Supermaker

Crafting Business on Your Own Terms

by Jaime Schmidt

The first book to speak directly to the ever-growing community of business owners and entrepreneurs who want to go from maker to magnate, without jettisoning their commitment to fair and sustainable principles. Jaime could not have achieved what she did without the support of the Maker community; her book—a riveting mix of inspiration, the honest airing of mistakes and some truly indispensable instruction—is her way of paying them back. This is real talk from an industry disruptor who grew her business from farmer's market to international brand that is bound to become the go-to guide for the passion-to-profit journey.

Author Bio

Entrepreneur and maker Jaime Schmidt created Schmidt's Deodorant in her Portland, OR kitchen in 2010. Unilever acquired Schmidt's in December 2017 and Jaime has stayed on as a figurehead. Her story has been covered by TODAY, FOX News, Well+Good, Hallmark Channel, and others. She speaks regularly at conferences like ExpoWest, Create+Cultivate, Ernst + Young Strategic Growth, Beautycon, and more on a variety of topics including entrepreneurship, wellness, self-care, and following your dreams. Jaime acquired Portland Made, a business networking company, and in May 2019 she will launch Supermaker, an editorial platform projected to reach 2 million monthly visits by 2020.

Superfood Slaw

Vegetable Solutions for Busy People

by Jill Greenwood

SUPERSLAW includes high-nutrient vegetable-based recipes that will empower habits for a healthier diet, boost your energy, improve your immunity and help you recover after exercise. The slaws can be whizzed up in any food processor (or with a knife and chopping board) making preparation simple and fun for those with busy lifestyles.

In addition to 60 base recipes of nutritionally dense, micro-chopped vegetables, 120 tips suggest how to transform the slaws using tasty toppers such as nuts, grains, and meats, as well as how to morph them into substantial, flavorsome meals including soups, wraps, and bakes. These delicious SuperSlaws provide maximum nutrition, variety, value, and taste, and don't require any extra time or effort in the kitchen.

Organized by nutritional benefits like hydrolyze, immunity, energy booster, revitalize, recovery, thermic & spicy. These recipes are: superFAST, superVERSATILE, superCONVENIENT, superRESOURCEFUL, superTASTY and superHEALTHY.

Author Bio

Jill Greenwood is a Manchester-based personal trainer who works with clients to develop strength in both mind and body. She and her slaws have been featured in Women's Health UK, Choice UK, Lucky Break, Veggie, The Daily Recipe, Red Online, Vegetarian Living UK, and Optimum Nutrition UK.

Garden Party

illustrated by Helen Dardik

GARDEN PARTY is a girl-powered, nature-themed book on the work of Helen Dardik. Her mostly black-and-white drawings are replicated from her sketchbook and interspersed with quotes from classic books such as Alice in Wonderland and The Secret Garden. Helen Dardik's charming, whimsical illustrations of girl-fairies, flora, and fauna create a magical, dreamy world. Her aesthetic feels equal parts Scandinavian vintage-folk-modern and Japanese Kawaii culture. Many of her characters are hybrid girl/plant creatures whose friends include a menagerie of cats, dogs, and other critters. Her pen and ink drawings are predominantly black-and-white with a limited palette of accent colors.

Author Bio

Helen Dardik is a very accomplished illustrator and surface pattern designer with a strong fan base of more than 279k followers on Instagram. She is originally from Siberia and has lived in Ukraine and Israel and currently lives in Ontario, Canada with her musician husband and her three young daughters. She has illustrated numerous books and ancillary products for Running Press, teNeues, Mudpuppy, and others, and has created many illustrated works for numerous commercial clients in print and online.

Mindful String Games

10 Games to Quiet Your Mind

by Chronicle Books

This is a mindful and reflective take on the traditional cat's cradle, using the string game to inspire mental calmness. The product includes a continuous string and an instructional booklet with imaginative illustrations and step-by-step instructions for playing 15 games and finding mental focus in each one. The string games, which have evocative names like Three Diamonds, The Celtic Knot, and The Butterfly, are organized into three sections: easy games to do on your own, complex games to do on your own, and sequences to do with a friend. The instructional booklet also gives guidance on relaxing and clearing your mind. Ultimately, the game is based on the idea that by focusing on your hand motions and movement patterns, you will find stillness in your thoughts.

Reductress Presents: Play the Patriarchy

A Card Game

by Sarah Pappalardo and Beth Newell, illustrated by Lisa Tegtmeier

From the creators of REDUCTRESS comes a new card game that aims to take down (or at least take a good jab at) the patriarchy. Inspired by some of the most popular REDUCTRESS articles and recurring themes, PLAY THE PATRIARCHY is a hilarious way to bash the patriarchy while enjoying game night with your girlfriends.

The gameplay is similar to the bestselling CARDS AGAINST HUMANITY. Here, the dealer (the Matriarch) selects a Prompt card and the other players respond to that prompt with cards from their hand. In addition to Prompt cards, there are Subject, Verb, and Descriptor cards, allowing players infinite possibilities of riotous phrases. The Matriarch then selects the card combination that most resonates with them, and that combo's player becomes the next Matriarch.

Author Bio

Beth Newell and Sarah Pappalardo are the creators and coeditors of REDUCTRESS: <http://reductress.com/>

Launched in 2013 as a satirical women's magazine, REDUCTRESS takes on the best and worst of woman-focused blogs, magazines, and consumer culture. REDUCTRESS has become the Oprah Winfrey Network of women's media satire, with over 2.5 million unique site visitors a month, along with the MOUTH TIME podcast, original theatricals, and live comedy shows across the country.

Recently, REDUCTRESS was named the 2018 Webby Award winner for Best Humor Site, beating out Funny or Die, College Humor, The Daily Show, and Team Coco. Sarah and Beth were also recently named by ROLLING STONE as two of the '50 Funniest People Right Now.

