THREADS OF TRIUMPH

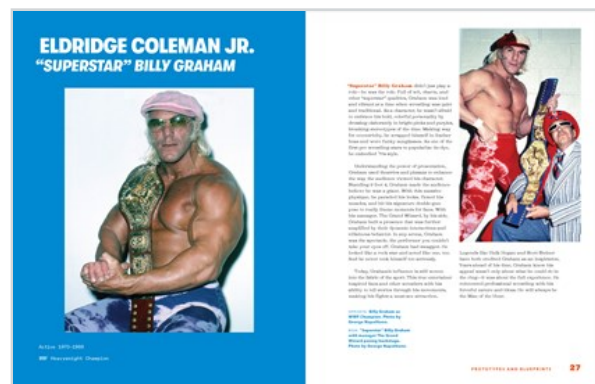

Professional Wrestling's Most Iconic Looks

BY MCKENZIE MITCHELL
FOREWORD BY MERCEDES MONÉ

Step into the ring and relive the triumph, the drama, and the larger-than-life personas that define professional wrestling—all through the lens of wrestling's most iconic gear. This vibrant celebration features over fifty global icons, including "Macho Man" Randy Savage, Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, The Undertaker, Shawn Michaels, Ric Flair, Rey Mysterio, Becky Lynch, Bianca Belair, and many more. With a foreword by one of wrestling's best—Mercedes Moné!

With absolutely stunning photography and stories from the 1940s to today, Threads of Triumph is a visual romp through what is perhaps most integral to a professional wrestler's story—their gear.

What a wrestler wears plays a large part in evoking real emotion, feelings, and attitudes. Gear connects a wrestler to their character, and through their character, they are connected to their roots, their story, their heritage. This one-of-a-kind deep dive highlights some of the most memorable looks in the business. It features stunning full-color photographs and exclusive and insightful commentary from some of the biggest stars in pro wrestling.

McKenzie Mitchell has worked as an international on-camera host featured on some of the biggest networks, including Fox, USA Network, and Peacock. She is most known for her time in World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE), where she served for four years as a host, announcer, and backstage correspondent on WWE's weekly international television program, WWE NXT.

ART BUT MAKE IT SPORTS

Epic Matchups Where Art and Sports Collide

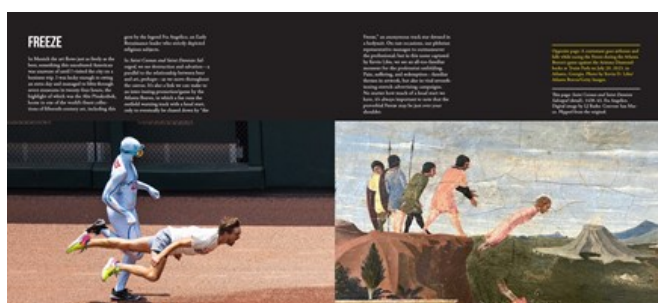

BY LJ RADER, FOREWORD BY CHARLOTTE WILDER

A clever and laugh-out-loud art history twist on your favorite sports moments, from the creator of the social media phenomenon Art But Make It Sports.

Epic moments in modern sports are masterfully paired with their fine art doppelgangers in this incredible compilation of side-by-side images that sports fans will marvel at. Featuring photographs from basketball, baseball, softball, football, soccer, tennis, hockey, golf, the Olympics, and more, matched with paintings and other pieces of historical art that mirror them, the undeniable similarities will keep you turning the pages!

- Is it LeBron James holding up the NBA Cup after the Lakers defeated the Indiana Pacers in the 2023 In-Season Tournament Championship, or is it Salvador Dalí's Man Holding Up a Baby?
- Is Caitlin Clark posing for a portrait during the 2024 WNBA draft, or is that Judith with the Head of Holofernes by Charles Mellin?
- What about Jason Kelce celebrating a touchdown. Is it a good time amongst friends, or is it The Feast of Bacchus by Phillips Koninck?

And there's more than just the one-to-one visual comparisons—the thematic connections present in each pairing are equally fascinating. Just as in Eugène Delacroix's 1830 painting Liberty Leading the People, we see Sabrina Ionescu (of the New York Liberty) encapsulate the same themes of power and strength as she leads her team to victory during the 2023 WNBA Playoffs.

PIZZA PRACTICE

Doughs, Techniques + Toppings

BY TARA JENSEN

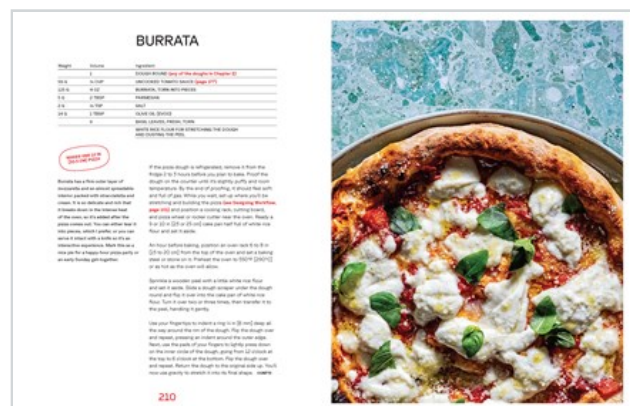

PHOTOGRAPHS BY SCOTT SUCHMAN

From acclaimed baker Tara Jensen: The definitive primer on baking pizza dough, with brilliant color photos, illustrations, and easy-to-follow recipe layouts.

Pizza dough is a gateway for many home bread bakers, allowing them to experiment with different tools, toppings, ingredients, timings, and shapes. This companion guides you step by step from the simplest doughs to artisanal bakes. Here are 89 recipes any baker can perfect, with simple cook-along layouts and ways to explore different ingredients, techniques, flours, and heat sources for perfecting pizza, pita, and focaccia.

Bright and visually rich, with more than 60 color photographs, this baking book provides expert guidance on how to:

- Set up your baking space with the right ingredients and tools
- Cook over fire or with an outdoor oven, or trick out the oven that came with your apartment to bake an impressive pie
- Learn the perfect ratios of toppings to crust
- Build classics such as Margherita, Clam, and Pepperoni pizzas, as well as a collection of fancifully delicious takes, including Breakfast pizza; Delicata Squash, Shallot, and Gruyere; and a particularly luscious Pancetta and Brown Butter Pineapple pie
- Craft a foolproof focaccia
- Discover all you need to know to make pita with kids
- And much more!

THE FLAVOR OF FIRE

Recipes for Grilling & Smoking with Southern Flair

BY KELSEY BARNARD CLARK, BY (PHOTOGRAPHER) ANTONIS ACHILLEOS

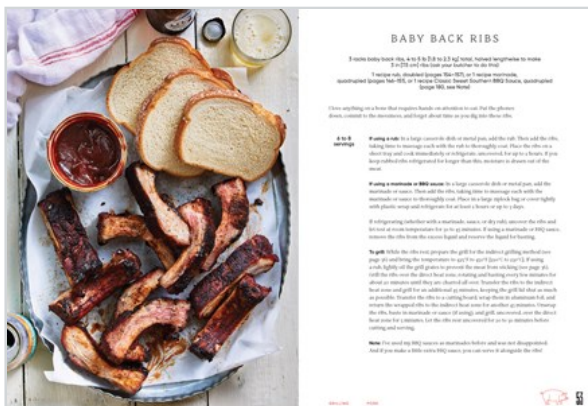

Learn to grill, smoke, and cook anything outside with this mouthwatering cookbook that shares fundamental techniques plus 101 Southern-inspired recipes from James Beard semifinalist and Top Chef winner Kelsey Barnard Clark.

Roasting food outdoors over an open flame is simple, honest cooking, but its flavors—charred, smoked, toasted, blackened, grilled—can't be replicated.

Written with signature warmth and authority by James Beard semifinalist and Next Gen Chef judge Kelsey Barnard Clark, The Flavor of Fire teaches the fundamentals of grilling and smoking, handing you the tools to master essential techniques. From choosing the right equipment for your needs to cooking any cut of meat to perfection, Kelsey helps you conquer the basics and feel empowered to be creative rather than beholden to a recipe. Just fire up the grill or the smoker and enjoy the process.

Here are plenty of recipes to guide and inspire you. Follow instructions for grilling lamb chops, chicken wings, or a bavette steak or smoking a duck, turkey legs, or pork butt. Then flavor-charge those meats any way you like, thanks to a whole chapter on rubs, brines, and marinades and another on sauces. Recipes for veggies and starchy sides round out your plate, making it easy to build a menu for any occasion.

Kelsey Barnard Clark is a James Beard-nominated Southern chef, TV personality, and the author of Southern Grit and Southern Get-Togethers. She's trained in some of the best Michelin-starred kitchens and continues to hone her craft, competing against the best chefs in the world on Food Network and beyond. Kelsey was the winner and fan favorite of Top Chef's season 16 and is one of the judges on Netflix's Next-Gen Chef. She runs a catering business and eatery, KBC, in Alabama, where she lives with her husband and two children.

