1000 NEEDLES

How to Increase Your Odds and
 Take Control of Your IVF Journey

KARISSA STELMA

1000 Needles

How to Increase Your Odds and Take Control of Your IVF Journey

by Karissa Stelma

Infertility affects about 15 percent of couples globally, amounting to 48.5 million couples, yet somehow infertility and IVF are taboo subjects, often hidden and un-talked about. 1000 Needles: How to Increase Your Odds and Take Control of Your IVF Journey removes the stigma with a touch of sass and an unapologetically honest voice, exploring one couple's IVF challenges and discoveries in order to normalize the infertility conversation. This guidebook addresses the medical and personal sides of the fertility coin, sifts through drug and treatment options, dispels myths, breaks taboos, and offers that elusive kernel of hope to those just beginning IVF or nearing its desperate end. The combination of meticulous research and personal experience that resulted in a successful pregnancy and birth for the author, coupled with an honest retelling of the emotional and physical impacts it had on both partners, gives readers a solid cheat sheet of what to expect as they traverse their own IVF journey.

Author Bio

Karissa Stelma, forever a New Yorker at heart, has been domiciled in Dubai for the last nine years while working in finance. She resides with her greatest loves-her husband, Kyle, and their three children

Everyone's Sleepy but the Baby

by Tracy C. Gold, illustrated by Adele Dafflon

*Sleepy Mommy,
Sleepy Daddy,
Sleepy little dog.
Everyone's sleepy
But the baby,
Yawn, yawn, yawn.*

After a long day, the whole family is ready to hit the hay . . . except for the baby. Why is it so hard to get the baby to sleep? With hilarious illustrations that might hit a little too close to home for new parents, Everyone's Sleepy but the Baby is the perfect, true-to-life bedtime story that will help even the most reluctant sleeper wind down for bed.

Author Bio

Adele Dafflon grew up in Fribourg, Switzerland, before studying illustration at Ecole Superieure des Arts Saint-Luc Liege in Belgium. Adele is now recognized for an array of individual and collective projects, most of which are inspired by her love of nature, animals, and insects, and she is also co-owner of a famous cafe in Fribourg.

Tracy C. Gold is a writer, editor, and mom living in Baltimore, Maryland. Her work has been published in several magazines and anthologies. Tracy earned her MFA in creative writing and publishing arts at the University of Baltimore, and earned her BA in English from Duke University

Hugga Loula

by Nancy Dearborn, illustrated by Huang Junyan

"If you're grumpy or sad, frustrated or mad, just give a shout, and hug it out." Loula learns that what we want isn't always what we need, and although a hug won't make negative feelings disappear, it's a great start! With trendy illustrations and a charming refrain that begs to be repeated, your family is sure to read Hugga Loula again and again.

A sweet, poignant read about the power of hugs to help us remember what really matters in life: each other. Our world needs more Hugga Loulas!"

-Rochelle Groskreutz, children's author

"Combining charming and smile-inspiring artwork with a powerful and much-needed message about how we respond to life's travails, Hugga Loula, by Nancy Dearborn, offers an antidote to the anger and impatience that sometimes characterize our lives. While the message of kindness and gentleness in the face of life's stresses is one that Loula's family certainly already knows, they-like all of us-benefit from Loula's caring reminder. In a world that often tempts us to lose control and faith, Hugga Loula is the right lesson."

-Rod Vick, author of Kaylee's Choice and Wisconsin Teacher of the Year 2000

"I believe little children-every day-have the power to make (...)

You Got This, Mama!

From Boobs to Blowouts, a Survival Guide for New Mothers
by Elizabeth Swenson

Being a mom is HARD-don't let anyone tell you otherwise. The first few months (or let's be real, 18 years) after bringing a new baby home can be tiring and messy. Mothers need encouragement, inspiration, and a good laugh. You Got This, Mama!: From Boobs to Lube, a Survival Guide for New Mothers is a visual guide to new motherhood with illustrated quotes, hilarious infographics, and encouraging thoughts to power new moms through another day. Real, honest, and beautifully designed, this is the guide for moms that we didn't know we needed.

