's most beautiful places from bestselling author Dave Eggers is beautifully illustrated by debut artist Angel Chang.

Dave Eggers is an American writer, editor, and publisher. He is also the founder of McSweeney's, the cofounder of the youth writing organization 826 Valencia, and the founder of ScholarMatch.

Angel Chang is an artist who lives in Taiwan. This is her first book.

Caspian Finds a Friend

By Jacqueline Véissid • Illustrated by Merrilees Brown

Caspian lives in a lighthouse surrounded by a cold gray-blue sea. Every day he watches, wishing for a friend. But no one comes. So, Caspian decides that wishing is not enough. What follows is an imaginative journey that will inspire readers to reach out to others, reminding us all that the power to change our world lies within ourselves.

Jacqueline Véissid can often be found staring out at the sea, wishing for a new picture book idea. She lives in Hull, Massachusetts. This is her second book.

Merrilees Brown studied fine art painting and drawing as well as documentary photography. Originally from London, she now lives in Philadelphia. This is her first book.

I See, I See.

By R. Henderson

A book for one.

A book for two.

A book for different points of view.

This clever and colorful picture book of opposites will change the way you see things, literally. Turn the book upside down and your perspective alters: Left becomes right; high becomes low; empty becomes full! Great as a rhyming read-aloud, and even better with a friend, this book of two points of view begs to be shared and will immerse booklovers of all ages in a unique reading experience.

R. Henderson is an author, illustrator, and graphic designer. He lives in Australia with his wife and two young children.

The Boring Book

By Shinsuke Yoshitake

Boredom: humankind’s age-old adversary. It’s a state that is undesirable, uninteresting . . . and just plain boring. But as one particularly bored boy discovers, there’s actually more to boredom than meets the eye—more questions, more theories, and heaps of humor. This exploration of boredom from acclaimed author-illustrator Shinsuke Yoshitake playfully—and hilariously—unpacks the ways in which a seemingly stagnant state is actually a portal into a dynamic, life-enriching experience. For anyone who’s ever been mind-numbingly bored, this smart, laugh-out-loud picture book just might change your perspective on the state of boredom forever.

Shinsuke Yoshitake is the author-illustrator of The I Wonder Bookstore and the creator of many award-winning picture books. He lives in Japan.

A Girl, a Raccoon, and the Midnight Moon

By Karen Romano Young • Illustrated by Jessixa Bagley

In a slightly fantastical New York City, one very special library branch has been designated for possible closure. Bookish, socially awkward Pearl, the daughter of the librarian, can't imagine a world without the library—its books, its community of oddballs, its hominess. When the head of their Edna St. Vincent Millay statue goes missing, closure is closer than ever. But Pearl is determined to save the library. And with a ragtag neighborhood library crew—including a constantly tap-dancing girl who might just be her first friend, an older boy she has a crush on, and a pack of raccoons who can read and write—she just might be able to. With an eclectic cast of richly drawn characters, a hint of just-around-the-corner magic, footnotes, sidebars, and Jessixa Bagley's classic illustrations throughout, this warm-hearted, visually magnificent tale of reading and believing from beloved author Karen Romano Young tells of a world where what you want to believe can come true.

Karen Romano Young is a writer, illustrator, and science journalist. She lives in Connecticut with her husband and two large, fluffy dogs.
Jessixa Bagley is an award-winning author and illustrator. She lives in Seattle, Washington, with her husband, adorable son, and a slew of houseplants.

AstroNuts Mission One: The Plant Planet

By Jon Scieszka • Illustrated by Steven Weinberg

This laugh-out-loud, visually groundbreaking read launches a major new series by children's literature legend Jon Scieszka. Featuring full-color illustrations throughout, a spectacular gatefold, plus how-to-draw pages in the back, it's an outer space adventure that demonstrates a giant leap for bookmaking and a giant leap for any kid looking for their next go-to series. AstroWolf, LaserShark, SmartHawk, and StinkBug are animals that have been hybridized to find other planets for humans to live on once we've ruined Earth. So off they rocket to the Plant Planet! Will that planet support human life? Or do Plant Planet's inhabitants have a more sinister plan? AstroNuts Mission One is a can't-put-it-down page-turner for reluctant readers and fans ready to blast past Wimpy Kid.

