12 Ampersand Fall 2020 Dewey Book Club – Saffron Beckwith & Lauren Cusack

<https://bnccatalist.ca/viewcatalogue.aspx?id=49861>

🇨🇦 Two For the Tablelands* by Kevin Major – Breakwater – 9781550818444 – PB - $22.95 - FICTION / Mystery & Detective – 224 pp. – September 2020

It's the off-season, and Newfoundland tour guide Sebastian Synard has crossed the island with his teenage son for a weekend exploring the wonders of Gros Morne National Park. But on a hike across the spectacular rockscape they discover the body of a murder victim.

🇨🇦  The Dogs of Winter* by Ann Lambert – Second Story – 9781772601404 – PB - $19.95 - FICTION / Mystery & Detective / Women Sleuths – 328 pp. – October 2020

The Dogs of Winter begins after a howling snowstorm envelops Montreal, and the body of a young woman is discovered in its wake. The only clue to her identity is the photograph in her pocket, and on it, the phone number of Detective Inspector Romeo Leduc.

Me and White Supremacy* by Layla Saad – Sourcebooks – 9781728209807 – HC - $37.99 - SOCIAL SCIENCE / Discrimination – 256 pp. – January 2020

Updated and expanded from the original workbook (downloaded by nearly 100,000 people), this critical text helps you take the work deeper by adding more historical and cultural contexts, sharing moving stories and anecdotes, and including expanded definitions, examples, and further resources, giving you the language to understand racism, and to dismantle your own biases, whether you are using the book on your own, with a book club, or looking to start family activism in your own home.

🇨🇦 All the Devils Are Here* by Louise Penny – Minotaur – 9781250145239 – HC - $36.99 - FICTION / Mystery & Detective – 448 pp. – September 2020

On their first night in Paris, the Gamaches gather as a family for a bistro dinner with Armand's godfather, the billionaire Stephen Horowitz. Walking home together after the meal, they watch in horror as Stephen is knocked down and critically injured in what Gamache knows is no accident, but a deliberate attempt on the elderly man's life.

 The Paris Children* by Gloria Goldreich – Sourcebooks – 9781728215624 – PB - $24.99 - FICTION / Historical / World War II – 432 pp. – September 2020

As the shadows of Adolf Hitler and the Nazi Party fall over Paris, Madeleine Levy draws on the spirit of her grandfather, a WWI hero, and defends her beloved France in the only way she knows how: helping Jewish children escape the impending horror.

Cilka's Journey* by Heather Morris – St. Martin's – 9781250265692 – PB - $22.99 - FICTION / Historical / World War II – 368 pp. – September 2020

Cilka is just sixteen years old when she is taken to Auschwitz-Birkenau Concentration Camp in 1942, where the commandant immediately notices how beautiful she is. Forcibly separated from the other women prisoners, Cilka learns quickly that power, even unwillingly taken, equals survival.

Three Single Wives* by Gina Lamanna – Sourcebooks – 9781728215655 – HC - $38.95 - FICTION / Thrillers / Suspense – 368 pp. – September 2020

When Anne Wilkes, Eliza Tate, and Penny Sands arrive at book club bearing bottles of wine, none of them are plotting to kill. But when the subject of a philandering husband arises, revenge is in the air. By the end of the night, someone is dead.

Uncomfortable Conversations with a Black Man* by Emmanuel Acho – Flatiron – 9781250800466 – HC - $37.99 - SOCIAL SCIENCE / General – 256 pp. – November 2020

Acho takes on all the questions, large and small, insensitive and taboo, many white Americans are afraid to ask—yet which all Americans need the answers to, now more than ever. With the same open-hearted generosity that has made his video series a phenomenon, Acho explains the vital core of such fraught concepts as white privilege, cultural appropriation, and “reverse racism.”