Best in Show

by by (photographer) Dolly Faibyshev

Best in Show* is a collection of photographs of well-groomed and award-winning dogs by New York City-based photographer Dolly Faibyshev.

The images from the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show and beyond focus on the unique-and often humorous-relationship between each dog and their handler.

Dolly Faibyshev focuses on kitsch, irony, and the larger than life human and canine characters that make up Best in Show. The result is a colorful, vibrant, campy, and satirical take on this specific slice of Americana.

- The colorful, closely cropped juxtapositions of each coiffed canine contestant and their dedicated human are both humorous and charming.
- Sure to delight fans of all breeds of dogs
- A universal and ideal gift for all canine lovers with a sense of humor

Best in Show* captures a specific subculture of dog devotees primarily from the infamous Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show at Madison Square Garden in New York.

- A perfect gift for anyone who is completely and totally obsessed with dogs and the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show
- Photographers and contemporary art lovers will also love this celebration of Dolly Faibyshev's work
- Great for fans of The Dogist: Photographic Encounters with 1,000 Dogs by Elias Weiss Friedman, Dogs by Lewis Blackwell and Tim Flach, and Underwater Dogs by Seth Casteel

Ivy and Bean One Big Happy Family (Book 11)

by Annie Barrows, illustrated by Sophie Blackall

This story defies expectations of what an early chapter book can be." School Library Journal

"Ivy and Bean are irresistible." Kirkus Reviews, starred review

Annie Barrows's bestselling chapter book series, Ivy & Bean, is a classroom favorite and has been keeping kids laughing - and reading-for more than a decade! With more than 6 million copies in print, Ivy + Bean return with a brand-new book for a new generation!

Now in paperback! Ivy's worried. She's read a lot of books about only children, so she knows that they are sometimes spoiled rotten. They don't share their toys. They never do any work. They scream and cry when they don't get their way. Spoiler alert! Ivy doesn't have any brothers or sisters. That's why she's worried. How can she keep from getting spoiled? She could give away all her clothes, but she'd probably get in trouble. She could give away all her toys, but she likes her toys. There's really only one solution: she needs a baby sister, on the double! Luckily, Ivy and Bean know just where to get one.

- Fantastic fun for 1st- to 4th-grade readers, teachers, parents, and grandparents
- Funny and heartwarming; early readers will love the continuing adventures of best friends Ivy and Bean.
- Strong positive characters for girls and great lessons on friendship in an easy-to-follow chapter book.

Incredible Women of the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League

by Anika Orrock

THE INCREDIBLE WOMEN OF THE ALL-AMERICAN GIRLS PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL LEAGUE invites readers back to America in 1941, to a time when, more than any single industry, figure, or icon, the sport of baseball shaped and defined the American identity. But the national pastime as a professional sport was on the verge of collapse with the majority of its players drafted to fight in World War II—until Philip K. Wrigley had an idea: Women would save baseball.

This fully illustrated history tells the story of women's first 'league of their own,' the All-American Girl's Professional Baseball League (1943–1954), as told through the engaging voices of the people who knew it best: the players!

Author Anika Orrock has collected a range of funny, charming, wince-worthy and heart-warming vignettes as told by the players themselves from their various experiences playing in the AAGBPL, from the very first tryouts to barnstorming around the country and sliding into home base in League-mandated skirts and lipstick. Beginning with a brief history of the founding of the league, the players' stories are woven together with press coverage of the league, player statistics, and historical beats to form a single narrative of their experiences, struggles, and impressions of a time when being a woman in a professional sports league was revolutionary. The book runs from the league's foundation in 1943 to the final season in 1954 and is fully rendered in Anika's own fun and energetic illustrative style that serves to illuminate the stories of this time with compassion, enthusiasm, and a wry humor for (...)

Family Field Trip

Explore Art, Food, Music, and Nature with Kids

by Erin Austen Abbott

With more than 40 family-friendly cultural activities and adventures, Family Field Trip makes it easy to incorporate moments of learning and exploration into life with kids.

In this engaging guide, parents and caretakers will find simple-to-follow ideas and tips for cultural experiences the whole family can enjoy, whether they are at home, exploring the neighborhood, or taking a vacation.

Drawing on a range of popular experiential educational techniques—including Montessori, World Schooling, Forest Schooling, and more—Family Field Trip is the perfect handbook for any family with young children and an invaluable resource for raising kids who will grow into curious, well-rounded citizens of the world.

- Gives parents the tools and inspiration to turn the world into a giant field trip full of opportunities to teach children cultural appreciation
- Provides parents with easy ways to incorporate learning, adventure, and exploration into both travel and daily life
- Tackles a range of lessons and topics without being prescriptive or overwhelming

By exploring sites, languages, and foods of the world, Family Field Trip is an inspiring guide to raise globally minded kids who appreciate art, food, music, nature, and more.

Activities include starting a supper club to introduce kids to the basics of cooking, having conversations that encourage empathy and cross-cultural understanding, designing fun scavenger hunts for any kind of museum, exhibit, or park, packing for trips with kids, and more.

- Perfect for parents, grandparents, and caregivers who (...)

Everything She Touched

The Life of Ruth Asawa

by Marilyn Chase

Everything She Touched* recounts the incredible life of the American sculptor Ruth Asawa.

This is the story of a woman who wielded imagination and hope in the face of intolerance and who transformed everything she touched into art. In this compelling biography, author Marilyn Chase brings Asawa's story to vivid life. She draws on Asawa's extensive archives and weaves together many voices—family, friends, teachers, and critics—to offer a complex and fascinating portrait of the artist.

