All My Relatives (Indinawemaaganidag)
Artists: Storm Angecone, Lac Seul First Nation, Ojibwe
Author: Storm Angecone, Lac Seul First Nation, Ojibwe

Join artist and author, Storm Angecone, Lac Seul First Nation, Ojibwe as she gives thanks to her relatives in her first published children's book. In All My Relatives — Indinawemaaganidag, Storm shares the intimate relations between the natural world, her family and their traditions. Storm gives thanks to each animal in Ojibwe in this first-of-its-kind board book featuring her beautiful, colourful Ojibwe art.

Born and raised in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Storm Angecone is an Ojibwe visual artist from Lac Seul First Nation, Treaty 3 Territory in Northern Ontario. Her immense talent is rooted in her family connections, ancestral stories, and natural landscapes. Storm's work has been found anywhere from large, public murals to several Native Northwest collections, including Ojibwe Florals and Buffaloes (MashkodeBiizhikina).

"Our traditions and world views honour and respect Indinawemaaganidag, all my relatives. We are connected to the animals, from the four legged to the fish that swim in the waters to the winged birds that fly in the sky. My gratitude to all my relatives, to the land, your plants that feed us. Miigwech, thank you for your gifts of food, shelter, medicines and teachings that have been provided to ourselves, our ancestors and to future generations."