Murder by Milk Bottle* by Lynne Truss – Bloomsbury - 9781635575965 – HC - $36.50 - FICTION / Mystery & Detective – 320 pp. – November 2020

In the wake of two extremely high-profile murder cases, and with the summer of 1957 finally winding down, Constable Twitten is eagerly anticipating a quiet spell at work. But his hoped-for rest is interrupted when he and his colleagues find a trio of bodies, all murdered with the same unusual weapon: a milk bottle.

🇨🇦 No Time Like the Future by Michael J. Fox – Flatiron – 9781250265616 – HC - $37.99 - AUTOBIOGRAPHY / Rich & Famous – 256 pp. – November 2020

Diagnosed at age 29, Michael is equally engaged in Parkinson’s advocacy work, raising global awareness of the disease and helping find a cure through The Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson’s Research, the world’s leading non-profit funder of PD science. His new memoir reassesses this outlook, as events in the past decade presented additional challenges.

All We Are Saying* by David Sheff – St. Martin’s – 9781250625069 – PB - $22.99 - BIOGRAPHY / Music – 288 pp. – December 2020

Originally published by Playboy Press in 1981 just after John Lennon's assassination, All We Are Saying is a rich and vivid interview with Lennon and Yoko Ono, wide-ranging in its coverage of art, creativity, the music business, their extraordinary childhoods, privacy, the true story of how the Beatles broke up, how Lennon and Paul McCartney collaborated on the greatest Beatles songs.

The Arctic Fury* by Greer Macallister – Sourcebooks – 9781728229058 – HC - $38.99 - FICTION / Historical – 432 pp. – December 2020

Virginia Reeve is summoned by an eccentric Brit with a compelling offer. Lady Jane Franklin wants her to lead a dozen women into the Arctic in search of the ships of her husband's lost expedition, and she's willing to pay handsomely. All four search attempts Lady Franklin has sponsored have failed. She has decided only a radical new approach can succeed: let women make the decisions.

Why Birds Sing by Nina Berkhout  - ECW Press- 978-1-77041-581-2- TPB- $22.95- Fiction- 280 pp.- October 2020

When opera singer Dawn Woodward has an onstage flameout, all she wants is to be left alone. She's soon faced with other complications the day her husband announces her estranged brother-in-law, Tariq, is undergoing cancer treatment and moving in, his temperamental parrot in tow. To make matters worse, though she can't whistle herself, she has been tasked with teaching arias to an outspoken group of devoted siffleurs who call themselves the Warblers.

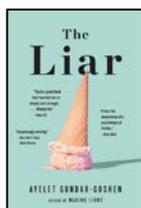

Curious Toys by Elizabeth Hand- Mulholland Books- 978-0-316-48591-3- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 400 pp.- September 2020

In the sweltering summer of 1915, Pin, the fourteen-year-old daughter of a carnival fortune-teller, dresses as a boy and joins a teenage gang that roams the famous Riverview amusement park, looking for trouble. Unbeknownst to the well-heeled city-dwellers and visitors who come to enjoy the attractions, the park is also host to a ruthless killer who uses the shadows of the dark carnival attractions to conduct his crimes.

A Door in the Earth by Amy Waldman- Little, Brown- 978-0-316-45156-7- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 400 pp.- October 2020

Parveen Shamsa, a college senior in search of a calling, feels pulled between her charismatic and mercurial anthropology professor and the comfortable but predictable Afghan-American community in her Northern California hometown. When she discovers a bestselling book called Mother Afghanistan, a memoir by humanitarian Gideon Crane that has become a bible for American engagement in the country, she is inspired. Galvanized by Crane's experience, Parveen travels to a remote village in the land of her birth to join the work of his charitable foundation.

The Liar by Ayelet Gundersen- Little, Brown- 978-0-316-44540-5- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 288 pp.- August 2020

Nofar is an average teenage girl---so average, in fact, that she's almost invisible. Serving customers ice cream all summer long, she is desperate for some kind of escape. But one afternoon, a terrible lie slips from her tongue. And suddenly everyone wants to talk to her: the press, her schoolmates, and even the boy upstairs. He is the only one who knows the truth, and he is demanding a price for his silence.