CAKE PICNIC

Recipes for the Love of Cake & Friends

BY ELISA SUNGA

From the founder of Cake Picnic—a series of joyful, diverse, and deliciously indulgent gatherings where every attendee brings a whole cake—this cookbook of 50 baking recipes includes a guide to hosting your own confectionery events and encourages bakers to lean into play, connection, community—and lots of cake!

It all started with a dream: A few friends lounging in the park on a sunny day, eating cake. Elisa Sunga posted the invitation to that first-ever cake picnic and, to her surprise and delight, nearly 200 people showed up. And so, Cake Picnic, a joy-filled gathering where each attendee brings a whole cake to share with friends old and new, was born. Its immense, immediate popularity inspired Elisa to take her picnic series on the road, traveling from LA to New York and beyond. When she realized she couldn't bring Cake Picnic to everyone, everywhere in the world, she did the next best thing: She wrote this book.

Part how-to guide, part recipe collection, Cake Picnic provides everything you need to host your own delightfully decadent cake picnic. Here is practical advice for planning, hosting, and attending: how to choose a theme, prepare your guests, set up the event, encourage connection, transport whole cakes, and more. But the icing on the—you guessed it—cake is the 50 recipes within.

Elisa Sunga transforms butter, sugar, and flour into reasons for gathering and celebration. As the creator of CAKE PICNIC and cofounder of Bucket List Bake Club, she has brought thousands of bakers together, turning shared passion into lasting community. Her ability to weave sweetness and connection into memorable experiences has caught the attention of the New York Times, Food Network, and many other media outlets globally.

WILL THIS MAKE YOU HAPPY

Stories & Recipes from a Year of Baking

BY TANYA BUSH, ILLUSTRATED BY FORSYTH HARMON

For fans of Nora Ephron and Nigel Slater, this hybrid memoir and cookbook brings together over fifty inventive baking recipes with a lyrical coming-of-age story about desire and dessert. Perfect for home cooks, lovers of literature, and anyone who finds comfort in the kitchen.

Tanya Bush is adrift in the uncertainty of her early twenties—unemployed, uninspired, and stuck in a long-term relationship that's lost its spark. One day, just to do something, she decides to bake a cake. It's gooey in the center, woefully underbaked, an absolute disaster—but it also reminds her of the pleasures of baking: sugar crystals under her fingernails, flour in her hair, and the hard-earned satisfaction of following the steps of a recipe to the end.

Over the course of a year, Tanya embarks on a journey that carries her from her tiny apartment to the sunlit kitchens of an Italian agriturismo to the basement of a bustling Brooklyn bakery, where she rediscovers her appetite for pleasure, indulgence, and meaningful work.

A culinary memoir and love story, interwoven with over fifty innovative and approachable baking recipes, Will This Make You Happy is for readers and bakers looking for something messier, more experimental, and honest than the typical aspirational cookbook.

Tanya Bush is a Brooklyn-based writer and baker. She is the co-founder of Cake Zine, the pastry chef for Tables of Contents and the Brooklyn-based restaurant Little Egg, where her cruller was named NY Mag's Best Pastry. She is the founder of the popular Instagram account @will.this.make.me.happy

CITRUS, ILLUSTRATED

A Cookbook of 35 Sweet & Savory Recipes

BY GEORGE GEARY

ILLUSTRATED BY REBECCA HOLLINGSWORTH

A brightly illustrated guide to all things citrus! Learn about these beautiful and practical fruits, why to cherish them, and how to put them to good use, including 35 sensational recipes.

From the ubiquitous navel orange to the lesser-known Fukushu kumquat to the straight-up-funky Buddha's hand citron, citrus comes in many forms. Knowing exactly how and when to best harness their bright essences can be a challenge—until now. This handy little cookbook offers a fascinating exploration of over 25 citrus varieties and their many uses, from enriching simple dishes to the oils of the peel and juice of the fruit.

Featuring 35 sweet and savory recipes that will help you use up a bumper crop or make the most of the brightest fruits of the season, including:

- Mojito Tea Cake with Rum Glaze
- Pink Grapefruit and Tomato Salsa
- Buddha's Hand Vodka Martini
- Kumquat and Pineapple Chutney
- Tart Lemon Curd
- and more!

Charming citrus-bright illustrations throughout make this resource guide—also packed with historical background on each fruit, attributes, nutritional and health benefits, availability, and more—an inspiring gift for home cooks and bakers, fruit lovers, and anyone interested in maximizing their use and enjoyment of luscious citrus fruits.

THE MADMAN'S ORCHESTRA

The Greatest Curiosities from the History of Music

BY EDWARD BROOKE-HITCHING

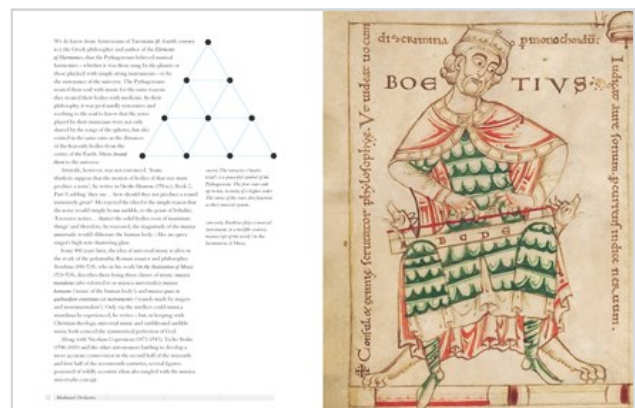

A beautifully illustrated exploration of the strangest areas of music from around the world, from the author of the critically acclaimed bestsellers The Phantom Atlas, The Madman's Library, and The Devil's Atlas.

Join author Edward Brooke-Hitching on a backstage tour of the most surprising and eccentric stories in the history of music. From the musical secrets of prehistoric monuments to the future of compositions by artificial intelligence, The Madman's Orchestra uncovers the most curious tales, madcap musicians, and unusual instruments lost in time.

In these pages, discover answers to questions like:

- What does the song of a black hole sound like?
- Which composition requires four helicopters and a string quartet with strong stomachs to play it correctly?
- When should you feed your piano hay?
- What does the “cat organ” sound like, and is it any more pleasing to the ear than the “hog harmonium”?

Fascinating, funny, and at times barely believable, this abundantly illustrated volume is a unique compendium brimming with entertaining facts, stories, and playlists of obscure music that will thrill and delight every music lover.

Edward Brooke-Hitching is the author of beautifully illustrated nonfiction titles such as The Phantom Atlas, The Sky Atlas, The Devil's Atlas, The Madman's Library, and The Madman's Gallery. A writer for the hit BBC television show QI and a Fellow of the Royal Geographic Society, he lives in England.

THE BEATLES BY JIM MARSHALL

Live at Candlestick Park 1966

BY AMELIA DAVIS

PHOTOGRAPHS BY JIM MARSHALL

CONTRIBUTIONS BY JOEL SELVIN

Relive The Beatles' last live public concert through the eyes of the ultimate rock 'n' roll photographer Jim Marshall. This deluxe volume collects over 150 photos and proof sheets, half of them never before seen.

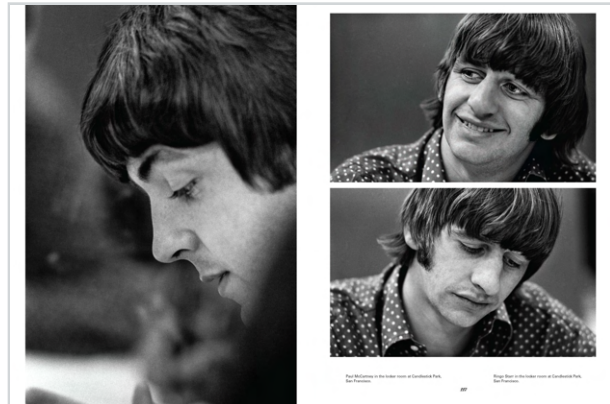

Jim Marshall's photographs of The Beatles' 1966 concert in San Francisco capture a historic convergence: one of the biggest names in music photography and one of the most beloved bands in history. Specially requested as photographer by The Beatles, Marshall immortalized not only the concert itself, but also intimate moments backstage, such as the musicians meeting the Baez sisters and hanging out in the locker room before the show.

This definitive collection presents the photographs at large scale and in the rich high-contrast tones Marshall favored. An in-depth essay by music historian Joel Selvin brings the moment to life. Whether you were there at Candlestick Park or wish you had been, this is your chance to see The Beatles as you've never seen them before.

Jim Marshall, who died in 2010 at age 74, is widely celebrated as a premier music photographer and pioneer of the genre. His portfolio includes photos of virtually every major musician of his era, not only the icons of rock 'n' roll but also giants of jazz, blues, and country. Annie Leibowitz called him "THE rock 'n' roll photographer." Marshall was a legend not only for his outsize personality but also for the way he seemed to disappear when behind his trademark Leica camera, thereby producing some of the most intimate and iconic images in music history.

Amelia Davis is the owner and manager of Jim Marshall Photography LLC. She lives in San Francisco.