Born in California in 1926, Ruth Asawa grew from a farmer's daughter to a celebrated sculptor. She survived adolescence in the World War II Japanese-American internment camps and attended the groundbreaking art school at Black Mountain College. Asawa then went on to develop her signature hanging-wire sculptures, create iconic urban installations, revolutionize arts education in her adopted hometown of San Francisco, fight through lupus, and defy convention to nurture a multiracial family.

- A richly visual volume with over 60 reproductions of Asawa's art and archival photos of her life (including portraits shot by her friend, the celebrated photographer Imogen Cunningham)
- Documents Asawa's transformative touch—most notably by turning the barbed wire of prison camps into wire sculptures of astonishing power and delicacy
- Author Marilyn Chase mined Asawa's letters, diaries, sketches, and photos and conducted interviews with those who knew her to tell this inspiring story.

Ruth Asawa forged an unconventional path in everything she did—whether raising a multiracial family of (...)

The Next President

by Kate Messner and Adam Rex

When George Washington became the FIRST President of the United States, there were NINE future presidents already alive in America—doing things like farm chores or studying medicine.

When JFK became the THIRTY-FIFTH president, there were TEN future presidents already alive in America, doing things like hosting TV shows and learning the saxophone.

And right now—today!—there are at LEAST ten future presidents alive in America. They could be playing basketball, like Barack Obama, or helping in the garden, like Dwight D. Eisenhower. They could be solving math problems or reading books. They could be making art or already making change.

This compelling exploration of the presidents before they were presidents—as kids, adventurers, journalists, prospectors, gun-slingers, TV hosts, and more!—brings across powerfully that the presidents of the future could be practically anyone . . . including YOU.

Author Bio

Kate Messner is an award-winning author whose many books for kids have been selected as Best Books by the New York Times, Junior Library Guild, IndieBound, and Bank Street College of Education. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

Adam Rex is the author and illustrator of many beloved picture books and novels, including Nothing Rhymes with Orange and the New York Times bestseller Frankenstein Makes a Sandwich. He has worked with the likes of Jon Scieszka, Mac Barnett, Jeff Kinney, and Neil Gaiman. He lives in Tucson, Arizona.

Nourish Me Home

125 Soul-Sustaining Recipes Inspired by the Elements
by Cortney Burns, photographs by Heami Lee

Nourish Me Home features 110 recipes in 6 chapters that pay homage to the seasons and the elements of water, fire, air, and ether. The curious, creative, fearless Cortney Burns-formerly of Bar Tartine-is back with a personal cookbook project about nostalgia, immigration, and her own uniquely delicious recipes

Cortney Burns's cooking always includes layered flavors and textures, surprising ingredients, and healthful twists, and her recipes range from weeknight turn-tos such as salads, soups, and vegetable-forward mains to the homemade liqueurs and ferments she's famous for.

- Teaches readers how to convert their own experiences and sense of place into kitchen inspiration and development of a personal cooking style
- Recipes cover mains to drinks and desserts to condiments, such as sauces and pickled fruits
- Complete with hand-drawn illustrations and 100 vibrant photographs

As in Bar Tartine, the pantry of preserved foods forms the backbone of this cookbook, adding all the physical and mental health benefits of fermented foods and streamlining cooking.

The focus here is on healthy, vegetable-forward recipes, emphasizing techniques for turning proteins into side dishes or seasonings, rather than the main event.

- A groundbreaking project that connects seasonal cooking to raising one's personal vibration
- Perfect for home cooks, those dedicated to mindfulness, fans of Cortney Burns and Bar Tartine, foodies, professional chefs, and restaurateurs
- Add it to your collection of books like Salt, Fat, Acid, Heat: Mastering the Elements of Good Cooking by Samin (...)

Author Bio

Cortney Burns is the executive chef and partner of Loom, a restaurant opening in 2019 within Tourists, a new hotel and culinary destination in North Adams, Massachusetts.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Burns earned degrees in Cultural Anthropology and South Asian Studies. She spent time in Nepal and India, where she fell in love with the region's exotic spices and flavors, as well as Australia, where she first began to cook professionally.

I Can Be Anything

by Shinsuke Yoshitake

A laugh-out-loud guessing game bedtime book!

It's time for bed, but Natsumi has a brilliant idea, even better than going to sleep: She'll pretend to be something and Mom will guess what she is! Ready?

Is she a caterpillar?
An arrow sign?
An upside-down bug?

Take your best guess, then laugh along with Natsumi and her mom as they play a pre-bedtime game of charades full of silliness and surprises!

- A delightfully silly read-aloud book for young children that helps soften bedtime routines

Disco Cube Cocktails

100+ innovative recipes for artful ice and drinks

by Leslie Kirchoff

Disco Cube Cocktails* is a '70s-inspired cocktail book based on the magical properties of ice.

With 65 recipes for flavorful ice and the drinks that go with them, home bartenders can learn new icy creations to elevate any classic drink, infuse new flavor into a sipper as the ice melts, or impress friends at a party with a frosty punch bowl.

Inspired by unique ice in fancy bars and the over-the-top style of the '70s, Leslie Kirchoff started making specialty ice for high-end clients. Now you can do the same at home with recipes that offer more than just a classic cube.

- Unlock the secrets to fancy ice cubes—from clear ice to layered cubes to spheres that are liquid inside.
- Perfect gift for home mixologists looking to improve their drinks, as well as casual drinkers who want to liven up their nightly routine
- Ice recipes and cocktails are paired with psychedelic photography and disco playlists.

There are one-ingredient cubes to elevate any drink, infused ice to add flavor to simple cocktails, and pairings where ice and drink come together to make a concoction that you (and your guests) won't forget.

Recipes include such inspiring concoctions as an Indochine Iced Coffee with Coffee Cubes, a White Negroni with Lemon Twist Cubes (...)

