Arcturus Children's Catalogue Spring 2025

Welcome to Arcturus Publishing's children's catalogue for Spring 2025, which showcases our latest titles alongside an extensive selection from our backlist.

Our fiction list is taking a walk on the wild side this season, with three new series that feature creatures. Dino Quest is an uproariously funny story set in a world where valiant knights ride dinosaurs; Daisy Dolittle tells the tale of an independent-minded girl detective who can talk to animals; while Instant Monsters features the anarchic adventures of two best friends who stumble upon a bag full of adorably unpredictable monsters.

Our non-fiction offerings are as wide-ranging as ever. We're particularly thrilled by the First Picture Encyclopedias, which combine crystal-clear writing with lavish illustrations. Meanwhile, our Professor Katzenstein series is really taking off, so check out these uniquely fascinating books that fuse smart science with side-splitting comic strips—before they leave orbit! We are also exploring some fascinating areas that are new to our list, with Psychology for Curious Kids and The Astronomy Handbook.

If you're in the market for activity books, there's plenty on that front too—and we'd particularly encourage you to take a look at Alan Turing's Puzzle Machine and our Enchanted Colour-by-Numbers books.

We're confident that whatever your preferences, you'll find something perfect here—and we look forward to working with you this season!
