El Chapulin Colorado

Sounds - Sonidos

by Patty Rodriguez and Ariana Stein, illustrated by Citlali Reyes

Latin America's beloved superhero El Chapulin Colorado introduces your baby to the natural sounds around them in both English and Spanish.

For many years, children all over Latin America have known one superhero who uses his noble heart to save the day: El Chapulin Colorado (The Red Grasshopper) with his trademark red suit and yellow heart!

Introduced in the early 1970s by the same man who created the El Chavo" television series, El Chapulin Colorado's enthusiasm and goofiness continue to inspire children all over the world to realize that you don't always need extraordinary superpowers to do extraordinary things.

Inspired by the internationally acclaimed sitcom "El Chapulin Colorado," this book introduces little ones to sound effects in English and Spanish. You will rejoice as you share the same hero you grew up with while helping them learn words that mimic the natural sounds of objects and actions. Your little one will learn that a clock's sound is "tic tac," or when you knock on the door, you hear "toc toc" in Spanish.

New England Modern

by Jaci Conry, by (photographer) Michael Lee

Melding the region's time-honored architecture with a multifaceted design sensibility.

Featuring 10 of New England's top interior designers

New England lays claim to boundless bits of history. The past is everywhere, especially in the architecture. Surrounded by all this history, is it challenging to encompass a modern design perspective; to create forward thinking interior spaces? For a long time that was the case. But not anymore. Residents now want their interiors to exude an innovative, worldly flair. They want their spaces to embody progress and technology, to exude a cosmopolitan spirit. Big sideboards and heavy chairs have been swapped out for elements that resonate with a cleaner decor. Formal rooms have been obviated with open floor plans. Punctures of unexpected color, bold patterns, and layers of textural elements abound. While New Englanders previously clung to style selections that were safe and understated, interiors now feature dramatic elements, reflecting a curated mix of furnishings, modern assemblages of leather, glass, and steel, and other statement-making contrasting materials. New England Modern highlights interiors created by ten New England designers that are bold and vibrant, with a modern feel and flow just right for today's homeowners.

Author Bio

Jaci Conry has been covering home design for more than fifteen years. She has written for countless publications including the Boston Globe, Better Homes & Gardens, Domino, Dwell, Design New England, and Boston Home. In late 2017, she became editor-in-chief of a new shelter magazine, Interiors Boston. Michael J. Lee is a Boston-based architectural photographer with a combined twenty-eight years of interior design and photography experience. He has shot more than fifty print magazine and book covers, and is a recipient of awards from The Room to Dream Foundation, The Boston Architectural College, and The American Society of Interior Designers.

Private Gardens of Santa Barbara

The Art of Outdoor Living

by Margie Grace

An exclusive look at the exquisite residential gardens of the American Riviera. Private Gardens of Santa Barbara is an invitation into twenty-three distinctive private gardens: large estates, modest homes, and surf retreats run the gamut from sublime and naturalistic to bold and urban. What they have in common, however, is what makes them truly great. These gardens are a response to the unique character of each site, the existing architecture, and the larger environment; and adapted to the lifestyle, personality, and practical needs of the people who live there.

Margie Grace, principal of Grace Design Gardens, is known for incorporating as many ecosystem services as the property will support such as living soils, pollinator services, animal habitats, and storm water retention. These gardens are designed with water-smart, maintenance-smart, and fire-smart priorities in mind, with high habitat value and plants native to the world's Mediterranean climates.

A plants and materials list serves as a helpful resource, as readers take away ideas and inspiration for their own garden-making.

Author Bio

Twice named International Landscape Designer of the Year, Margie Grace is a well-regarded, nationally known landscape designer with 35+ years in the landscape design-build profession. She is the founding principal of Grace Design Associates, Inc. (GDA), based in Santa Barbara, California, considered the premiere landscape design-build firm in the region.

Author Laura Fenton covers a range of homes including studio apartments, one- and two-bedroom houses, a tiny house, a co-living space, and even whole houses. The Real Dirt on America's Frontier Outlaws

by Jim Motavalli

Learn the real stories behind the infamous renegades of the West.

The rebels and bandits of the American West-like Billy the Kid, Jesse James, and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid-have always made for thrilling tales of gunfights, heists, and outlaws. From the beginning, penny dreadfuls, Wild West shows, dime novels, and urban legends romanticized and magnified these renegades and their wild American spirits. These tales, however, don't capture the truth of the West's outlaws-nor do we hear about other lawless individuals, such as Pearl Hart, Belle Starr, or the Bloody Espinosas. Jim Motavalli returns with The Real Dirt on America's Frontier Outlaws to give a real and more inclusive look at the old West and the dangerous figures that immortalized it.

Author Bio

Jim Motavalli writes for the New York Times, The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, Barron's, NPR's Car Talk, Autoblog, Natural Awakenings, and others. He lectures frequently on environmental topics in the US and abroad. Motavalli is a two-time winner of the Global Media Award from the Population Institute, and hosts a radio program on WPKN-FM in Connecticut, with frequent guests and live music. He lives in Fairfield, Connecticut.
