THE EMERALD TABLE OF HERMES & THE KYBALION

165 × 105mm
192 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398834170
AVAILABLE IN NOVEMBER
2024

This ornate gift edition brings together the classic Hermetic texts, The Emerald Tablet of Hermes and The Kybalion, presented in a beautiful pocket hardback volume with gilded page edges.

The Emerald Tablet of Hermes is an ancient cryptic text, said to impart the wisdom of legendary figure Hermes Trismegistus whose teachings are at the heart of Hermetic philosophy. With ideas on astrology, alchemy and spiritual transformation, it explores the metaphysical link between the physical and spiritual world, as encapsulated by the phrase “as above, so below”.

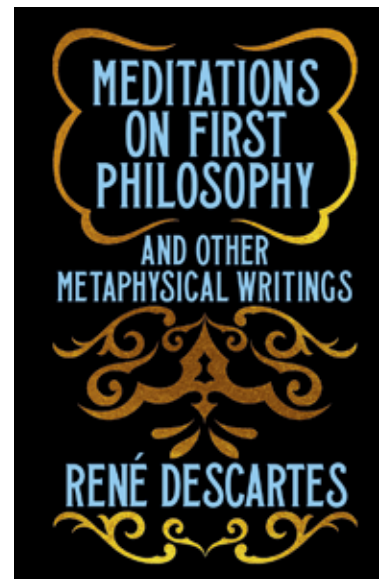

MEDITATIONS ON FIRST PHILOSOPHY & OTHER METAPHYSICAL WRITINGS

by René Descartes
165 × 105mm
288 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398840379
AVAILABLE IN MARCH 2025

The treatise in this distinctly designed ornate edition offers Descartes’ metaphysical views on the relationship between the mind and thought, the nature of reality and how accumulated knowledge and our experiences affect us. First published in 1641, the work consists of six meditations on the following topics: the dubiousness of thoughts and assumptions; the nature of the human mind; the existence of God; truth versus falsehood; the essence of material things and, finally, the difference between mind and body.

THE DIALOGUES OF SOCRATES

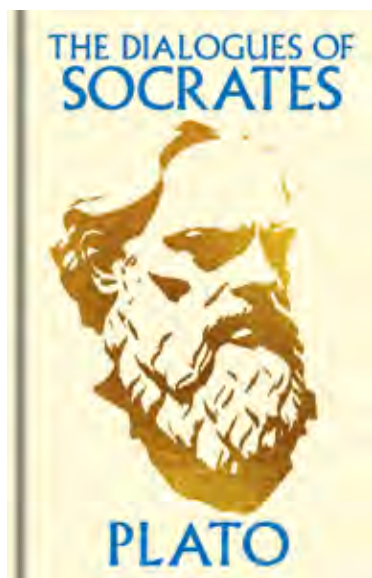

by Plato
165 × 105mm
304 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398840362
AVAILABLE IN MARCH 2025

Plato was Socrates’ most dedicated student. Here, Plato offers a detailed and eye-opening account of the Socratic belief in one’s own responsibility through a series of dialogues between Socrates and his fellow Athenians.

Providing a complete portrait of the enigmatic philosopher, this collection includes six fascinating dialogues: Charmides, Symposium, Euthyphro, Apology, Crito and Phaedo.

Together, these eloquent dialogues provide an emotional insight into the life of one of the greatest classical philosophers.

THE SOCIAL CONTRACT

by Jean Jacques Rousseau
165 × 105mm
160 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398840331
AVAILABLE IN MARCH 2025

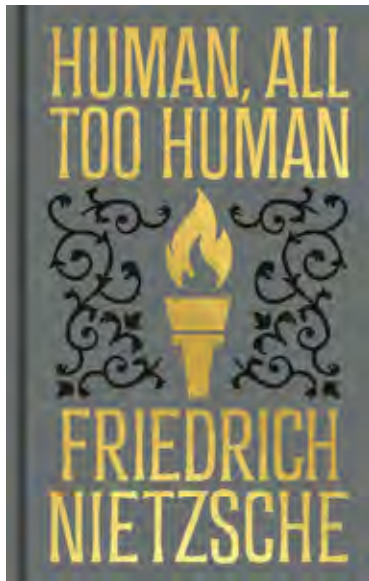

This elegant collector’s edition presents Jean-Jacques Rousseau’s classic philosophical work, The Social Contract, featuring gold cover embossing and gilded page-edges.

The Social Contract is one of the most influential studies ever made, interrogating the relationship between the governors and the governed. Rousseau’s ideas influenced both the French and American Revolutions and created the foundations of the liberal democratic societies we live in today. This beautiful pocket-sized gift edition contains the classic and unabridged text.