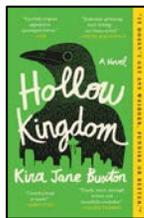

The Subtweet by Vivek Shraya  - ECW Press- 978-1-77041-525-6- TPB- $21.95- Fiction- 220 pp.- April 2020

Everyone talks about falling in love, but falling in friendship can be just as captivating. When Neela Devaki's song is covered by internet-famous artist Rukmini, the two musicians meet and a transformative friendship begins. But as Rukmini's star rises and Neela's stagnates, jealousy and self-doubt creep in. With a single tweet, their friendship implodes, one career is destroyed, and the two women find themselves at the center of an internet firestorm.

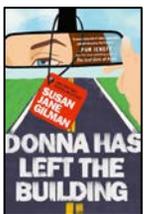

The Expectations by Alexander Tilney- Little, Brown- 978-0-316-45039-3- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 320 pp.- August 2020

St. James is an exclusive New England boarding school known for grooming generations of leaders. Ben is a true insider--his family were founders, his older brother was a campus legend, and he commands awe on the squash court. But after fourteen long years of waiting, Ben arrives at school only to find that the reality of St. James doesn't quite match up with his imaginings.

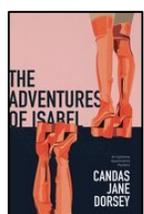

Hollow Kingdom by Kira Jane Buxton- Grand Central- 978-1-5387-4583-0- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 320 pp.- July 2020

Donna Has Left the Building by Susan Jane Gilman- Grand Central- 978-1-5387-6242-4- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 432 pp.- June 2020

From the beloved, New York Times bestselling author of Hypocrite in a Pouffy White Dress comes a hilarious, timely, and big-hearted new novel about rebuilding life in the face of disaster.

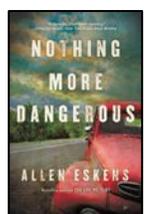

The Adventures of Isabel by Candace Jane Dorsey - ECW Press- 978-1-77041-555-3- TPB- $19.95- Fiction- 220 pp.- October 2020

With judicious use of the Oxford comma, pop culture trivia, common mystery tropes, and a keen eye for deceit, our protagonist swaggers through the mean streets of — yes, a Canadian city! — and discovers that what seems at first to be just a grotty little street killing is actually the surface of a grandiose and glittering set of criminal schemes.

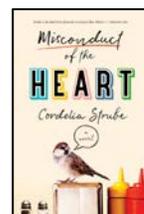

Necessary People by Anna Pitoniak- Little, Brown- 978-0-316-45172-7- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 352 pp.- May 2020

Stella might be the one with the rich family and the right friends, but Violet isn't giving up so easily. As she and Stella strive for success, each reveals just how far she'll go to get what she wants -- even if it means destroying the other person along the way.

Nothing More Dangerous by Allen Eskens- Mulholland Books- 978-0-316-44982-3- TPB- $22.99- Fiction- 320 pp.- November 2020

In a small Southern town where loyalty to family and to "your people" carries the weight of a sacred oath, defying those unspoken rules can be a deadly proposition. Secrets hidden in plain sight begin to unfold: the mother who wraps herself in the loss of her husband, the neighbor who carries the wounds of a mysterious past that he holds close, the quiet boss who is fighting his own hidden battle. But the biggest secret of all is the disappearance of Lida Poe.

