The Amicus Book of Bugs

by Isobel Lundie, illustrated by Isobel Lundie

Flying bugs, crawling bugs, jumping bugs - what little critters do you see? From dragonflies to spiders, from grasshoppers to caterpillars, this collage-illustrated board book introduces toddlers and preschoolers to a wide variety of insects and other crawling creatures.

Help toddlers and preschoolers identify common bugs they might see in the garden. Isobel Lundie's unique collage art, with detailed layers full of depth and life, draws the reader into the animal's world, while the simply structured text describes the bugs.

Perfect for inquisitive 2- and 3-year-olds, this board book makes an engaging one-to-one story time read.

Author Bio

Little Penguin

by Julie Abery, illustrated by Suzie Mason

Little Penguin toddling, waddling, step-by-step so slow.

A baby Emperor penguin journeys from his mama's feet, taking his first steps. Finally brave enough, with support from Mama, he joins the penguin nursery. A sweet story of youthful adventure and motherly love, told with short rhyming lines and warm illustrations.

Written by preschool teacher Julie Abery and captured by Suzie Mason's beautiful artwork, this book in Little Animal Friends board book series will delight babies and toddlers and demand to be read again and again.

Author Bio

Julie Abery is a children's author and early childhood educator. Originally from England, she has spent half of her life living in Europe, immersing herself in new languages and cultures. She currently lives in Switzerland.

Suzie Mason is a freelance illustrator who draws lovely things--from animals to fairies to multicolored pumpkins--and adores using bright colors to create happy artwork. She is the illustrator of Elephants, written by Rebecca Heller and published in the UK. Suzie works in her little house in beautiful Bournville, England, where she lives with her husband and ball-of-fuzz kitty.