Author Bio

Liz Swenson lives in the sunny beach town of San Clemente, California, with her handsome hubs, three crazy boys, and big dog, Harper. She relishes momming, teaching math to high schoolers, making art, and living life to the fullest

The Chameleon's True Colors

by Yuliya Pankratova

Chameleon is sad because he doesn't have a color of his own. He borrows yellow from the sun, pink from an orchid, and orange from a tiger, but will there be enough color for everyone? With gorgeous, colorful illustrations and a message about the power of giving, The Chameleon's True Colors is the picture book every family needs on their shelf.

Author Bio

Moving from Moscow to London at five years old, Yuliya was terrified to discover she had to start school. Upon finding most Year One lessons consisted mainly of drawing, she banished her fears and hit her stride. Yuliya went on to graduate with degrees in English literature (from the University of Manchester) and illustration (from the Camberwell College of Arts) and got her first job at an advertising agency. Yuliya's illustration style is painterly, based in traditional media and often focused on the natural world

Etherwalker

by Cameron Dayton

The world is broken.

The once powerful machines that ruled over land and sky have died, leaving humanity in a primitive age of swords and monsters.

When Enoch accidentally awakens a powerful Artificial Intelligence, he discovers the truth behind his peculiarity—Enoch is an Etherwalker, the last in a long line of powerful technopaths who can control machines with their minds. Without knowing it, he has triggered the ancient Hunt, and now legendary monsters are hungry for his blood and bent on his extinction. They know he has seen the truth behind the broken world, and, if he survives, he may have the power to shatter it . . . or to make it whole again.

Vividly realized, skillfully crafted, and briskly paced, Etherwalker is a thrilling first chapter for what is sure to be an outstanding saga." -Micky Neilson, Senior Story Developer, Blizzard Entertainment

"It's unlike anything I've read before, and I want more." -Matt Burns, author of *Diablo III: Book of Tyrael

"Cameron Dayton has met the challenge of blending science fiction and fantasy with Etherwalker." -Christie Golden, New York Times Bestselling Author of *Star Wars: Dark Disciple

"A heady stew of genetic engineering, Mesoamerican myth, technoutopianism, and post-apocalyptic dreaming, with a dash of quest fantasy and a liberal helping of nerd apotheosis." -Alex Irvine, Locus-Award winning author"

Author Bio

With over fifteen years writing for blockbuster franchises from Blizzard Entertainment, Electronic Arts, and Epic Games, Cameron has gained a reputation for bringing riveting, powerful storytelling to games. Cameron wrote the script to Advent Rising with best-selling novelist Orson Scott Card, and co-founded the story-centered game development studio Chair Entertainment. At Blizzard, he built narratives for some of the most popular games in the world, including The World of Warcraft, StarCraft, Hearthstone, Overwatch, and Diablo. He also wrote Blizzard's first web-comic, Kerrigan: Hope and Vengeance, which ranked #1 on Amazon. Cameron's short stories are featured in several anthologies: Wendigo Tales, Paragons, War Stories, and Heroes Rise, Darkness Falls. Completing the circuit from games to published work to film, Cameron wrote the screenplay for the independent film Unicorn City, which garnered several awards in the indie circuit and was featured on

Naciste Para Mi / Made for Me

by Zack Bush, illustrated by Gregorio De Lauretis

De todos los niños que hay por ahí, tú eres el perfecto para mí.

Nada puede transmitir debidamente la alegría y el asombro de ver nacer y crecer a un niño. La primera vez que balbucea "papa", sus primeros e inestables pasos. . . Ahora, publicado como un libro de cartón repleto de adorables ilustraciones y el estribillo "tú eres el perfecto para mí", Naciste Para Mi constituye una exquisita presentación de momentos tiernos que unirán de por vida a un padre y a su hijo.

Author Bio

When Zack Bush was growing up, he spent his free time listening to jazz. Instead of imagining a career in law or medicine like so many of his classmates, the Miami native knew he would take a different path. Zack learned to play the piano and would speak with family and friends about one day owning a venue that would bring the music he loved to others. Zack is now the owner of Ball & Chain, a historic live-music venue on Miami's famed Calle Ocho, in the heart of Little Havana. Zack and his partners renovated and restored the nearly forgotten gem, famous for hosting 20th-century jazz greats like Chet Baker, Count Basie, and Billie Holiday. Today, musicians from around the world perform live on the Ball & Chain stage. Zack's other passion is books. A devoted reader and writer, Zack's lifetime desire to become an author has found a refreshed source of inspiration as the father of two-year-old son Ace and baby daughter Ava.