Joel Selvin is a longtime music journalist for the San Francisco Chronicle. He is the author of seventeen books.

Beautiful Bugs presents a rare and extensive collection of artfully preserved insects, each framed and professionally photographed to create a stunning masterpiece. From shining iridescent beetles to paper-thin butterflies, these insects invite you to ponder the breathtaking intricacy of nature. Accompanying the gallery of photographs are essential identifiers for each insect and unexpected facts about the extraordinary ways these creatures live and operate in our world.

A curated gallery for the brave and bug-curious, this stunning book unveils the wonders of the most astonishingly diverse lifeform in the animal kingdom.

Bug in the Box is a luxury décor brand based in Houston, Texas, dedicated to the sustainable and ethical preservation of exquisite insects from around the globe. Each piece in our collection transforms the natural elegance of entomology into fine art—capturing the iridescent shimmer of beetles, the delicate symmetry of butterflies, and the sculptural beauty of exotic specimens.

WEEKEND UTOPIA
REVISED AND EXPANDED EDITION

A Century of Modern Living in the Hamptons

BY ALASTAIR GORDON

An expanded new edition of this fascinating and lavishly illustrated landmark volume offers a guided tour of Hamptons history and the architects and personalities—artists and designers, eccentrics and dreamers—who transformed this once-sleepy rural outpost to the high-powered resort it is today.

"Weekend Utopia brings to vivid life a century in the architectural and social history of the East End."

– Best Books of 2001, New York Times Book Review

The Hamptons have long served as a release valve for the urban pressures of New York City. Weekend Utopia traces the competitive, often humorous, and always compelling development of this incandescently beautiful but maddeningly self-conscious seaside paradise. Journalist and critic Alastair Gordon looks behind the hype of this charmed seaside realm to reveal the true legacy of the Hamptons as an incubator of cutting-edge art, architecture, and lifestyle that has helped to redefine the very notion of American leisure.

This revised edition includes never-before-seen images and newly researched stories, an updated introduction, and an extensive new concluding chapter that brings the narrative into the present, demonstrating how the region's modernist legacy continues to influence and inspire the East End architecture and culture of today.

history has been the letters, diaries, sketches, and photographs of unworldly people, and the letters of the world's great writers. The book is a collection of letters, and it is a collection of letters that are not only interesting but also useful. The letters are arranged in chronological order, and they are arranged in a way that makes them easy to read. The letters are arranged in a way that makes them easy to read. THE COLLAGE COMPENDIUM

2,000 Images to Cut Out & Collage

BY ROOMYTOWN

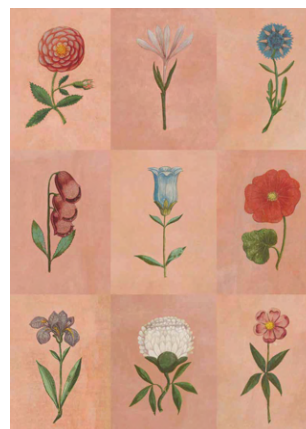

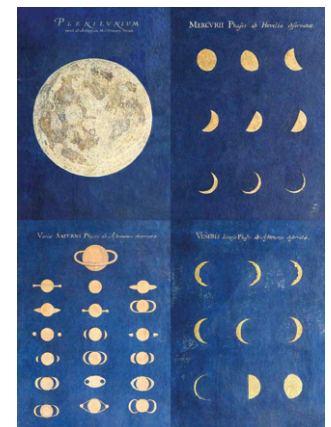

Cut, collage, and craft your way through this elegant collection of vintage images, including botanical illustrations, playful animals, nostalgic typography, decorative patterns, and more!

Inside, you'll find a carefully curated collection of 2,000 vintage images ready for you to cut, layer, and transform into your own works of art. Luxe materials—including 16 pages printed with shimmering gold ink—mean that each page cuts, handles, and glues like a dream.

Each spread has been expertly compiled by the team at English design studio Roomytown to create a portal to the past. They have spent countless hours trawling through hidden corners of history to find these gems, and each piece is a fragment of design ephemera waiting for a new chapter.

Now it's your turn to bring them into your own creative projects. Whether you're journaling, making art, or just rediscovering the simple joy of cutting and sticking, this book is designed to inspire. There are no rules—only possibilities.

Roomytown combines restored vintage finds with original artwork to celebrate unique stories and the blend of old and new. The design studio began as a line of art prints inspired by founder Lorena Siminovich's belief that art makes a house a home. Roomytown now offers a range of home accessories, stationery, and gifts. Their products are available worldwide in independent shops, major museums, and iconic retailers. They are based in Bath, England.

UNCONDITIONAL

Stories of Women and the Animals They Love

BY CAT WILLETT, FOREWORD BY SUSAN KORN

An intimate and moving collection of stories about women and their life-changing relationships with animals, told in vivid graphic novel style.

In Unconditional, popular illustrator and writer Cat Willett explores the deep, sometimes transcendent relationship between women and their animal companions. The animals she's shared her life with have pulled her through difficult times, accompanied her through growth and transition, and taught her a great deal about pain and loss. Using rich, full-color illustrations, she shares illuminating stories of different women and their pets, including:

- Terra and her parrot, Pooja, grieved together when Terra's mother passed away from pancreatic cancer.
- Tuck and Liza, two cats adopted in Ukraine and Poland, helped Brianne cope with the challenge of waiting for her journalist husband to return from an assignment in a war zone.
- Hyesu adopted her dog, Dutch, from a shelter and found calm and support for her anxiety.
- Finn, Pam's rabbit, helped her redefine the meaning of family while providing companionship and support living in a big city far from home.

With these honest, pure retellings, as well as her own stories, Willett reveals the mutual bond that grows when animals are invited into our sphere and how meaningful those relationships can be.

Cat Willett is an illustrator and author whose work celebrates women and aims to uplift and inspire others through comics and books. She is the author of The Queen of Wands: The Story of Pamela Colman Smith: The Artist Behind the Rider-Waite Tarot Deck and more.

CLAWS

The Crab, the Lobster, and the Shrimp

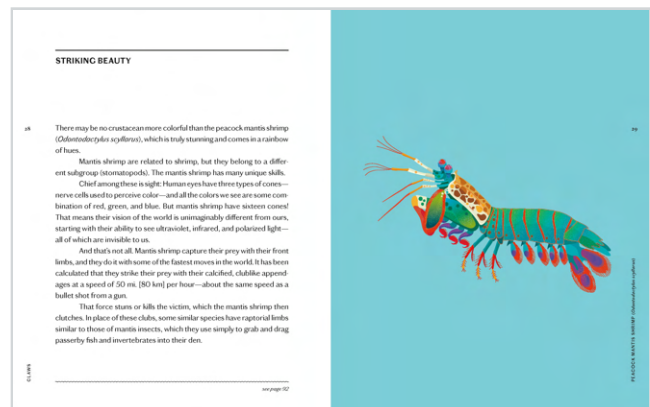

BY MARCO COLOMBO AND FRANCESCO TOMASINELLI
ILLUSTRATED BY GIULIA DE AMICIS

Celebrate the allure and variety of crustaceans with this beautifully illustrated guide to thirty species of crabs, lobsters, hermit crabs, and shrimps.

Turn the pages of Claws and dive into a world of empathy and wonder for the natural world by marveling at these curious, elegant, resilient sea creatures. Crabs, shrimps, hermit crabs, and lobsters have long populated the collective imagination:

- Observed on the beach or among the rocks, they constitute a diverse and fascinating slice of marine life.
- Endowed with strong eyesight, articulated legs, and adept pincer claws, crustaceans scuttle with ease from the ocean depths to the tidal zones and beyond.
- Some crabs live in rivers, migrate on the ground into tropical forests, and can even hide inside carnivorous plants.

The first half of the book contains gorgeously detailed and realistic illustrations and delves into the species' main characteristics and the secrets of their underwater world. The second half features specimen cards with scientific information and fun facts for easy reference.

HAS ANYONE SEEN MY HORMONES?

And Other Hot Flashes of Wisdom from Menopause and Midlife

BY ANNE TAINTOR

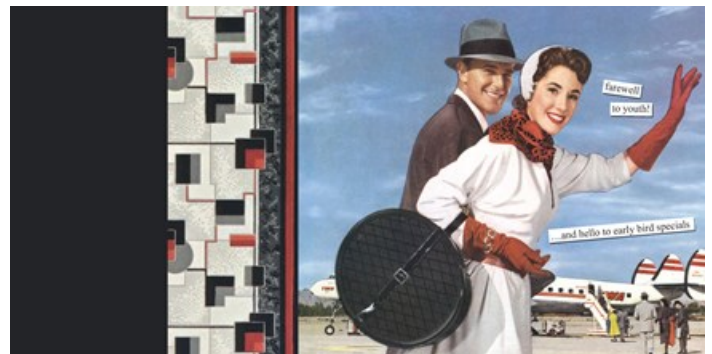

Celebrate the hot flashes of wisdom and the power that comes with getting older in this hilarious collection of vintage-with-a-twist art and wit—from the bestselling queen of women’s humor, Anne Taintor.

