SIMPLY SKYE

Avi's doll Skye is not a boy or a girl. Neither is Avi. But what will their family think? Avi uses Skye to explore gender expression and identity and also to discover how their family will react to Avi's own nonbinary identity. Breaking gender stereotypes, Avi's clothing choices and actions show their brother, sister, and parents who they really are as their family gradually understands and accepts Avi's identity.

Author: Pamela Morgan

Illustrator: Heather Bell

Price: $18.99

Page Count: 24

Trim Size: 9" x 9"

Format: Hardcover with jacket

Age: 6-9

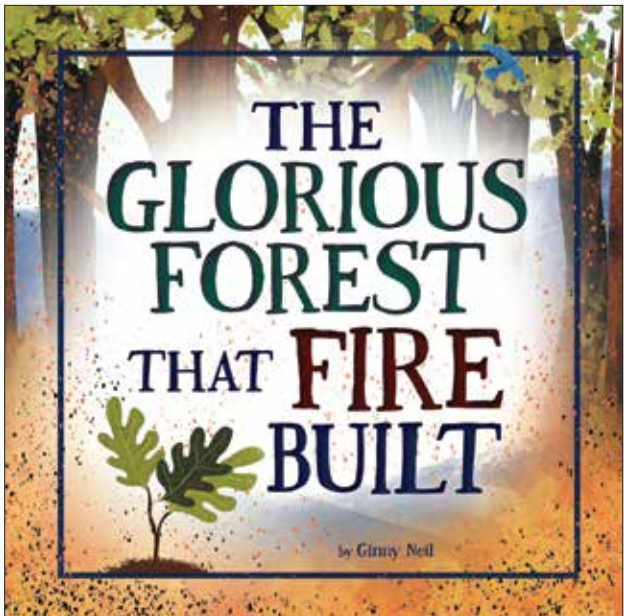

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

As the mother of a nonbinary child, Pamela Morgan wanted to make the books her child wasn't finding on bookshelves. She is a fierce advocate for trans rights, an award-winning author and playwright, and the mom to two incredible human beings she hopes one day will change the world.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Illustrator Heather Bell grew up playing tea party, war, and squirrel adventures. The labels "girl" and "boy" never fully fit as Heather felt like both. It would be years before Heather heard the term "nonbinary" and felt understood and seen. As a proud member of the LGBTQ+ community and a mother, she loves to portray diverse characters.

THE GLORIOUS FOREST THE FIRE BUILT

A wildfire roars through the forest, leaving nothing but ashes until seeds sprout from deep below. Root by root and seed by seed, the forest rises again. In this lyrical cumulative nonfiction story about forest succession, readers will learn that forest fires are critical to forest health and that the end of a tree's life provides the opportunity for new life. Back matter explains the timeline of the forest cycle in more detail.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR/ILLUSTRATOR

Ginny Neil is an author, illustrator, award-winning teacher, and master naturalist. When she's not slogging through a marsh trying to spot spring peepers or chasing errant sheep across mountains and meadows, she manages an outdoor learning lab, teaches STEM to elementary and middle school students, and writes about all the things and people that make Earth such a fun and fascinating place to live. The Glorious Forest that Fire Built is her first picture book.

“There’s a moral dimension too . . . Only with the arrival of a feared common enemy do the farm animals remember to make common cause, putting an end to the great cookie kerfuffle.”

—Wall Street Journal

THE GREAT COOKIE KERFUFFLE

A friendly little farm breaks into chaos as increasing numbers of farm animals fight over a dropped cookie, until there’s trouble overhead! United against a common enemy, the animals learn that friendship and taking care of each other is more important than winning a fight.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

As a preschool teacher and children’s writer, Jessica Shaw happily spends most of her time viewing life from a child’s perspective. She is convinced it is the very best way to look at the world. A lover of books from an early age, Jessica lives in the beautiful Texas Hill Country with her husband and three children.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Pauline Gregory lives in England by the sea. As an illustrator, she takes inspiration from the funny and endearing things animals and people do every day, as well as the superb imagination of children, to create quirky illustrations with humor and charm. Animals are her favorite thing to draw, so this book was a wonderful bundle of animal fun.

PEAS IN A POD

Sophie is finally getting used to having just her Dad around after her mother died. Things are going smoothly—Sophie and her dad are like two peas in a pod. But when Sarah and her dog Billy come along, everything changes. Will there be room for more peas in the pod?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Rachel Noble worked as a journalist, radio producer, and presenter before becoming a children's writer. Peas in a Pod is her third picture book, after Marty (Holiday House, 2021) and Finn's Feather (Enchanted Lion, 2018). She lives in Australia with her husband, four children, and her naughty puppy named Eddie.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Katie Rewse lives on the south coast of England. Specializing in children's book illustration, Katie is particularly interested in how illustration can inspire positive change. In 2020, she was shortlisted for the World Illustration Awards. Katie finds inspiration in the outdoors, travel, and adventure, and when she is not drawing, she enjoys exploring the coast with her husband in their camper van.

A LITTLE ROUND PANDA

In the middle of a Chinese forest, a little round panda munches on bamboo. Where is his place on the big, blue Earth? These captivating titles use richly illustrated poems to illuminate a unique geographical perspective, showcasing the featured animal's home environment as each page spread spotlights ever-widening views from forest or mountain to village and city, country, continent, ocean, and finally the planet in space.

Danna lives in northern California, where she is hard at work on her next book.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Ana Zurita was born in Valencia, Spain, and studied fine arts at university because she never imagined doing anything other than drawing. Since 2005, she has illustrated children's stories, picture books, and textbooks for publishers in Spain and abroad. One Blue Gnu is her first picture book for Amicus Ink.

"Both clever and contemporary, this will please screen-savvy toddlers."

—Booklist

"... an inviting endorsement of creative, musical play."

— Publishers Weekly

EVERYTHING A DRUM

A musical toddler keeps his parents on their toes as he explores his world and turns everything—from the walls to the family pet—into a means to tap out a beat. Capturing the joy and frustrations of toddler life and young parenthood, Everything a Drum will speak to both young rhythm makers and their parents. Humorous, touching illustrations of the exuberant musician celebrate family life with rhythmic phrases and sound words that are fun to read aloud.