Author Bio

Leslie Kirchoff created a name for herself as an artist, photographer, and DJ, shooting regularly for outlets like VOGUE, GLAMOUR, GQ, and TEEN VOGUE, and brands like Michael Kors, H&M, and Topshop, to name a few. She is a highly sought-after DJ with a long roster of clients, including Louis Vuitton, Dolce & Gabbana, American Express, and many more. She now lives in Los Angeles and is focused on Disco Cubes (originally a side hustle that took off), which seamlessly incorporates all of her creative passions into one exciting venture.

Cross Country

A 3700-Mile Run to Explore Unseen America

by Rickey Gates

In 2017, professional runner Rickey Gates ran 3,700 miles across the continental United States with just a small backpack and an anthropologist's curiosity to discover the divided America in which we live.

In the book Cross Country, Gates documents this epic experience from South Carolina to San Francisco, sharing first-person essays, interviews, and over 200 photographs of the ordinary and extraordinary people and places he saw along the way.

While Gates delivers unparalleled insight into the extreme athletic and mental challenge of this transcontinental run, running is not the core focus of Cross Country -it is a story of the remarkable people across the United States who we would otherwise never meet.

- A photographic travelogue that follows along Rickey Gates's run across the country, and the individuals who live in it
- Filled with portraits, landscapes, and collages of towns and communities that most people have never seen
- From South Carolina to San Francisco, the five-month-long run covers 3,700 miles of hiking trails, rivers, and roads.

Gates slept in the rain, carried meager possessions on his back, ran through the night, endured mental and physical challenges, and survived on a staple of gas station hot dogs and Pop Tarts.

Delivering a patchwork portrait of America, Gates's captivating story captures the spirit of our country-that grit, determination, and compassion are qualities that can unite us all.

- Perfect gift for runners, hikers, and lovers of the outdoors, as well as (...)

Success is 90% Spite

by (artist) Jane Zei

Based on the popular webcomic The Pigeon Gazette! Follow artist Jane Zei through the everyday rollercoaster of a quarter-life crisis-when high-flying optimism meets cold, hard adulthood during the journey from college to a full-time career.

With favorites from viral webcomic The Pigeon Gazette, along with never-before seen comics, Success is 90% Spite is a reminder that there's nothing you can't achieve through hard work, persistence-and really wanting to prove someone else wrong.

- A hilarious and high-energy collection that captures the all-too-real difficulties of life as a 20-something in a modern world
- Comics follow Jane's endearingly awkward and whimsical efforts to navigate adulthood.
- Covers a range of topics in both short, four-panel, and longer-form comics

When life gives you lemons . . . throw those suckers back into life's stupid face and make your own success.

From choosing Lord of the Rings over love, to mastering pooping etiquette in the workplace, Jane's existential adventures are told with an extra dose of narrative imagination, extended jokes on inane topics, and daydreams.

- The Pigeon Gazette has been featured in articles by Huffington Post, Bored Panda, and BuzzFeed
- Great gift for fans of funny webcomics, internet humor, and any millennial trying to make their way in the world
- Add it to the collection of books like Adulthood Is a Myth: A Sarah's Scribbles Collection by Sarah Andersen, Am I There Yet?: The Loop-de-loop, Zigzagging Journey to Adulthood by Mari Andrew, and It's All Absolutely Fine: Life Is Complicated So I've Drawn It Instead by Ruby Elliot

Author Bio

Jane Zei grew up in New Jersey before moving to Massachusetts where she earned her bachelor's in neuroscience and her master's in public health. Since most people don't want to think about their health care professionals pooping at work or absentmindedly hurting themselves during a Benedict Cumberbatch daydream, Jane enjoys a Batman-esque air of secrecy when it comes to her alter ego as Pigeoneer Jane.

The Art of the Political Putdown by Chris Lamb and Will Moredock

Political journalists Chris Lamb and Will Moredock have mined the past few centuries of political history and unearthed a treasure trove of humorous exchanges. THE ART OF THE POLITICAL PUTDOWN is a collection of over 300 witty verbal jabs and ripostes from politicians around the world (though the focus is on American politics), all of whom share a common sharp tongue. Interspersed with 11 brief essays analyzing the use of humor and wit in various political contexts, this comprehensive collection of witticisms, scathing burns, and mic-drop-worthy insults is an even-handed, intelligent, and lighthearted political humor title that will give readers from the Left and Right something to laugh about.

Author Bio

Chris Lamb, PhD, is a professor of journalism at Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis. He is an author, historian, lecturer, satirist, and columnist whose work has appeared in the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, the Washington Post, and the Los Angeles Times.

Will Moredock has been a staff and freelance writer for more than 30 years. His work has appeared in magazines and newspapers around the nation, including the Washington Post, the Philadelphia Inquirer, and the Charlotte Observer.

A Pocket Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue

by Francis Grose, edited by Steve Mockus

A Pocket Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue* is a profane guide to the slang from the backstreets and taverns of 18th-century London.

This slang dictionary gathers the most amusing and useful terms from English history and helpfully presents them to be used in the conversations of our modern day.

Originally published in 1785, the Classical Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue was one of the first lexicons of English slang, compiled by a militia captain who collected the terms he overheard on his late-night excursions to London's slums, dockyards, and taverns. Now the legacy lives on in this colorful pocket dictionary.

- Learn the origin of phrases like "birthday suit" and discover slang lost to time.
- Handy pocket-sized edition allows you to whip out vintage curse words whenever needed.
- An unexpected marriage of lowbrow humor and highbrow wit

Discover long lost antique slang and curse words and learn how to incorporate them into modern conversation.

A Pocket Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue* is perfect for enlivening contemporary conversation with historical phrases; it includes a topical list of words for money, drunkenness, the amorous congress, male and female naughty bits, and so on.