Are you forever young . . . ish? Are you ready for someone to invent cool yoga? Do you see no good reason to act your age? Sure, midlife and menopause can come with moments of wondering if it’s you or the thermostat running warm, but they also bring well-earned realizations and rewards:

- You’ve awakened from the nightmare of youth.
- You’re old enough to know better, but too young to give a rat’s ass.
- Wrinkles reveal character, and you’ve come far enough to realize, honey, you couldn’t pay me to be twenty.

Funny, sarcastic, and sympathetic, with just the right dose of bad behavior.

Anne Taintor is a relatively good girl with a slightly checkered past. Much emulated, never replicated, she first began pairing vintage illustrations with witty sayings forty years ago, cutting and gluing images at her kitchen table. She is the author of the bestselling humor books I Can’t Be Good All the Time, Someone Has to Set a Bad Example, and But I Wanted a Pony! She is definitely old enough to know better.

SWIFT-O-GRAPHICS

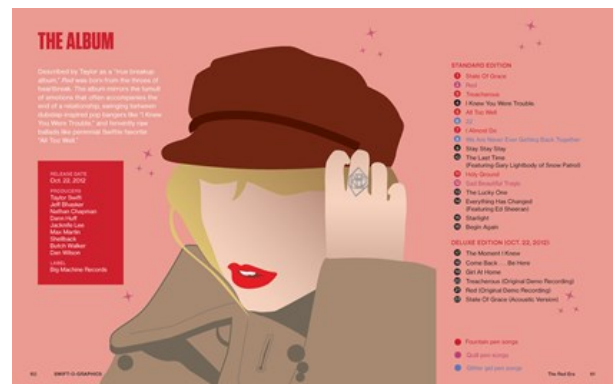

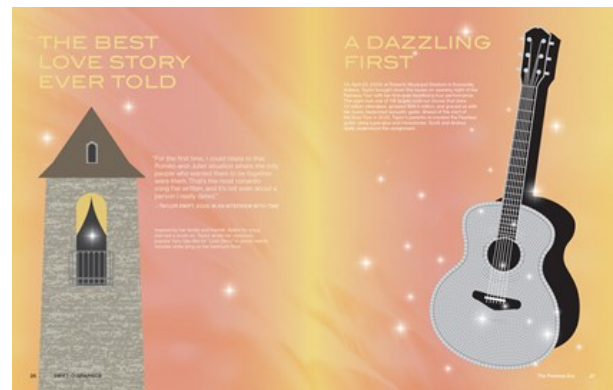

Your Favorite Pop Star in Over 120 Infographics

BY MEGAN McCLUSKEY

Whether it's facts that will absolutely shock you or things you know all too well, Swift-o-graphics will show you incredible things in this comprehensive visual journey through the global phenomenon that is Taylor Swift.

Enter the era of total Swift domination with Swift-o-graphics, jam-packed with fun and fascinating facts told through dynamic infographics and eye-catching graphic art illustrations. Follow Taylor's career from Nashville sweetheart to ultimate pop icon, learning mind-boggling info along the way that shows us just how truly massive her influence has been on the first quarter of this century.

- Did you know, while celebrating the 25th anniversary of its search engine, Google revealed Taylor Swift was the most searched songwriter of its entire existence?
- Or that on July 23, 2023, fans in attendance at an Eras show at Seattle's Lumen Field shook the ground so hard it caused a "Swift-quake" of seismic activity roughly equivalent to a magnitude 2.3 earthquake?
- And it's no surprise that after Taylor appeared at her first Kansas City Chiefs game, Travis Kelce jersey sales increased by 400% that very same day.

Megan McCluskey is a writer from Brooklyn, NY, who has spent the past ten years reporting on TV, movies, books, and, of course, Taylor Swift for Time Magazine. She grew up on Cape Cod before moving to Chapel Hill, NC, where she graduated from the University of North Carolina with a degree in journalism and a lifelong devotion to the Tar Heels. When she's not working, she can usually be found watching Bravo, reading lengthy fantasy series, or screaming at sports.

MOM MEDITATIONS

Survive the WTF Moments of Motherhood
(Without Losing Your Sh*t)

BY SERENA DORMAN

ILLUSTRATED BY CRISTINA LALLI

A hilarious gift for moms full of irreverent meditations that provide much-needed comic relief for the many inane (and insane) moments of motherhood.

From the creator of the popular Mommy Cusses blog and Instagram account, this is the guidebook to staying sane when motherhood does you dirty. Perfect for fans of Horizontal Parenting, *Go the F*ck to Sleep*, and There Are Moms Way Worse Than You, it is a laugh-out-loud collection packed with irreverent humor and plenty of profanity, featuring snarky guided meditations divided into five sections:

- Mom Rage
- Mom Overwhelm
- People Suck
- Kid Aholery
- Doing Our F*cking Best

Serena Dorman is humor writer and the swears author behind the book Mommy Cusses and the blog and Instagram of the same name. She is a contributor to Scary Mommy and Sammiches & Psych Meds, and her writing has been featured on many popular parenting websites. FORTY WAYS TO KNOW A TREE

Exploring Trees to Understand Nature

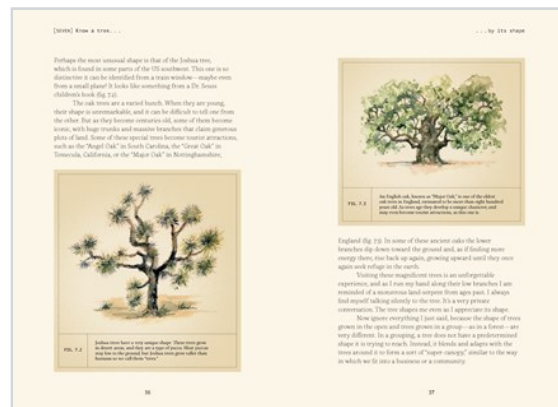

BY JOAN MALOOF, ILLUSTRATED BY SARA NUNAN

Discover the incredible life of trees through forty eye-opening short essays that explore trees as miraculous, living, breathing protectors of our Earth. Environmental activist and author Joan Maloof's elegant writing turns science into storytelling.

There are an estimated three trillion trees in the world, half as many as there once were. To honor and protect these vital organisms, a shift in perspective can help expand our understanding beyond simply appreciating trees' remarkable beauty to discovering the ways they are inextricably connected to our planet, our fellow species, and our spirits.

Within these pages, biologist Joan Maloof offers forty distinct ways of encountering, exploring, and learning about a tree. Through engaging, impassioned essays, paired with beautiful watercolor illustrations, she invites us to get to know a tree.

Each profile is illustrated with a particular species, representing dozens from all around the world, which combine to create a broader canvas of tree knowledge. This book celebrates the tree itself, with its many roles and parts, as well as its invaluable services to humans and wildlife—providing food, shelter, clean air, water, and, to many, simple joy.

SHRINKING VIOLET

BY LAUREL SNYDER, ILLUSTRATED BY LEUYEN PHAM

An inspiring modern fairy tale about a brave girl who shrinks and grows depending on how she feels, showing how all of us—no matter our size—are so much bigger than our fears. From Theodor Seuss Geisel Award-winning author Laurel Snyder and Caldecott Honor-winning illustrator LeUyen Pham.

Violet knows what it's like to be afraid: when you're afraid, you feel helpless and small. But when Violet is afraid, she doesn't just feel small—she actually shrinks! It's tough to stop feeling frightened when you're only a few centimeters tall. But when Violet's best friend is in danger, she'll have to learn to deal with her fear in a new way—and save the day in the process.

Shrinking Violet is a beautifully illustrated story about fear and bravery for anyone who has ever felt scared and small. Readers will root for Violet as she finds her voice, stands up for her friend, and, most importantly, discovers the tremendous power of her own inner strength.

Laurel Snyder is the author of many children's books, including Endlessly Ever After, Orphan Island, and Charlie & Mouse, which won the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award. She lives with her family in Atlanta, GA.

LeUyen Pham has illustrated more than one hundred books for children, including bestsellers and Caldecott Honors winners. She is the co-creator of the Princess in Black series, Real Friends, and Itty Bitty Kitty, among many other beloved titles.

TINY T. REX PICTURE BOOK BOXED SET

BY JONATHAN STUTZMAN, ILLUSTRATED BY JAY FLECK

The perfect gift for dino-loving kids—three hardcover editions of the most beloved titles in the New York Times bestselling Tiny T. Rex series in a delightful boxed set! Tiny T. Rex is everyone's favorite pint-sized dinosaur! Despite being a little dino in a big world, Tiny doesn't mind taking on new challenges, especially with his best friend, Pointy, by his side.