Gregorio De Lauretis studied at the Academy of Art in Florence and graduated in Teramo. Since then he has studied graphic design and web design at Nemo NT Academy of Digital Arts where he awarded a scholarship from the famous character designer Stephen Silver. Gregory works digitally but begins with drawing with ink on paper. He then scans the work on his computer where he exalts the piece with his colors and finishing touches. He currently works as freelance illustrator based in Florence, where he lives. Imagination is my world. Illustration is my language

Somewhere in the City

by J. B. Frank, illustrated by Yu Leng

*Somewhere in the city,
Lucy's just not ready to go to bed.
She opens her bedroom window and lets in the bustle of the street below.
Stores are closing. A scruffy dog sniffs an empty pail.
Daddy's coming home," she calls to the dog.
Woof-woof , barks the dog.*

The sights and sounds of the city come alive in a magical way as Lucy waits eagerly for her father to return from work. Watching out the window, Lucy's view of dogs, bakers, and buses is juxtaposed with her father's journey through crowds, trains, and finally home to tuck her in. Detailed illustrations contrast a child's fantastical view of the world with reality, all leading up to a cozy finish that will make this a perfect bedtime book for city children everywhere.

Somewhere in the City touches the heart of what it means to be a dad and love your daughter unconditionally."

-Thomas Matlack, founder of The Good Men Project

"A beautiful and sweet story about the power of love and connection."

-Emily Esfahani Smith, author of The Power of Meaning: Crafting a Life that Matters

"All children must go to sleep-even if they live somewhere in the bustling city. In this beautifully written story, a girl waits for her dad as he rushes home to tuck her into bed. Captivating and soothing at the same time-a must-read for all."

-Mary Logue, author of Sleep Like a Tiger and the Claire Watkins mystery series

A Spring Stroll in the City

by Cathy Goldberg Fishman, illustrated by Melanie Hall

Spring stroll in the city

What do I see?

One giant shamrock.

Two kites in a tree.

Take a stroll through the city in springtime and experience the sights, sounds, colors, and smells of the multitude of different holidays we celebrate this season. From St. Patrick's Day and Easter to Nowruz and Cinco de Mayo, everyone has a reason to celebrate. With simple rhymes, a counting pattern, and stunning papercraft art reminiscent of Ezra Jack Keats, this diverse board book is the perfect introduction to the cultural melting pot that makes the city so special.

Author Bio

A graduate of Lesley College and the University of Vermont, Cathy taught in an elementary school, directed a daycare center, and owned a children's bookstore. In addition to writing, Cathy teaches at Georgia Military College in Augusta, Georgia, and works part-time at the Augusta Jewish Federation.

Melanie Hall has illustrated over 45 children's books and teaches children's book illustration in the MFA program "Get Your Masters with the Masters" at Marywood University in Pennsylvania and the Highlights Foundation. Her work has received numerous awards, including Parents' Choice, and has been exhibited in The Original Art Show at the Society of Illustrators.

CAT

How can we help our smallest readers go from baby babble to pronouncing everyday words? The Baby Babble Series will gently encourage babies and toddlers to use their first words and sounds as building blocks for new vocabulary. This book (the second in this series) introduces the C/K" sound with words like car, coat, and keys. Filled with mirrors, textured material, and flaps, this interactive board book invites babies to touch and feel each new word, providing kinesthetic, visual, and auditory sensory experiences that will develop their language skills and delight their hands, eyes, and ears with every turn of the page.

Author Bio

C. Hope has written more than 250 stories for preschool, kindergarten, first grade, and second grade school readers for the Association of Christian Schools International.

Hope has authored and traditionally published three novels, two nonfiction books, and has written more than 75 articles for children and adult magazines.

Susanna Covelli was born in a small town in Piedmont, Italy, earned an MA in architecture, and followed her passion for art and decided to attend a specialization course in both traditional and digital illustration at Scuola Internazionale di Comics in Turin. Her art expresses her own imagination and inspiration from nature, and she has always been attracted by sinuous shapes, Baroque style, and out-of-the-ordinary perspective