"Jon Scieszka, the groundbreaking storyteller and master of wit, brings us a smart and hilarious adventure. AstroNuts doesn't just break new ground—it breaks outer space! Brilliant."

—Dav Pilkey, bestselling author of the Dog Man and Captain Underpants series

Fun and silly with a heart of science! Give this to your curious readers."

—Jennifer L. Holm, New York Times-bestselling author of The Fourteenth Goldfish and the Babymouse series

"AstroNuts is the perfect mix of goofy characters, hard science, and farts. An absolute delight!"

—Gene Luen Yang, Ambassador for Young People's Literature and winner of the Printz Award for American Born Chinese

"The end of humankind is upon us, and who do we send to save us?! Certainly not a human! Wickedly funny, a story about climate change that doesn't come off as preachy. Kids will love this, and adults would be better off reading it, too."

—LeUyen Pham, illustrator of the Princess in Black series

Jon Scieszka is best known for his bestselling picture books, including The True Story of the Three Little Pigs! and The Stinky Cheese Man. He is also the founder of guysread.com and a champion force behind guyslisten.com, and was the first National Ambassador of Young People's Literature. He lives in Brooklyn.

Steven Weinberg writes and illustrates kids' books about dinosaurs, roller coasters, beards, and chainsaws. He lives in the Catskills in New York.

The Other Half of Happy

By Rebecca Balcárcel

Quijana is a girl in pieces. One-half Guatemalan, one-half American: When Quijana's Guatemalan cousins move to town, her dad seems ashamed that she doesn't know more about her family's heritage. One-half crush, one-half buddy: When Quijana meets Zuri and Jayden, she knows she's found true friends. But she can't help the growing feelings she has for Jayden. One-half kid, one-half grown-up: Quijana spends her nights Skyping with her ailing grandma and trying to figure out what's going on with her increasingly hard-to-reach brother. In the course of this immersive and beautifully written novel, Quijana must figure out which parts of herself are most important, and which pieces come together to make her whole. This lyrical debut from Rebecca Balcárcel is a heartfelt poetic portrayal of a girl growing up, fitting in, and learning what it means to belong.

"A touching and oh-so-satisfying story featuring a fierce and tender new Latinx superstar, Quijana Carrillo! Quijana will capture your heart with her defiant spirit and unwavering love for friends and family."

—Angela Cervantes, author of Me, Frida, and the Secret of the Peacock Ring

"Bravely told, with notes of vulnerability, brevity, and hope, this is a story that invites quiet courage to speak love, regardless of your native language."

—Beth Hautala, author of The Ostrich and Other Lost Things

"The palpable push-and-pull of Quijana's yearning for her father's homeland, Guatemala, will propel readers through this poetic, deeply affecting debut."

—Jenn Bishop, author of The Distance to Home

"In this lovely coming of age story, Quijana is a charmingly flawed character, and her struggle to be true to herself while managing the expectations of others will deeply resonate with readers of all backgrounds. Her journey to understand herself better and how she fits between two cultures is authentic and relatable, and her language struggles particularly hit home for me! With Rebecca Balcárcel's lyrical language, Quijana's voice manages to feel both fresh and familiar. I appreciated that Quijana's family is loving and warm, and their connection makes me want to live in a tilted house, learn to play the guitar and sing!"

—Hena Khan, author of Amina's Voice

Rebecca Balcárcel received the Jane Kenyon Poetry Prize, and her work has appeared in journals such as the North American Review. She is an associate professor of English at Tarrant County College. She lives in Bedford, Texas.

Redwood and Ponytail

By K.A. Holt

Kate and Tam meet, and both of their worlds tip sideways. At first, Tam figures Kate is your stereotypical cheerleader; Kate sees Tam as another tall jock. And the more they keep running into each other, the more they surprise each other. Beneath Kate's sleek ponytail and perfect façade, Tam sees a goofy, sensitive, lonely girl. And Tam's so much more than a volleyball player, Kate realizes: She's everything Kate wishes she could be. It's complicated. Except it's not. When Kate and Tam meet, they fall in like. It's as simple as that. But not everybody sees it that way. This novel in verse about two girls discovering their feelings for each other is a universal story of finding a way to be comfortable in your own skin.