Now, for the first time, three fan-favorite books from the bestselling series are collected in one giftable box set:

- Tiny T. Rex and the Impossible Hug: The book that introduced readers to the mightiest little T. Rex with the biggest heart of all!
- Tiny T. Rex and the Very Dark Dark: Tiny and Pointy have a campout in the backyard in this tale about overcoming your fears.
- Tiny T. Rex and the Grand Ta-Da!: Tiny and Pointy challenge themselves when they enter the school talent show.

Each of these wonderful picture books is a funny and sweet story about friendship, perseverance, empathy, and kindness. Preschoolers and toddlers will delight in Tiny's heartwarming adventures featuring all his friends.

Jonathan Stutzman is an award-winning children's book author and filmmaker. His work for children includes the bestselling Tiny T. Rex series as well as Llama Destroys the World illustrated by Heather Fox, Bear Is a Bear illustrated by Dan Santat, and many others. The only magic trick Jonathan knows is how to make donuts (and other tasty foods) disappear. He lives in Pennsylvania, where right now he's most likely reading or thinking about new stories.

Jay Fleck is the author-illustrator of Crinkle, Crinkle, Little Car and the illustrator of a number of other children's books, including the bestselling Tiny T. Rex series. He resides in a suburb south of Chicago with his wife, two children, and loyal dog, Otis. He spends his spare time running and reading (but not at the same time).

Carter Higgins is the author of many books for young readers, including Everything You Need for a Treehouse, Big and Small and In-Between, and the chapter book series Audrey L and Audrey W. Her first book as both author and illustrator, Circle Under Berry, was named a Best Book of the Year by Publishers Weekly, Smithsonian Magazine, and the Wall Street Journal. She is also an Emmy-winning visual effects and motion graphics artist and spent a decade as a school librarian.

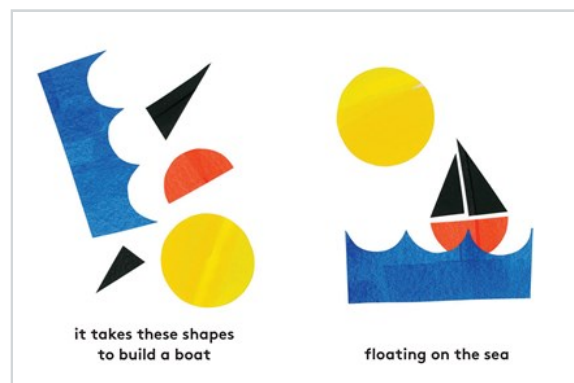

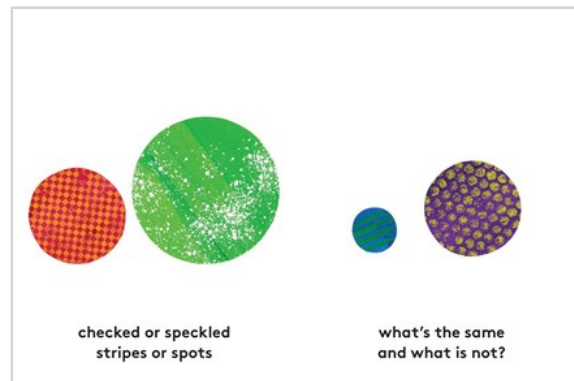

ONE WHOLE HIPPOPOTAMUS

A Book About Parts and Patterns

BY CARTER HIGGINS

Explore the early learning concepts of shapes, sorting, and parts of a whole with the latest addition to Carter Higgins's playful trio of books, where visual and math literacy meet.

From the creative mind behind the strikingly designed and highly lauded Circle Under Berry and Some of These Are Snails comes this deceptively simple concept book that explores colors, shapes, patterns, and fractions. Its imaginative language, rich with rhythm and playfulness, begs to be read aloud, while its thought-provoking design tickles the brain and shows young readers that even the most familiar things can be seen in infinitely new ways. As with the best classic children's books, you'll read it once, then again and again, and see something new every time.

LEO

A Ghost Story

BY MAC BARNETT

ILLUSTRATED BY CHRISTIAN ROBINSON

A New York Times Best Illustrated Book—now in paperback!

Most people cannot see ghosts. Can you? Follow Leo in this heartfelt tale about a friendly ghost who, after struggling to fit in, sets off on a journey of self-discovery and friendship, capturing the magic of belonging and the unexpected joys of adventure.

You would like being friends with Leo. He likes to draw, he makes delicious snacks, and most people can’t even see him. Because Leo is also a ghost. When a new family moves into his home and Leo’s efforts to welcome them are misunderstood, Leo decides it is time to leave and see the world. That is how he meets Jane, a kid with a tremendous imagination and an open position for a worthy knight. Leo and Jane become friends, and that is when their adventures begin.

This charming tale of friendship—from two of the best creators in picture books: the author of the Caldecott Honor–winning Extra Yarn and the illustrator of the Newbery Medal–winning Last Stop on Market Street—is destined to become a modern classic that will delight readers for years to come.

TODAY IS THE DAY

BY CHELSEA LIN WALLACE, ILLUSTRATED BY ADAM REX

An innovative and delight-filled picture book that explores the infinite possibilities of each day—from powerhouse creative team Chelsea Lin Wallace and Adam Rex.

A lot will happen today: 22 million people will celebrate birthdays, 55 earthquakes will shake the earth, and 275 million stars will be born.

Yes, quite a lot will happen today. But what will happen to the Day?

Chelsea Lin Wallace and Adam Rex explore the things that could happen on any given day through the perspective of the Day itself. When the Day realizes it's only one of many, it feels insignificant. But as it ticks on, it realizes that every day matters—in the moments, the milestones, and the memories that can make it last a lifetime.

Chelsea Lin Wallace is a children's author, poet, and former elementary school teacher with a master's in education. She is the author of A Home Named Walter and Ode to a Bad Day, among other books for children. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, her daughter, Charlee, and her dog, Lucky.

Adam Rex is the author and illustrator of many beloved books, including the New York Times bestseller Frankenstein Makes a Sandwich.

Colleen Paeff writes award-winning picture books from a book-lined office in an old pink house with a view of the Hollywood sign. A former preschool teacher and bookseller, she loves to see art in surprising places—on shoes, buildings, bodies, and, especially, on trucks. Colleen lives in Los Angeles, California.

Hina Abidi was thrilled and fascinated by the imposing, elaborately painted trucks she saw as a child growing up in Pakistan. Now, she visits Pakistan every year, traveling off the beaten path, meeting local people, and learning about their diverse artistic and cultural traditions. Hina lives in Los Angeles, California, surrounded by an assortment of rescued dogs and cats.

Saffa Khan is a visual artist born in Dera Ismail Khan, Pakistan, and based in Glasgow, Scotland. She teaches alternative methods of creative education, self-publishes printed matter, and is the illustrator of Like the Moon Loves the Sky.

RAINBOW TRUCK

BY COLLEEN PAEFF AND HINA ABIDI
ILLUSTRATED BY SAFFA KHAN

Take a ride through Pakistan in Rainbow Truck, an uplifting tale about a colorful truck that discovers all the wonderful things it can do. This strikingly illustrated picture book pays tribute to a favorite Pakistani tradition and art form.

Rainbow Truck is eager to learn her purpose as she travels through the shifting landscapes of Pakistan. As she is transformed from a rusted and worn truck to a Technicolor work of art, Rainbow Truck wonders what her new job will be: Could it be to carry cargo? Perhaps she is meant to provide shelter?

Along the road from Karachi to Lahore, Rainbow Truck exchanges tea bundles for warm wool, carries delicious treats, and meets new friends. But it isn't until her journey's end that she discovers that her most important job is bringing people together. This book is at once a tribute to Pakistan's vibrant rainbow trucks, a popular form of folk art, and a celebration of the many ways we all take care of one another.

THE COLORFUL WORLD OF REPTILES

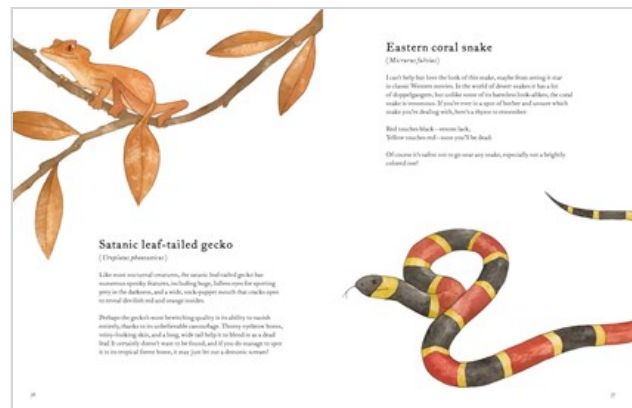

BY MATT SEWELL

A beautifully illustrated introduction to reptiles with colorful watercolor art and descriptions full of fun facts.

From the creator of the bestselling The Colorful World of Dinosaurs, this follow-up volume introduces fifty amazing reptiles with striking watercolor art and fun facts on each. Beloved author-illustrator Matt Sewell delves into the fascinating, mysterious, and sometimes downright bizarre lives of reptiles, including spectacular snakes, lizards, crocodiles, bearded dragons, turtles, and tortoises.

Did you know . . .