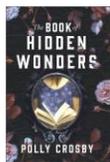

Misconduct of the Heart by Cordelia Strube - ECW Press- 978-1-77041-494-5- TPB- $22.95- Fiction- 400 pp.- April 2020

Stevie, a recovering alcoholic and kitchen manager of Chappy's, a small chain restaurant, is frantically trying to prevent the people around her from going supernova: her PTSD-suffering veteran son, her uproariously demented parents, the polyglot eccentrics who work in her kitchen, the blind geriatric dog she inherits, and a damaged five-year-old who landed on her doorstep and might just be her granddaughter. In the tight grip of new corporate owners, Stevie battles corporate's "restructuring" to save her kitchen, while trying to learn to forgive herself and maybe allow some love back into her life

Bookclub List – Fall 2020 – Penguin Random House of Canada -- Lahring Tribe
ltribe@penguinrandomhouse.com/www.penguinrandomhouse.ca

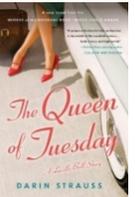

Hamnet & Judith by Maggie O'Farrell | Knopf Canada | 9780735280175 | $24.95 TR Original | Fiction | 384 pages | July 2020 A novel inspired by the children of a famous playwright, the story of the bond between twins, and of a marriage pushed to the brink by grief. An unforgettable reimagining of a boy whose life has been all but forgotten, but whose name was given to one of the most celebrated plays ever written. More discussable historical fiction: Words I Never Wrote; Orphan Collector; Queen's Fortune.

Leonard and Hungry Paul by Ronan Hession | Melville House | 9781612198484 | $34.99 HC | Fiction | 256 pages | August 2020 Two friends protect their understanding of what's meaningful in life. It is about the uncelebrated people of this world -- the gentle, the meek, the humble. Is it really them against the world, or are they onto something? More intelligently uplifting fiction: Dear Edward; The Two Lives of Lydia Bird; It's Not All Downhill From Here; Twenty; The Sunday Potluck Club.

 The Certainties by Aislinn Hunter | Knopf Canada | 9780735276871 | $29.95 HC | Fiction | 248 pages | August 2020 In 1940, as the shadow of war lengthens over Europe, three travelers enter a village in Spain. Their story, told over 48 tense hours, is narrated by one of the men, who slowly accepts his fate. In the 1980s, Pia seeks solitude on a remote island in the Atlantic. As a storm engulfs the island and a boat flounders offshore, Pia and her fellow islanders rush to help--and past and present calamities collide. Other treks through history: A Long Petal of the Sea; Traveler at the Gates of Wisdom.

The Queen of Tuesday: A Lucille Ball Story by Darin Strauss | Random House | 9780812992762 | $36.00 HC | Fiction | 336 pages | August 2020 Lucille Ball, the most powerful woman in the history of Hollywood, owned more movie sets than any movie studio and basically created the modern TV business. Yet her off-camera life was in disarray. The Queen of Tuesday mixes fact and fiction, memoir and novel, to tell a provocative story. More well-known women: Rodham; First Actress; Petra.

 Cascade by Craig Davidson | Knopf Canada | 9780735280120 | $29.95 HC | Fiction/Short Stories | 224 pages | August 2020 Set in the Niagara Falls of Davidson's imagination known as "Cataract City," these six stories shine a light on this slightly seedy, slightly magical, slightly haunted place. Davidson's first short story collection in 15 years, since Rust and Bone. More short stories: Daddy; Traveler and Other Stories; That Old Country Music; Dangers of Smoking in Bed.

Transcendent Kingdom by Yaa Gyasi | Bond Street Books | $32.00 HC | Fiction | 288 pages | September 2020 From the author of Homegoing, a novel about a Ghanaian family in Alabama. Gifty is studying reward-seeking behaviour in mice and the neural circuits of depression and addiction. Her brother is dead from a heroin overdose after a knee injury led to Oxycontin addiction and her suicidal mother is bedridden. Determined to discover the scientific basis for the suffering all around her, Gifty finds herself hungering for her childhood faith. More tales from young diverse writers: Luster; No Heaven for Good Boys; Conjure Women.