HUMAN, ALL TOO HUMAN

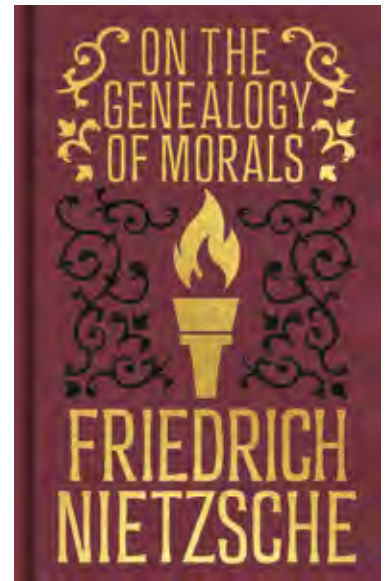

by Friedrich Nietzsche
165 × 105mm
272 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398851146
AVAILABLE IN JUNE 2025

Ranging from a few words to a few pages, the aphorisms in Human, All Too Human present Friedrich Nietzsche's thoughts on a variety of subjects, including the nature of reality (metaphysics); moral feelings, especially the concepts of good and evil; the argument that great art is the product of hard work as opposed to 'genius' and inspiration; free-thinking; the evolution of men, women and children; and the limitations that people put on their own thoughts and reasoning. It is a fascinating work from one of history's greatest philosophers.

ON THE GENEALOGY OF MORALS

by Friedrich Nietzsche
165 × 105mm
160 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398851139
AVAILABLE IN JUNE 2025

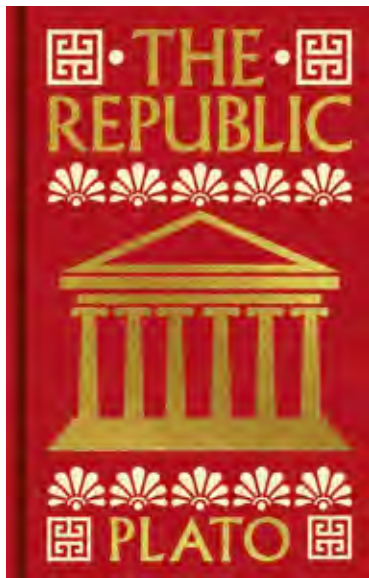

In this daring and insightful work, Nietzsche lays bare the hypocrisies at the foundations of our ideas of morality.

Considering thoughts on good and evil, guilt and conscience and law and violence along the way, On the Genealogy of Morals takes the reader on a journey through the history of value systems in three masterful essays. Through his provocative accounts, Nietzsche seeks to do nothing less than unravel the mysteries of human nature.

THE REPUBLIC

by Plato
165 × 105mm
304 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398851153
AVAILABLE IN JUNE 2025

Plato's The Republic forms the foundation of most Western philosophy. An inquiry into politics, a discourse on morality and a brilliantly insightful exposition of philosophy are framed into a simple dialogue between Socrates and his pupils.

Translated by the renowned Oxford classicist, Benjamin Jowett, The Republic is highly accessible yet filled with fascinating depths for students of philosophy, showing us a vision of the ideal society and what we can do as individuals to help create it.

THE TIBETAN BOOK OF THE DEAD

by Padmasambhava
165 × 105mm
128 pp
£8.99 Hardback
9781398851122
AVAILABLE IN JUNE 2025

The origins of this work are said to lie in the 'treasure texts' that were hidden away by Padmasambhava, the Lotus Guru, in Tibet in the 8th century AD so that they could be revealed at an appropriate later time. As a funerary text and a guide to the afterlife, it was read aloud to the dying or recently deceased so that they could recognise the true nature of the mind and thus attain enlightenment and liberation from the suffering associated with the endless cycle of death and rebirth. This handy, pocket-sized format is great for dipping into at any time.

Claude Monet's tranquil water-lily paintings and rural landscape scenes are among some of the most treasured artworks of the 19th and 20th centuries. Hailed as the 'Prince of Impressionism' for his pioneering role in the French artistic movement, Monet is widely recognised for his free brushstrokes and experimentation with colour and natural light. In this beautifully illustrated book, Ann Sumner explores the life of this prodigious painter and the subjects that obsessed him – from Rouen Cathedral to his beloved garden at Giverny.

This lavishly illustrated full-colour hardback explores the life and work of French modernist painter Edouard Manet.

Manet was one of the first artists in the 19th century to paint modern life and everyday subjects, including the then scandalous Le déjeuner sur l'herbe. Recognised for his paintings of bars and other meeting places, Manet marked the transition from realism to the looser, freer style that signalled the beginnings of modern art. Art historian Ann Sumner explores the contribution he made to the art world, his technique and showcases his most iconic paintings.

