Arcturus Children’s Catalogue Autumn 2024

Welcome to Arcturus Publishing’s children’s books catalogue for Autumn 2024—a catalogue that presents both exciting new titles and a wide-ranging selection of projects from our backlist.

We’re as proud as ever of our fiction list, and this time around it features a sprinkling of stardust. Tales of the Night Sky is a beautifully illustrated collection of folk stories that take inspiration from the stars and Moon.

Our reference titles continue to be incredibly diverse. We’re particularly excited about How to Walk on the Moon, the first title in a new series that mixes comic book action, comedy, and science—with explosive results! We’re also keen to share our Weird and Wonderful books, which highlight the stranger side of animal life. And we’d strongly encourage you to visit the Museum of Marvels, a factivity series with truly jaw-dropping art.

This season, we’ve also journeyed into the world of self-care. Our My Feelings series aims to help young readers handle big emotions. And rounding out our latest titles is a wonderful seasonal gift—our A Book a Day Advent Calendar is a marvellous way to count down to Christmas.

We’re sure that, whatever your needs and interests, you’ll find something here that will suit you to a tee—and we look forward to working with you!