- A funny gift for wordplay, language, swearing, and insult fans, as well as fans of British humor and culture
- Perfect for those who loved How to Speak Brit: The Quintessential Guide to the King's English, Cockney Slang, and Other Flummoxing British Phrases by Christopher J. Moore; Knickers in a Twist: A Dictionary of British Slang by Jonathan Bernstein; and The Official Dictionary of Sarcasm by James Napoli

Author Bio

Captain Francis Grose (1731–1791) was an English lexicographer with a special interest in documenting the language as it was actually spoken in London's dockyards, taverns, and underworld.

The Underachiever's Manifesto

by Ray Bennett

LOWER THE BAR. With gentle humor and genuine wisdom, THE UNDERACHIEVER'S MANIFESTO is the playfully persuasive pocket guide to living life to the least and loving it. The funny, easy to follow advice contained within makes the case for the right amount of effort - a lot less than we've been led to believe - and reveals how mediocrity is the key to happiness at work, in relationships, dieting, exercise, investment, and more. TURN IT DOWN A NOTCH. This welcome new edition, revised just enough but not going overboard, brings its needed-now-more-than-ever perspective to our new era of fitness tracking, app overload, and tidying up. DON'T YOU FEEL BETTER ALREADY?

LULU

illustrated by Lulu De Kwiatkowski

This new, smaller format version of LULU, is a sumptuous monograph on artist Lulu de Kwiatkowski's colorful, dreamlike, and autobiographical handmade collages. Lulu's artwork draws inspiration from her unique, albeit rarefied and surreal, experiences growing up, as well as from her travels all over the world. Lulu's original multimedia collages combine painting, drawing, photography, and writing. Whimsical, yet complex, Lulu's work conveys a distinctly feminine and decorative sensibility that resonates as both contemporary and timeless.

With a background in painting, textile design, and the decorative arts, Lulu's work blends depictions of flora and fauna, with geometric studies of pattern and color. Memories often appear in the form of handwritten text, as well as in portraits of herself and her family members, removed from their original context and integrated into these dreamlike and fictional landscapes.

Author Bio

Lulu grew up in a large and eccentric family and had a rarefied upbringing at their various homes in New York, The Hamptons, and The Bahamas with frequent travels to Africa and Europe. She studied fine art and interior design at Parsons and later moved to Paris. She founded Lulu DK Fabrics creating textiles that were coveted in the interior design market. With Lulu DK she has continued to expand her design projects to include jewelry, home goods, and original artwork.

The Elements of a Home

by Amy Azzarito

This captivating collection reveals the fascinating stories behind more than 60 everyday household objects and furnishings. With tales from the kitchen, the bedroom, and every room in between, find out how napkins got their start as lumps of dough in ancient Greece, why forks were seen as immoral and unhygienic tools of the devil, and how Plato devised one of the earliest alarm clocks using stones and water, plus so much more. Brimming with beautiful illustrations, amusing anecdotes, and absorbing trivia (you'll never look at a pillow the same way again!), The Elements of a Home is a treasure trove of curiosities and a must-have for anyone who loves history, design, or decor.

Escargot for It!

A Snail's Guide to Finding Your Own Trail & Shell-ebrating Success

by Sabrina Moyle, illustrated by Eunice Moyle

From the pun-loving minds behind beloved creative studio Hello! Lucky, this charming illustrated book compiles encouraging life lessons inspired by the snail.

Escargot For It! features wise words on everything from slowing down and staying present, to appreciating the small stuff, to learning to believe in yourself, to "shell-ebrating" success.

Drawing from the wisdom of this magical mollusk and the teachings of great thinkers, this uplifting guide is filled with lessons on how to navigate the mountains and molehills of life-with grace, audacity, and sublime slime. Snails may be unassuming, but they are also enduring, courageous, and a surprisingly sage role model for navigating the mountains and molehills of life.

- Teeming with an assortment of quotes, fun facts, short essays, and of course, plentiful snail-themed puns offer guidance on all sorts of important life lessons
- Illustrated in Hello! Lucky's playful and exuberant art style
- As practical and sincere as it is silly and charming

Hello! Lucky's adorable artwork and an assortment of quotes, short musings, and plentiful puns makes this snail's guide to life a seriously inspiring gift for grads or anyone contemplating the (slime) trail ahead.

Open these pages and begin your heroic journey-bit-by-bit, day-by-day, moment-by-moment.

- A fun and unique gift for graduates, tweens, millennials, or anyone who could use a little encouraging life advice
- Perfect for fans of Am I There Yet?: The Loop-de-loop, Zigzagging (...)

Pencils You Should Know

A History of the Ultimate Writing Utensil in 75 Anecdotes

by Caroline Weaver

Pencils You Should Know traces the evolution of pencils over time and across the globe. From the humble, handcrafted pencil of the 19th century to the novelty writing implement of the 1990s, each object in this book tells a different story.

This book features a selection of 75 modern and vintage pencils curated by pencil powerhouse Caroline Weaver, owner of legendary New York pencil emporium CW Pencil Enterprise. Pencil fanatics will find old favorites here—the original Blackwing 602 puts in an appearance, of course—and make exciting new discoveries, too.

- The long, skinny book was designed to emulate a brand new box of pencils.
- Vintage pencils and accessories are photographed against vibrant, colorful backgrounds and accompanied by Weaver's insightful commentary.
- A pocket-sized love letter to one of the most important inventions in human history

This supremely charming little book celebrates the enduring magic of the pencil.

Trace the history of the pencil over time and across the globe, and discover everything you need to know about this simple yet ingenious invention.

- A great book for pencil collectors, admirers, historians, artists, writers—anyone who gets excited about the new Palomino Blackwing, a perfectly sharpened No. 2 Ticonderoga
- Fans of The Pencil by Henry Petroski, How to Sharpen Pencils by David Rees and John Hodgman, and The Pencil Perfect by Caroline Weaver will want this in their collection.
- The perfect gift for pencil devotees, analog and vintage ephemera lovers, designers, and fans of CW Pencil Enterprise

Rex Ray

by Griff Williams, contributions by Rebecca Solnit and Christian Frock

Rex Ray celebrates life, work, and legacy of iconic San Francisco fine artist Rex Ray (1956-2015).