- The oldest known reptilian fossil is 315 million years old!
- That dinosaurs were also reptiles—though not, as some people think, giant lizards.
- The green basilisk can walk on water.
- The Galápagos tortoise can comfortably live for more than one hundred years.
- The saltwater crocodile is the world's biggest living reptile (with an average one weighing around one thousand pounds!).

Matt Sewell is a writer, artist, and illustrator whose books include The Atlas of Amazing Birds and The Colorful World of Dinosaurs, both also published by PA Press. He lives in Shrewsbury, England, where he is an avid ornithologist.

WHEN TWILIGHT COMES

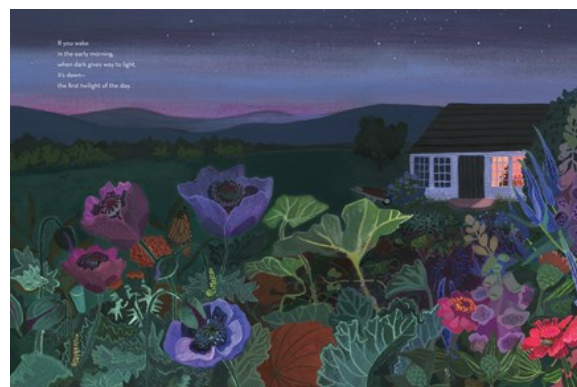

The Animals and Plants That Bring Dawn and Dusk to Life

BY MARCIE FLINCHUM ATKINS
ILLUSTRATED BY MICHELLE MORIN

Turn the pages of this luminous picture book to take a walk through the special moments between day and night, and discover a world full of secrets and surprises that unfold only in the twilight.

When twilight comes, nature transitions: from night to day at dawn and from day to night at dusk. Inside our homes, we are getting ready to start our days or end them, but outside, crepuscular creatures—animals that are most active at dawn or dusk—are right in the middle of their days!

This engaging nonfiction picture book shows familiar animals and beautiful flowers—skunks, white-tailed deer, fireflies, morning glories, evening primroses, and more—in a whole new light, focusing on the behaviors, adaptations, and activities that define each as a crepuscular creature or plant.

IF YOU WENT TO THE BOTTOM OF THE OCEAN

BY BROOKE MCINTYRE
ILLUSTRATED BY GORDY WRIGHT

An awe-inspiring, deep-sea-themed picture book that explores the mysterious marine life that dwells within and below the waves, all the way to the very bottom of the ocean!

Dive into this compelling, content-rich nonfiction picture book and find yourself on an underwater adventure: a marine mission that takes you past reefs, beyond the near-shore sea floor, down, down, down through the sunlight layer, the twilight layer, the midnight zone—all the way (as in seven miles!) down to the bottom of the ocean!

Keep your eyes peeled—if you're lucky, you might see a 400-year-old shark, a dumbo octopus, or . . . a xenophyophore! Layer by layer, you will get to know all of the mysterious sea life that dwells in the deepest depths while finding out just how interconnected—and crucial—the ocean's ecosystems really are.

Brooke McIntyre is a children's book writer and poet who writes to discover. Her favorite subjects are outside, in the natural world—which is also where she prefers to be. She lives in Virginia with her family.

Gordy Wright is a United Kingdom-based illustrator. His illustrations are painted by hand in gouache, ink, and acrylic. His published works include Great Carrier Reef, Secrets of the Dead, and Bugs: A Skittery, Jittery History.

BECAUSE OF A BEE

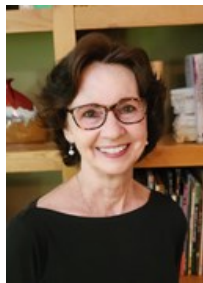

BY LOLA M SCHAEFER, ILLUSTRATED BY FRENCI SANNA

With engaging die-cut pages and simple text, this stunning picture book shows young readers how important bees are to our ecosystems and how these busy pollinators help us grow our food!

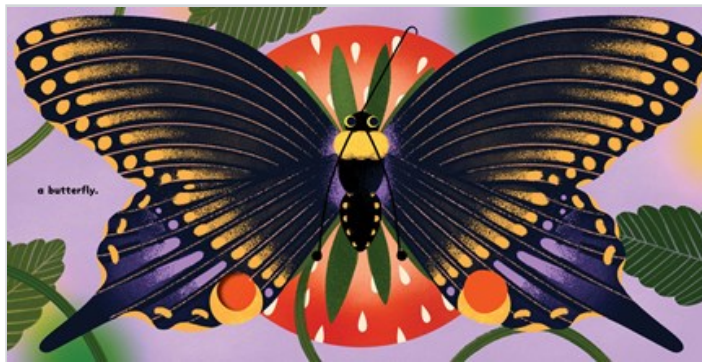

Because of a bee, a strawberry sprouts, a butterfly sips, celery grows, and we can all gather to share a feast around our table!

The interconnected networks between pollinators and plants can be quite complex, but this deceptively simple picture book showcases the spiraling circles of nature and the importance of even the tiniest creature in all our lives. Wander through the farm to learn how every fruit, vegetable, bug, and bird connect to each other before food arrives on your plate. A bee is just the beginning.

Lola M. Schaefer is the author of many award-winning children's books. She lives in the mountains of northern Georgia, where she loves to take hikes in the woods and marvel at the natural world, including the busy, buzzy bees. When Lola isn't writing, she enjoys visiting classrooms and working with children as an author in residence.

Frenci Sanna is originally from Sardinia, Italy, where their mother recently started keeping bees. Frenci earned a degree in architecture in Italy and studied design and illustration in Germany, Switzerland, New York, and London. They are currently based in Berlin.

ASTRONUTS MISSION ONE: THE PLANT PLANET

BY JON SCIESZKA, ILLUSTRATED BY STEVEN WEINBERG

Now in paperback! The first book in the laugh-out-loud series by children's literature legend Jon Scieszka.

A hilarious tale packed with science, adventure, and a whole lot of fun! AstroWolf, LaserShark, SmartHawk, and StinkBug are animals that have been hybridized to find other planets for humans to live on once we've ruined Earth. In their first exciting adventure, they rocket to the Plant Planet. Will that planet support human life? Or do Plant Planet's inhabitants have a more sinister plan? AstroNuts Mission One is a can't-put-it-down page-turner for reluctant readers and fans ready for their next go-to series.

"Jon Scieszka, the groundbreaking storyteller and master of wit, brings us a smart and hilarious adventure. AstroNuts doesn't just break new ground—it breaks outer space! Brilliant." —Dav Pilkey, bestselling author of the Dog Man and Captain Underpants series

ASTRONUTS MISSION TWO: THE WATER PLANET

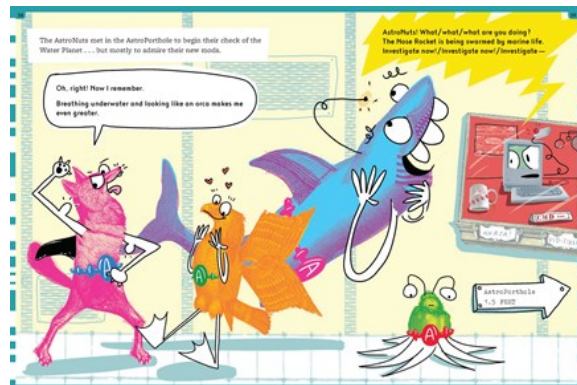

BY JON SCIESZKA
ILLUSTRATED BY STEVEN WEINBERG

Now in paperback! The second book in the laugh-out-loud series by children's literature legend Jon Scieszka.

AstroWolf, LaserShark, SmartHawk, and StinkBug are ready for a new mission to find a planet fit for human life after we've finally made Earth unlivable. When they splash-land on the Water Planet, they find power-hungry clams, a rebellious underwater force, and a world full of too-good-to-be-true. Can this aquatic world really be humans' new home? And why are these clams so eager to swap planets?

"[I]n true Scieszka style, the majority of the book is a joyful exploration of what he does best—make the known seem absurd and the absurd seem perfectly reasonable. A funny, ridiculous journey into space infused with a thoughtful ecological message."

HENRY'S PICTURE-PERFECT DAY

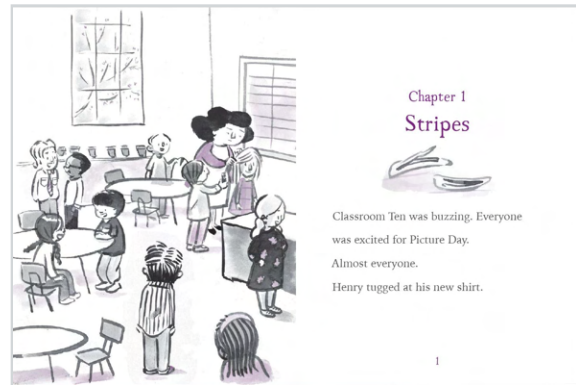

Book 3

BY JENN BAILEY, ILLUSTRATED BY MIKA SONG

Now available in paperback! The third chapter book in the Schneider Award-winning Henry series, starring a sweet and sensitive child on the autism spectrum, is a story about embracing life's messier moments and one's own uniqueness.