K.A. Holt is the author of Rhyme Schemer, House Arrest, Knockout, and several other books for young people. She lives in Austin, Texas.

From the author of beloved bestseller House Arrest comes an extraordinary novel in verse about two girls falling in like.

Praise for K.A. Holt's previous books:

Praise for Knockout:

A New York Public Library Best Book of the Year

"A lightning fast championship read. With great heart, humor, and real-life punch."

—Jon Scieszka, Inaugural National Ambassador for Young People's Literature

"Light on its feet, and fiercely big-hearted."

—Adam Rex, New York Times-bestselling author of The True Meaning of Smekday

Praise for House Arrest:

"Serious and funny, thrilling and touching, sweet and snarky."

—School Library Journal

"Touches of humor lighten the mood, and Holt's firsthand knowledge of the subject adds depth to this poignant drama without overwhelming it."

—Publishers Weekly

Praise for Rhyme Schemer:

"Richly imaginative. . . . Eccentric, entertaining, essential. Verse novels will never be the same."

—Kwame Alexander, author of Newbery Medal-winner The Crossover

"Wonderful free verse poetry, and underlying messages."

Thirteen Haunting Tales to Tell • By Illustrátus

A finger against the inside of a mirror . . . a wood where the trees look back . . . a basement door blocked by a brick wall so thick, it stifles the screams from below . . . This original collection of chilling poems and tales contains the only true ghost stories in existence (as the book itself will tell you)—13 eerie encounters perfect for sharing . . . if you dare. Accompanied by striking illustrations and building to a truly spine-tingling conclusion, this haunting book will consume the imagination and keep readers of every age up long past their bedtimes.

Illustrátus is a small, California-based design company boasting talent with years of experience in the animation industry. Contributors to this chilling collection include authors Blaise Hemingway and Jesse Reffsin, and illustrators Chris Sasaki and Jeff Turley.

My Big Evil Brother Packed My Lunch!

20+ gross lift-the-flaps • Illustrated by Laura Watson

When Taylor's big brother volunteered to make their packed lunches for a week, it didn't seem like a bad idea. But with a brother as weird as Taylor's, nothing is ever as it seems! From frosting sandwiches to pickle hot dogs, it's a tale of mixed-up munchies and untradeable treats as kids eagerly (or gingerly) lift the flaps inside this unique lunch box-shaped book, complete with a snap closure and portable handle. Picky eaters and culinary rebels alike will delight in this endearingly unpleasant tribute to strange lunches and even stranger siblings.

Laura Watson creates whimsical illustrations for children's books, educational materials, and magazines. She lives in Toronto.

Havana Dice

A Classic Game of Luck and Deception

By Forrest-Pruzan Creative

A fast-paced and easy-to-learn bluffing game, Havana Dice puts a Cuban twist on the traditional classic of Liar's Dice or Dudo, which has been played in Latin America for centuries. Using poker dice and unique dice cups, 2 to 4 players roll their own dice in secret before bidding on the number of dice under everyone's cups—but if a bluff is successfully called, the bluffer loses a die. Wild poker chips up the ante and make for a fun and unpredictable game to play again and again, at home or on the go. Housed in a package resembling a vintage cigar box, this colorful and handsome game brings home a little taste of Havana.

Make It Dirty

The Game of Familiar Films Made Filthy

By Forrest-Pruzan Creative

An outrageously funny adult party game of sinful cinematic parody that's only as dirty as you make it! Players draw a Movie Title card from the deck of 200 beloved Hollywood classics, set the timer, and race to come up with the filthiest parody title. For players who are looking for an extra-large challenge, they can add on a Make It Harder card such as "Include a household appliance" or "Add a sound effect" to win bonus points. For 4 or more dirty-minded friends, this game will keep the fun going all night long.