'He did not paint his pictures; it was like he exhaled them in a gasping, boiling breath.' – Julius Meier-Graef

Van Gogh's distinctive style of expressive brushstrokes and bold colours is now world famous, but during his lifetime the artist was met with cold disinterest from his contemporaries. This book explores the fascinating story of this tortured soul, who came late to art and suffered throughout his life from anxiety and depression. It unravels the influences behind his artworks, such as Japanese woodblock prints, and explores how he developed his own unique style.

Gustav Klimt's exotic, sensuous paintings recall the art of ancient civilizations – their patterns and ornamentation reminiscent of Byzantine mosaics and Egyptian murals. But from what context did these masterworks spring? This beautifully illustrated book is a guide to the life and work of Gustav Klimt, one of the most influential artists of the Art Nouveau movement, who first achieved fame as a decorative painter before turning to portraiture and other subjects. The decorative style persisted in his work, leading to abstract compositions with flattened, glowing surfaces embellished with gold and silver leaf.

This lavishly illustrated hardback presents the life and work of Michelangelo – a giant in the history of art.

Michelangelo (1475–1564) was the ultimate Renaissance man: not just a painter, but a sculptor, architect and poet besides. He began his career as a sculptor, creating his famous works Pietà and David in his twenties. A master of the human figure, his understanding of its expressive possibilities remains striking, perhaps unparalleled, to this day. This wonderfully presented full-colour book charts his remarkable life and work.

ART MASTERS: PAUL GAUGUIN

FEBRUARY 2025

Beautifully illustrated, this monograph explores the life and work of one of the leading lights of Post-Impressionism – Paul Gauguin. His vision of a tropical arcadia in the South Seas has beguiled generations of gallery goers, but a close look at his life and art reveals a complex man in constant search of a primitive paradise that was elusive. Caroline Bugler explores Gauguin’s extensive travels and artistic experiments, many of them driven by a strong desire to explore the unknown, and to discover what he saw as the ‘savage’ aspect of his own nature.

Pierre-Auguste Renoir was one of the foremost Impressionist artists, known for his en plein air scenes of middle-class leisure. But Renoir’s primary interest lay indoors, in depictions of sensuous female nudes and intimate domestic scenes, painted in a warm, bright palette. This book explores his life and work, showcasing his best-loved artwork. It also examines the development of his artistic practices, which began to diverge from many other Impressionist painters as he incorporated some elements of a classical style into his work.

An over-achiever by any standard, Stephen Hawking triumphed over obstacles that might have defeated a lesser man. He became a dominant figure in the field of theoretical physics, achieving the prestigious role of Lucasian Professor of Mathematics at Cambridge by the age of just 37. He predicted the theory that black holes emit radiation, a discovery that was accepted as a significant breakthrough in theoretical physics. Hawking rose to the top of his field despite a diagnosis of motor neurone disease at the age of 21 that rendered him increasingly paralysed over his lifetime.

OCTOBER 2024

Adolf Hitler told his military advisers and inner circle that Germany possessed Wunderwaffen – miracle weapons – that would turn the tide and bring the Germans ultimate victory. Was he simply boasting or were the ‘miracle weapons’ real? This book tells the story of the wonder weapons that Hitler hoped would win the war: Nazi flying saucers, the V-1 flying bomb, the V-2 rocket, the V-3 heavy gun and more. While some are shrouded in myth, others, like their own projects of nuclear armament, could have been real threats to Allied victory.

Step into a tranquil garden at the stroke of midnight with this enchanting colouring book – and witness the world that comes to life as we sleep. You will encounter barn owls soaring through the starry sky, fox cubs playing in the tall grass, badgers emerging from their hidden burrows, and even fairies flitting among toadstools. From singing nightingales to fluffy field mice, they all gather under the stars to admire the garden's natural beauty. Beautifully illustrated by Maria Brzozowska, The Midnight Garden Colouring Book will whisk you away to a quiet and dreamlike world.

FLOWER POWER COLOURING BOOK

by Tansy Willow
280 × 225mm
96 pp
£7.99 Paperback
9781398840133
AVAILABLE IN MARCH 2025

The late 1960s and early 1970s spawned a counterculture movement that became known as ‘flower power’ and associated with slogans such as ‘Make Love, Not War’. Flowers were a potent symbol of the movement and expressed on clothing, painted on vehicles such as VW vans, and in art and design more generally. The images in this colouring book aim to reflect the feeling of the era both in terms of the style of the designs and their content. You’ll find funky floral designs, flower-adorned animals and echoes of flower power in each and every image.