This comprehensive volume features more than 100 of his works on canvas, wood, and paper—including never-before-seen pieces courtesy of the Rex Ray estate. His playful painted-paper-collages and organic, abstract forms have earned him comparisons to artists like Paul Klee and Henri Matisse.

- Essays by celebrated writer Rebecca Solnit, art critic Christian Frock, and Ray's gallerist and friend Griff Williams
- Ray's collages and paintings are both playful and geometric.
- This vibrant book pays tribute to Ray's life and work.

Rex Ray was a successful and prolific fine artist whose art has been shown at major museums and galleries throughout the United States. Now, longtime collectors and new fans alike can revel in the beauty of Ray's inimitable body of work.

Ray's exuberantly colorful paintings and collages are a testament to the prolific artist's joy in the creative process.

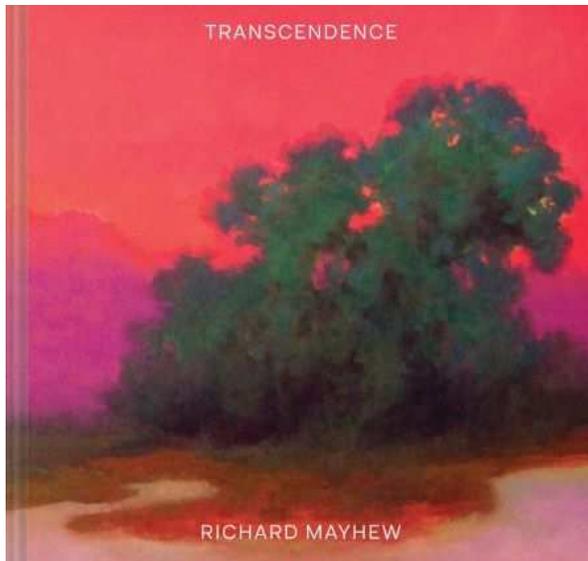

- This fine art monograph is perfect for Ray's fans and collectors, as well as those discovering the power and beauty of his work for the first time.
- A perfect gift for lovers of pop art and modern design, museumgoers, fine art fans, artists, designers, and those interested in the San Francisco art scene and local history
- Great for (...)

Author Bio

Rex Ray (September 11, 1956–February 9, 2015) was an American artist best known for his innovative pop aesthetic in fine and commercial art—on canvases, wood panels, album covers, paper, book jackets, murals, and rock and roll posters. A major cultural force in the art, literary, and activist communities in the Bay Area, he was recognized for his signature work in collage. Ray's work has been included in exhibitions at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; Akron Art Museum; Berkeley Art Museum; Crocker Art Museum; MCA Denver; McNay Art Museum; San Jose Museum of Art; and the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts.

Griff Williams is an artist, educator, and the founder of Gallery 16 in San Francisco.

Transcendence

by Richard Mayhew, introduction by Mikaela Sardo Lamarche, contributions by Andrew Walker

American painter Richard Mayhew, who recently celebrated his 95th birthday, has been reinventing landscape painting for over half a century. He's known for his masterful use of color and for his unique creative process, inspired by improvisational jazz, which involves pouring paint directly onto the canvas and shaping it into lush, emotional 'moodscapes.' His distinctive style also emerges from his immersion in the Abstract Expressionist movement, his African American and Native American heritage, and his unique affinity for the landscapes of the American West. But his paintings transcend boundaries of location and identity.

This monograph features approximately 75 of his most striking works, an exclusive interview with the artist, an introduction by his gallerist Mikaela Sardo Lamarche, and an essay by Andrew Walker, director of the Amon Carter Museum of American Art. All this is presented in an affordable off-square hardcover that feels elevated yet accessible.

Burps

A Connoisseur's Guide

by Burl O'Roark

Following the bestselling Farts: A Spotter's Guide series (over one million copies sold!), this hilarious field guide covers 10 different types of belches through text, illustrations, and sound.

Filled with shameless body-related humor, Burps: A Connoisseur's Guide identifies the characteristics, habitat, voice, and tasting notes" of each gassy oral emission.

The sound of each burp is reproduced with alarming accuracy through an attached battery-powered belch machine.

- Burps include the outsized Baby Boom, the bone shaking Surround Sound, and the sudden arrival of The Shocker.
- Grossly funny illustrations capture each burp at its moment of arrival-and the devastation in its wake.
- Printed on durable cardstock to make it through even the most powerful burps

This is a bathroom book of pure, unbridled entertainment for the giggling child (and proud belcher) in all of us.

- A hilarious gag gift for dads, brothers, kids, and anyone who just loves burping
- Enjoyed by kids and adults alike
- Add it to the collection of books such as The Big Book of Farts by James Carlisle and How Loud Can You Burp? by Glenn Murphy"

The Sea Journal

by Huw Lewis-Jones, foreword by Don Walsh

The sea has always fascinated us.

In this remarkable collection of illustrated private journals, log books, letters, and diaries, we follow firsthand the voyages of intrepid sailors from the frozen polar wastes to South Seas paradise islands. And we meet a fascinating cast of real characters: officers and crew, cooks and whalers, surgeons and artists, explorers and adventurers— including Antonio Pigafetta, an Italian who sailed with Magellan; Tupia, a Tahitian who joined Captain Cook's first voyage; buccaneer Bartholomew Sharp, who menaced the Spanish Main; and Jeanne Baret, the first woman to circumnavigate the globe.

In encounters with strange creatures and new lands, through danger and delight, pleasure and peril, the artistic records assembled here for the first time evoke the thrill of discovery and the spirit of the sea.