It is Picture Day for Classroom Ten! Mrs. Tanaka says that the class will take a perfect picture. And on Picture Day, everyone smiles. The trouble is that Henry does not feel perfect. His new shirt has stripes. He has never practiced smiling. And, worst of all, his front tooth is starting to wobble.

Join Henry and the kids of Classroom Ten in this warm and funny tale of Picture Day pressure, loose tooth trouble, and learning what it truly means to make a day—and a memory—that is picture perfect. Part of the Schneider Family Award and Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor-winning series, this is a reassuring read for all school-age kids.

"With its short chapters, easy text, gentle humor, and depiction of relatable feelings of unease while offering satisfyingly warm, non-threatening solutions, this title is ideal for young readers who will empathize with the characters' feelings of anxiety."

HENRY UPSIDE DOWN

Book 4

BY JENN BAILEY, ILLUSTRATED BY MIKA SONG

The fourth book in the Schneider Family Award and Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor-winning series that follows Henry, a boy on the autism spectrum, as he navigates friendships, classroom conundrums, and the ups and downs of daily life as a sweet and sensitive first-grader.

It's Henry's turn to take care of the school garden. And his best friend, Katie, will help him. But then a new girl named Ivy joins their garden crew. Ivy tells jokes that make Katie laugh. She does handstands, just like Katie. Katie says Ivy is her friend. But Henry is Katie's friend! Suddenly, Henry's world feels upside down. Follow along as Henry learns to tend a garden, deal with a big box of worms, and maybe even make a new friend.

Readers of all kinds will delight in seeing the world through Henry's eyes in these gentle, classic-feeling stories, delivered with empathy and charm by the award-winning author-illustrator team of Jenn Bailey and Mika Song.

JORDAN J AND THE TRUTH ABOUT JORDAN J

The Kids Under the Stairs

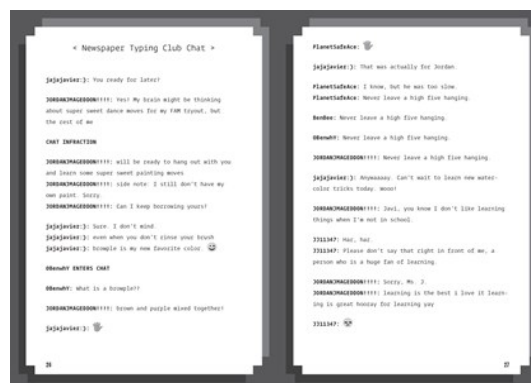

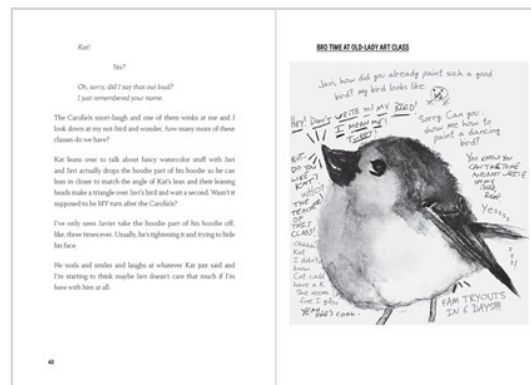

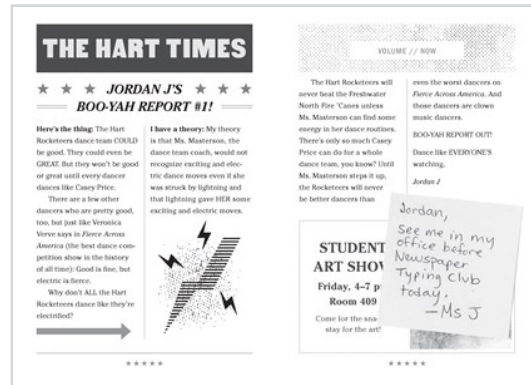

BY K.A. HOLT

Now in paperback! This laugh-out-loud, honest novel-in-verse from award-winning author K.A. Holt tells the story of Jordan J—an opinionated middle schooler trying to find his place at school, at home, and even on the dance floor.

Jordan J has a lot to say.

Most people—including his parents, his teacher, the kids under the stairs, and even his own self—don't understand why he says all the things he says. It's probably the reason he's managed to earn a personal grudge from the school's dance team, the Hart Rocketeers, who are outraged by his brutally honest dance reviews in the school newspaper.

Basically, the only thing he can concentrate on these days is performing on his favorite dance show, Fierce Across America. But with his mom's recent unemployment and money being so tight at home, his dreams are crashing. Suddenly, an opportunity arises in the form of Casey Price, the only Rocketeer who doesn't hate his guts. With her help, Jordan J just might have the chance to showcase his electric moves on national TV. But as he starts spending more time with Casey and less with his old friends, Jordan J begins to wonder how he can ever make everyone happy—including himself.

JAVIER AND THE CONE OF UNCERTAINTY

The Kids Under the Stairs

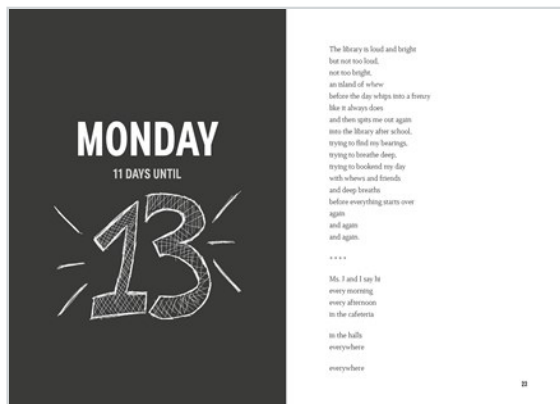

BY K.A. HOLT

The Kids Under the Stairs series continues in this honest and hilarious novel-in-verse from award-winning author K.A. Holt. This fourth installment follows Javier—the artist, the quiet one, the funny one, the good friend—who finds himself on a collision course with a hurricane that shares his name.

Javier—or Javi—is the quiet, funny one in his friend group and an all-around easygoing guy who’s also an artist. But as his ever-present sketchbook reveals, he has a lot going on beneath that calm exterior. Adding even more to his swirling thoughts is the giant hurricane bearing down on his small Florida town—a giant hurricane that shares his name and is forecast to make landfall close to his thirteenth birthday!

As the hurricane gets closer, school is closed, and Javi and his mom have to hunker down at home. Everything starts to feel even more stormy when the power goes out and Javi’s teacher, Ms. J, brings her cat over so they can all wait out the storm together. Then, to make matters worse, it seems like his grandfather might be closer to the eye of the storm than he or his mom initially thought. This is not how he wanted to spend his birthday week! As the days stretch on and more and more of Javi’s comfortable norms are upended, he’ll have to face big changes and the big emotions that come with them.

Funny, wise, and moving, this riveting novel-in-verse celebrates friendship, family, and “divergent” thinking while also showing how you can find strength—and yourself—during the most uncertain of times.

THE CALLERS: THE HIDDEN FOREST

Book 2

BY KIAH THOMAS

Now in paperback! Return to the world of the Callers in this exciting middle-grade fantasy series that explores the amazing power of summoning objects into being and the ominous consequences of doing so. Perfect for fans of Rick Riordan.

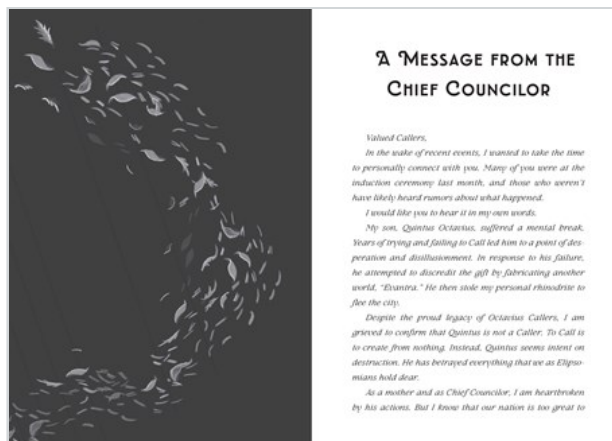

The Callers, Book 1 set the stage for a riveting series that introduced the world of Elipsom and its inhabitants' unique ability to Call—or summon.

In Book 2, a month has passed since Quin fled his home world of Elipsom after revealing the shocking truth about Calling: that the magic ability to conjure something out of thin air actually steals resources from another place. And that other place is Evantra, a nation suffering from exploitation by the Callers. Across the country, rumors are spreading that perhaps Calling isn't a force for good after all. Even so, Quin's sister, Davinia, has maintained calm under the pressure of her mother, the Chief Counselor of the Callers, who is determined to keep the status quo and quash anyone who questions the rightness of Calling. But when Davinia is assigned to investigate and plant evidence in a rebellious part of the city, her loyalties begin to waver.

