Arcturus Children's Catalogue Spring 2024

Reading encourages children to think BIG! It helps them to grow in knowledge and confidence, and expands their imaginations. In Arcturus Publishing's Children's Catalogue for Spring 2024, you'll find an eclectic array of books that will encourage young readers to reach new heights.

This season, we're proud to present the first title in a new series of graphic novels from Jess Bradley—Kid-Zilla—in which a little kid becomes a giant monster, and chaos ensues! Meanwhile, our latest young readers' fiction series, Moonlight Magic Club, features four young witches with big ambitions embarking on a series of spellbinding adventures.

On the non-fiction side, the first two titles in our Big Ideas for Curious Minds series delve into the worlds of Darwin and Einstein—both giants in their fields. And our How Big? series gives readers an exciting new perspective on the wild world by bringing animals, both modern and prehistoric, to life with actual-sized illustrations.

Meanwhile our art and activity books continue to go from strength to strength, with Draw and Discover and Train Your Brain being real highlights.

We are confident that you will find much to enjoy in this catalogue—and look forward to working with you in the months to come.

FICTION

Adventures don't come any bigger than this!

When the Earth is invaded by extra-mean extraterrestrials and ginormous monsters, Zoe and her kid brother Pablo think things can't get any crazier. But when Pablo munches on a peculiar sandwich, he finds himself transmogrified into a massive monster himself! For some kids, being suddenly supersized might be scary. But for Pablo, it's the beginning of an incredible and hilarious adventure. Can a schoolkid in the body of a skyscraping monster take on an entire alien army? Find out in ... Kid-Zilla!

Get in on the ground floor of this funny, action-packed, and completely off-the-wall series by award-winning author and illustrator Jess Bradley, whose Super Dweeb series has sold over 100,000 copies and been translated into seven languages. Kid-Zilla showcases Bradley's signature absurdist humour—and with full-colour comic pages throughout, the story is an irresistible read. Ideal for fans of funny stuff aged 7 and up.

Cast a spell with the Moonlight Magic Club!

There's something strange about 10-year-old Scarlett's new babysitter. Why does Foxglove keep speaking to the mirror, and is that a talking pet cat? Scarlett soon discovers that not only does Foxglove have magical powers, but so too do her friends Pandora and Maya! These junior witches—the members of the Moonlight Magic Club—perform good deeds to earn their witchcraft badges. And along the way, they get caught up in a whole series of exciting, magical adventures!

This latest series from author Melody Lockhart is threaded with her signature combination of humour and heart—and artist Luna Valentine brings an irrepressible sense of fun.

These action-packed stories feature relatable female protagonists and empowering messages about resilience and friendship. For readers aged 7+.

Discover what happens when you don't eat your greens!

As the world's greatest school-aged superhero, Super Dweeb has a lot going for him. He has an awesome imagination, an atomic pencil that brings his drawings to life, and a genius best friend! But will that be enough to save him when his fussy eating causes an unexpected crisis—and he finds himself in the greatest food fight of all time?

Told with comic-strip illustrations in full colour, this is the sixth title in the series written and illustrated by Blue Peter 2021 award-winner Jess Bradley. Super Dweeb has sold 100,000+ copies and been translated into seven languages. This latest title will excite existing fans—and the series' continued success is sure to draw in many more.

Join us for an unpredictable, anarchic adventure that will entertain both parents and children aged 7+.

Meet the heroines who take charge of their own destinies ...

This inspiring collection of 15 traditional stories from around the globe, retold by Samantha Newman, is brought to life by the mesmerizing full-colour artwork of award-winning illustrator Khoa Le.

Drawing from a myriad of oral traditions, this book invites young readers to travel the world with courageous characters—swimming through Brazilian rivers with Iara, exploring Italian palaces with Catherine, and navigating Indian forests with Savitri. Each folk tale features a bold young woman who knows her own mind, unlike the passive role models so common in traditional fairy tales.

Brave and brilliant—the heroines of these ancient tales are perfect for twenty-first-century readers.

The 16 books in this boxset introduce the high-spirited Anne Shirley, an 11-year-old orphan who finds a home and a family at Green Gables. Anne's world-famous story is given new life by Eve O'Brien's witty and expressive art style. Each book can be read as a stand-alone tale, or as part of the longer narrative of Anne's early years.

Over a century after the world first met her, Anne Shirley remains a lovable and relatable heroine. Across the series can be found important life lessons about the importance of family and friendship—not to mention the actual lessons of Anne's school days! Readers will be charmed by her hijinks and scrapes, from green hair dye to a runaway boat.

What a great way for young readers to discover Anne of Green Gables—and for adults to revisit these timeless tales.

All aboard HMS Beagle for Darwin's vital voyage

Every once in a while, an idea comes along that is so radical, so surprising, that it completely transforms the way that we look at the world. Grab your top hat and join us as we revisit just such a monumental discovery.

This beautifully illustrated full-colour hardback brings to life Charles Darwin's foundational scientific theory—evolution by natural selection—as laid out in his groundbreaking masterwork On the Origin of Species. This remarkable theory is unpacked for a new generation of inquisitive readers, with complex ideas cleverly explained in clear, easy-to-follow language.

Part of the Big Ideas for Curious Minds series, this inspiring book is a perfect introduction to one of the most important theories in modern science.

Navigate space and time with Einstein

Among the many scientific advances that have shaped our world, few have been as important, or influential, as the theory of relativity—which changed the way we think about space and time.

This book explains Einstein's big idea in clear and simple terms, enabling a new generation of inquisitive readers to grasp the core concepts, levelling up their understanding of physics and mathematics. On this scientific journey, there is also plenty of biographical information about Einstein himself.

Readers aged 8+ will be drawn in by the lavish illustrations of Juanita Londoño-Gaviria, and inspired by some truly mind-blowing science!