Author Bio

Huw Lewis-Jones, PhD, is a historian of exploration who travels regularly in the Arctic and Antarctica as a polar guide. He was formerly curator at the Scott Polar Research Institute, Cambridge, and the National Maritime Museum, London. He is the author of several books on the ocean and exploration, including Explorers' Sketchbooks. He lives by the sea in Cornwall, England.

Captain Don Walsh USN (RET), PhD, is an oceanographer, explorer, and former submarine captain. In 2001, he was elected to the United States National Academy of Engineering. He is currently the honorary president of the Explorers Club.

The Sky Atlas

The Greatest Maps, Myths, and Discoveries of the Universe
by Edward Brooke-Hitching

The Sky Atlas unveils some of the most beautiful maps and charts ever created during humankind's quest to map the skies above us. This richly illustrated treasury showcases the finest examples of celestial cartography—a glorious art often overlooked by modern map books—as well as medieval manuscripts, masterpiece paintings, ancient star catalogs, antique instruments, and other curiosities.

This is the sky as it has never been presented before: the realm of stars and planets, but also of gods, devils, weather wizards, flying sailors, ancient aliens, mythological animals, and rampaging spirits.

- Packed with celestial maps, illustrations, and stories of places, people, and creatures that different cultures throughout history have observed or imagined in the heavens
- Readers are taken on a tour of star-obsessed cultures around the world, learning about Tibetan sky burials, star-covered Inuit dancing coats, Mongolian astral prophets and Sir William Herschel's 1781 discovery of Uranus, the first planet to be found since antiquity.
- A gorgeous book that delights stargazers and map lovers alike

With thrilling stories and gorgeous artwork, this remarkable atlas explores our fascination with the sky across time and cultures to form an extraordinary chronicle of cosmic imagination and discovery.

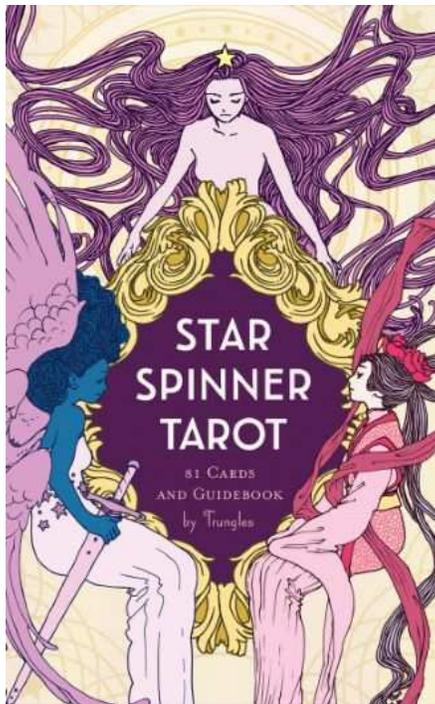

The Sky Atlas is a wonderful book for map lovers, history buffs, and stargazers, but also for those who are intrigued by the many wonderful and bizarre ways in which humans have sought to understand the cosmos and our place in it.

- A unique map book that expands beyond the terrestrial and into the celestial
- A wonderful gift for map lovers, obscure-history fans, mythology buffs, and astrology (...)

The Year of the Dogs Notecards

by by (photographer) Vincent J. Musi

National Geographic photographer Vincent Musi is used to photographing bears, elephants, tigers, lions, sheep, and pigs, but dared to try something different: dogs. With The Unleashed Studio, he invited friends and neighbors to bring in their canine companions (but no owners allowed) where he captured their beauty, spirit, and personality using the same lighting and photographic techniques that he does for National Geographic. The results are exquisite—arresting close-ups that dignify each dog with grace and humor.

These notecards feature 16 engaging and utterly striking photos from Musi's book The Year of the Dogs. Their individuality shines through in every portrait, sure to make any recipient's day!

Author Bio

Vincent J. Musi's work is familiar to many around the world through the pages of National Geographic. Outside of his magazine work, Musi specializes in animal portraiture, and considers his subjects collaborators, rather than simply the topics of his photographs. He is the author of the book The Year of the Dogs. Musi's work has also been profiled in the New York Times, Washington Post, and Time magazine, including numerous cover features. He lives in South Carolina with his wife and son.

Eat Something

A Wise Sons Cookbook for Jews Who Love Food and Food Lovers Who Love Jews

by Evan Bloom and Rachel Levin, illustrated by George McCalman

From nationally recognized Jewish brand Wise Sons, the cookbook Eat Something features over 60 recipes for salads, soups, baked goods, holiday dishes, and more.

This long-awaited cookbook (the first one for Wise Sons!) is packed with homey recipes and relatable humor; it is as much a delicious, lighthearted, and nostalgic cookbook as it is a lively celebration of Jewish culture.

Stemming from the thesis that Jews eat by occasion, the book is organized into 19 different events and celebrations chronicling a Jewish life in food, including: bris, Shabbat, Passover and other high holidays, first meal home from college, J-dating, wedding, and more.

- Both a Jewish humor book and a cookbook
- Recipes are drawn from the menus of their beloved Bay Area restaurants, as well as all the occasions when Jews gather around the table.
- Includes short essays, illustrations, memorabilia, and stylish plated food photography.

Wise Sons is a nationally recognized deli and Jewish food brand with a unique Bay Area ethos-inspired by the past but entirely contemporary, they make traditional Jewish foods California-style with great ingredients.

Recipes include Braided Challah, Big Macher Burger, Wise Sons' Brisket, Carrot Tzimmes, and Morning After Matzoquiles, while essays include Confessions of a First-Time Seder Host, So, You Didn't Marry a Jew, and Iconic Chinese Restaurants, As Chosen by the Chosen People.