Meanwhile, Quin and his friend Allie are in a race against the clock to heal the Vine, the source of all growing things in Evantra, which has been slowly dying. Their search leads them to a mysterious forest that may have the answers they seek—and the truth about Quin's past.

Arresting and thought-provoking, this story explores some of the most crucial topics of our time and shows the power of standing up and fighting for a better tomorrow.

"Part fantasy, part dystopian thriller, this powerful and cautionary tale about thoughtless overconsumption will challenge young readers to consider the environmental impact of greed. Middle grade readers will be inspired.... readers will be clamoring for book three." — School Library Journal

Kiah Thomas started telling stories when she was a kid—reimagining the endings of books she read. She rediscovered her love of kids' books when she had children of her own and started writing beginnings as well as endings. Kiah is passionate about books that kids and adults can enjoy together. She lives in Melbourne, Australia, with her husband, three children, and at least seven stuffed toy penguins.

THE CALLERS: THE JOURNEY HOME

Book 3

BY KIAH THOMAS

The thrilling conclusion to the Callers trilogy, an exciting new middle-grade fantasy series that explores the power of summoning objects into being and the ominous consequences of doing so. Perfect for fans of Rick Riordan!

Quin's world is in turmoil . . .

The limits on Calling have been lifted, and Callers are now allowed to conjure up anything they want—from tables and chairs to food and clothes. But many on Elipsom still don't realize that everything they Call is being stolen from Evantra, a secret continent on the opposite side of the world.

Quin, Allie, and Davinia have been fighting to show people the truth. But Adriana Octavius, the Chief Councilor of Elipsom, will do anything she can to suppress the rising rebellion. Even if it means endangering the Vine, the life-giving force for all of Evantra and Elipsom. With Allie in jail, Davinia working desperately to keep up appearances as a committed Councilor, and Quin stranded on Evantra, their struggle is more desperate than ever. Tensions are rising across Elipsom, and the three friends will have to find their way back to each other, reveal the truth, and heal the Vine . . . before it's too late.

Moving and action-packed, the conclusion to the Callers saga shows the power of standing up for the truth and that anyone can change the world.

TOUCH A TRUCK DAY

A Lift-the-Flap Book

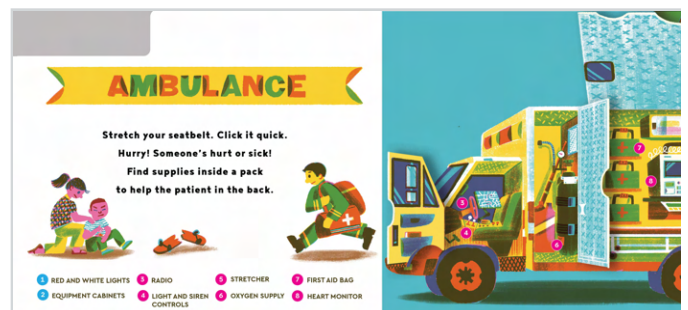

BY CARRIE FINISON, ILLUSTRATED BY VIOLA WANG

Today's the day to TOUCH A TRUCK! This rhyming, tabbed novelty book invites young vehicle fans to explore eight fascinating trucks, with a sweet and special surprise at the end.

Climb inside eight different trucks—including a fire engine, garbage truck, ambulance, and more!—and discover what makes each of them unique. Use the tabs to skip straight to your favorite vehicle, then lift the flaps and learn about the important features found inside and out.

- Eight different vehicles to choose from!
- Tabs across the top let you open to your favorite vehicle.
- Each vehicle page has one to three flaps to lift and learn.
- There are sixteen information-packed flaps throughout the book.

Brightly illustrated and filled with dynamic, fun-to-read rhymes and engaging facts, this celebration of trucks puts readers in the driver's seat and in the middle of the action.

Carrie Finison lives outside Boston with her husband, son, daughter, and two cats who permit her to write in their cozy attic office.

Viola Wang is a children's book author and illustrator. Viola is also a graduate of the Children's Book Illustration MA at Cambridge School of Art and a winner of the Sebastian Walker Award. She lives in London with her family.

AGATHA CHRISTIE SEEK-AND-FIND

Find Clues and Criminals in 20 Classic Mysteries!

BY SARAH DVOJACK, TEXT BY CHRISSY WILLIAMS

Put your little grey cells to the test with devilishly puzzling Agatha Christie seek-and-find mysteries.

Now you can play detective as you immerse yourself in beautifully illustrated scenes from the adventures of Hercule Poirot, Miss Marple, and Tommy and Tuppence Beresford. Search for suspects and collect clues as you explore a snowed-in train car on the Orient Express, a ritzy cruise ship on the Nile, an isolated island full of strangers being picked off one by one, a deceptively quaint village in the English countryside, and more iconic locations from twenty of Agatha Christie's most beloved novels. But don't be distracted by the stylish characters and elaborate settings. Remember, it is up to you to crack each case and identify the murderers!

THE FIELD GUIDE TO DUMB BIRDS PLAYING CARDS

2-Deck Set

BY MATT KRACHT

A deluxe boxed set of playing cards that includes two standard 54-card decks featuring the dumbest birds to ever plague the Earth. These birds are all losers--but you can play to win!

The Field Guide to Dumb Birds Playing Cards rounds up the funniest, dumbest birds from professional birding amateur Matt Kracht's hilarious and sometimes profane bestselling Field Guide to Dumb Birds series. Each of the 108 cards features a colorful illustration and the dumb name the bird has earned for being so annoying. Complete your royal flush with a Northern Pinhead, draw an inside straight with Goddamn Cackling Goose, or take that all-important trick with a Eurasian Buttthunch.

217 x 115 x 73 mm

Carton Quantity: 12

9781797241326

SRP: $20

9 781797 241326

HOW TO PLAY

1. Draw a Character Card to discover your secret role.
2. Read an AITA Post Card aloud. Now everyone debates it. But not as themselves, oh no. As their characters.
3. Then it's time for everyone to point to the person they think is the real OP. Each Character has their own win condition, and if you succeed, you can discard a token. The first player to discard all their tokens wins the game.

NEW PICKLES™

Think you know how your friends feel about the things that really matter? No, we don't mean politics or the economy. We're talking pickles, perms, people who eat from your plate—the important stuff! It's time to uncover the truth. Easy to learn and simple to play: just say it, rate it, and grab it! The honesty and tension continue until someone collects seven cards and wins! Includes 408 Topic cards, 24 Rating cards, and instructions. Made using 30% recycled materials, FSC paper, and soy inks.

3-8 PLAYERS • 20 MINS • AGES 13+

SRP: $20

HOW TO PLAY

1. Pick a Topic card from one of the six categories: Melody Mayhem, Something Tasty, People Pleaser, Let's Play, Couch Potato, or Really Random.
2. Use your cards to secretly rate how you feel about it—Sour, So-So, or Sweet—then put on your best poker face as the other players try to guess your rating.
3. When everyone's ready, flip over your Rating cards at the same time. If anyone matches your rating, then the race is on to grab your Topic card and win the point!

NEW THINK FAST™

Teams go head-to-head against the clock over three rounds of this fast-paced quiz-based party game! With each round the answers stay the same but the clues get harder, until you're only given one word. So you must pay attention! Includes 400 Quiz cards, score pad, pencil, and instructions. Made using 30% recycled materials, FSC paper, and soy inks.

SRP: $20

HOW TO PLAY

1. The host draws 18 cards—these stay the same for the whole game so listen to what the other team says!
2. In rounds 1 and 2, teams go head-to-head to get as many answers as they can before time runs out!
3. In round 3, there's no timer, but the clues are only one word. So, how many answers can you remember?

NEW TICKET TO HELL

You have three Tickets to save yourself from the fiery pit. But your opponents are out to get you. And you must respond in kind. Includes 35 Defense cards, 20 Mortal Sin cards, 18 Action cards, 5 Unforgivable Sin cards, 4 Trigger cards, 18 Tickets, Hell Pit board, instructions. Printed using FSC paper and soy inks.

9 781797 242231

HOW TO PLAY

1. Line up your Tickets towards the fiery Pit. Then draw a Hell card and follow its instruction.
2. Use Actions to trick, disrupt, and defend yourself. If you can't, then burn a Ticket and move closer to hell.
3. If you burn all your Tickets, you must throw yourself into the Pit. But if you're the last player clinging on, then you win!

NEW YOU READ MY MIND

In this game of unpredictable predictions, players attempt to choose the same word or phrase to link two random cards. But here's the catch: the players must not speak! It could be perfect harmony . . . or total chaos. Includes 200 cards, Predictions Pad, two pencils, instructions with Winners Board. Printed using FSC paper and soy inks.

3-6 PLAYERS • 30 MINS • AGES 10+

Package size:

3.8 x 5.1 x 2.2 in

HOW TO PLAY

1. Everyone silently writes down a word or phrase that links two revealed cards.
2. Two Mind Readers reveal their answers. If they match, they win the cards! If they don't, everyone is in play.
3. If any two players match answers, then they win the cards. Whoever wins the most cards is the Master Mind Reader!
