This season, we're also adding five new titles to our popular Our World series for young children (p.6) and introducing several charming global books that affirm cultural identity (My Cousin's Mermaid, p.17, Bring Back the Babka, p. 15, Boogie in the Bronx!, p.19).

Highlighting the sheer awesomeness of nature are new titles, Copy That, Copy Cat! (p.9), a lift-the-flap book about biomimicry, Sneak! (p.8), the new camouflage book in our Slide-and-See series, and Follow the Flyway (p.11), a gorgeous tribute to bird migration.

As you can see, we have so much to share — so dive into our catalog and enjoy the discovery!

“Am I Polish enough?”

Anna Staniszewski grew up loving stories in both Polish and English. Born in Poland and raised in the United States, she is the author of over twenty books, many of which were inspired by her love of fairy tales. In her spare time, Anna enjoys reading, walking the dog and keeping an eye out for witches, dragons and mermaids.

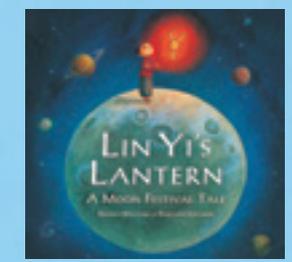

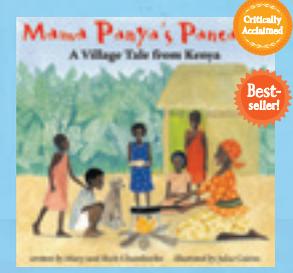

Ewa Poklewska-Koziełło was born in Poland. She studied architecture before realizing she preferred the artistic details of buildings over the technical ones, which led her to become an artist. Her illustrations combine traditional and digital techniques, and she has published dozens of books, including Polish fairy tales.