Flight for Freedom

The Wetzel Family's Daring Escape from East Germany

by Kristen Fulton, illustrated by Torben Kuhlmann

An Inspiring True Story about One Family's Escape from Behind the Berlin Wall!

Peter was born on the east side of Germany, the side that wasn't free. He watches news programs rather than cartoons, and wears scratchy uniforms instead of blue jeans. His family endures long lines and early curfews. But Peter knows it won't always be this way. Peter and his family have a secret. Late at night in their attic, they are piecing together a hot air balloon-and a plan. Can Peter and his family fly their way to freedom? This is the true story of one child, Peter Wetzel, and his family, as they risk their lives for the hope of freedom in a daring escape from East Germany via a handmade hot air balloon in 1979.

- A perfect picture book for educators teaching about the Cold War, the Iron Curtain, and East Germany
- Flight for Freedom is a showcase for lessons of bravery, heroism, family, and perseverance, as well as stunning history.
- Includes detailed maps of the Wetzel family's escape route and diagrams of their hot air balloon

For fans of historical nonfiction picture books like Let the Children March, The Wall, Growing Up Behind the Iron Curtain, Armstrong: The Adventurous Journey of a Mouse to the Moon .

- True life escape stories
- For picture book readers age 5-9
- For teachers, librarians, and historians

The Keeper of Wild Words

by Brooke Smith, illustrated by Madeline Kloepper

When Mimi finds out that her favorite words—simple words, like apricot, blackberry, buttercup—are disappearing from the English language, she elects her granddaughter Brook as their Keeper. As Keeper, it's Brook's job to pass on the importance of protecting, loving, and celebrating the natural world. Words, the woods, and the world illuminate this quest to save our language—by saving the very things it stands for. A lyrical, inspiring, heartwarming picture book, THE KEEPER OF WILD WORDS is an ode to the environment and language itself.

Author Bio

Brooke Smith is a poet and children's book author. She lives in Bend, Oregon, at the end of a long cinder lane. Brooke writes daily from her studio, looking at the meadow and many of the wild words she cherishes.

Madeline Kloepper is a Canadian artist with a Bachelor of Fine Arts and Major in Illustration from Emily Carr University of Art and Design. Her work is influenced by childhood, nostalgia, and the relationships we forge with nature. She lives in Prince George, British Columbia.

On Wings of Words

The Extraordinary Life of Emily Dickinson

by Jennifer Berne, illustrated by Becca Stadtlander

An inspiring and kid-accessible biography of one of the world's most famous poets.

Emily Dickinson, who famously wrote "Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul," is brought to life in this moving story. In a small New England town lives Emily Dickinson, a girl in love with small things—a flower petal, a bird, a ray of light, a word. In those small things, her brilliant imagination can see the wide world—and in her words, she takes wing. From celebrated children's author Jennifer Berne comes a lyrical and lovely account of the life of Emily Dickinson: her courage, her faith, and her gift to the world. With Dickinson's own inimitable poetry woven throughout, this lyrical biography is not just a tale of prodigious talent, but also of the power we have to transform ourselves and to reach one another when we speak from the soul.

- Fantastic educational opportunity to share Emily Dickinson's story and poetry with young readers
- An inspirational real-life story that will appeal to children and adults alike.
- Jennifer Berne is the author of critically acclaimed children's biographies of Albert Einstein and Jacques Cousteau.

Fans who enjoyed Emily Writes: Emily Dickinson and her Poetic Beginnings, Emily and Carlo, and Uncle Emily will love On Wings of Words.

- Books for kids ages 5-8
- Poetry for children
- Biographies for children

Over the Moon

by James Proimos, illustrated by Zoey Abbott

This sweet-natured bedtime book proves that a family is wherever you find love.

When two wolves see a baby floating down a river, what do they do? Why, they take the baby home. Over the moon with joy, they nourish and teach her. And when that baby grows into a child, she and the wolves know that she will be ready to make her way in the world. Because when a child is loved, she has everything she needs.

- A classic fairy-tale premise told with warmth and an inclusive sensibility for all types of families to enjoy
- A touching read-aloud books for families, caregivers, and classroom storytime
- James Proimos has written and/or illustrated over 20 critically lauded children's books.

This gently humorous story shows that families come in many forms, and that love is about both holding on and letting go.

Fans of Finn's Feather, Wild, and Wolfie the Bunnie will find Over the Moon a delightful tale for all ages.

- Books for kids ages 3-5
- Books about families and togetherness
- Great storytime read-aloud picture book

James Proimos has yet to rescue a small human from a river, but he has written and illustrated many books for them. James splits his time between Los Angeles and Middleburg, Virginia.

Zoey Abbott is a graduate of Smith College. She spent four years working and painting in Japan. She now lives in Portland, Oregon, with her husband, their two kids, and a big dog named Carrots. This is her third book.

Such a Good Boy

by Marianna Coppo

The ultimate kids' book about dogs, being good, being bad, and being yourself!

From the award-winning, critically acclaimed author of Petra .

Meet Buzz the dog.

He's such a good boy.

Buzz seems to have a perfect life . . .

and a lot of very well-behaved friends.

Buzz would never dream of being anything other than good.

Right, Buzz?

Buzz . . . ?

For anyone who has ever felt pressure to be "good" at the expense of their own self-expression, and for anyone who has ever owned and loved a dog, this beautifully illustrated picture book from author-illustrator Marianna Coppo will have you laughing, smiling, and longing for your own unfettered frolic in the park.

- With charming art and a positive message, this is an ideal read-aloud book for parents and children to share.
- For dog lovers, pet lovers, and any kid who knows how hard it is to be good all the time
- Marianna Coppo's first book, Petra, was a Good Reads Choice Awards Picture Book Finalist and received starred reviews from Publisher's Weekly and Kirkus.