 Consent by Annabel Lyon | Random House Canada | 9780345811455 | $29.95 HC | Fiction | 224 pages | September 2020 Twins Saskia and Jenny are alike only in appearance. When Jenny is severely injured in an accident, Saskia puts her life on hold to be with her. As soon as Sara was able, she left home, but when their mother dies, she inherits the duty of caring for her intellectually disabled younger sister Mattie. When Mattie marries her mother's handyman, Sara forces the annulment of the marriage. When Robert resurfaces, another tragedy happens and Sara and Saskia seek revenge. More from established writers: Here We Are; Miss Benson's Beetle.

 Waiting for a Star to Fall: A Novel by Kerry Clare | Doubleday Canada |

9780385695473 | $22.95 TR Original | Fiction | 288 pages | October 2020 Brooke has long been caught in the orbit of rising political superstar Derek, first her boss, then her friend, then she became his confidant, and more. Brooke has to keep the relationship a secret, but it's still worthwhile -- until he becomes embroiled in a scandal, and she re-examines their connection. More millennial-leaning fiction: Luster; Lost Love Song; Art of Falling; Siri, Who Am I?; Detransition Baby.

Eight Detectives by Alex Pavesi | Penguin UK/Michael Joseph | 9780241433560 | $31.99 HC | 9780241433577 | $24.95 TR | Fiction/Mystery | 320 pages | October 2020 All murder mysteries follow a simple set of rules. Thirty years ago, crime fiction author and math professor Grant McAllister sat down and worked them all out. Now he lives in seclusion on a quiet Mediterranean island -- until an editor republishing his early work tracks him down. As she reads the stories, Julia realizes that there are parts that don't make sense, intricate clues that seem to reference a real murder. Debut.

The Mermaid from Jeju: A Novel by Sumi Hahn | Crooked Lane Books/Alcove Press | 9781643854403 | $35.99 HC | Fiction | 320 pages | December 2020 In the aftermath of World War II, Goh Junja is the latest successful deep sea diver in a her family. Junja urges her mother to allow her to make the family's annual trip to Mt. Halla, where she falls in love with mountain boy Suwol. The political climate is perilous; Korea is forced to accept US troops following the Japanese withdrawal. When Suwol is arrested for harboring communists, Junja must learn to navigate a tumultuous world. Debut. More World War II-themed stories: Surviving the War; V2; Irena's War; Olive Bright, Pigeoneer; Glamour Girls.

When the Apricots Bloom by Gina Wilkinson | Kensington | 9781496729354 | $21.95 TR Original | Fiction | 304 pages | December 2020 Inspired by the author's experiences in Baghdad during Saddam Hussein's rule, this evocative, suspenseful debut is told through the eyes of three very different women in Iraq at the turn of the millennium. A secretary, an artist and a diplomat's wife must each confront the complexities of trust, friendship, and motherhood under the rule of a dictator and his ruthless secret police. More book club possibilities: Love After Love; Book of Two Ways; Three Women and a Boat; Opium Prince.

Who We Are:

We're a group of Canadian publishers' reps - all passionate readers - who have been giving book talk presentations of our favourite reads to librarians and school teachers. We present our picks for the best upcoming books for kids, teens and adults in a variety of genres, and introduce readers and educators to forgotten gems and new writers that they may have missed. In 2009 we received the Ontario Public Library Association's Leadership in Adult Readers' Advisory Award.

Here's what we can do for you:

- present our picks for the best upcoming books for kids, teens, and adults in a variety of genres
- introduce readers and educators to hidden gems and new writers that they may have missed
- create presentations to suit each library's particular interests and needs
- provide posters, ARCs, and ephemera to attendees

"I love that Dewey Divas don't just represent one publisher or distributor — at each presentation we see an interesting range of titles from various publishers across different genres. I use these passionate book talks as valued additional selection and reader's advisory tools. My colleagues and I look forward to every Dewey Divas presentation — we know that we will be entertained and educated."
