Opening children's hearts, minds, and worlds

From global stories to STEAM learning, our Autumn 2024 collection invites children to explore the world around them with curiosity and excitement for planet earth and the unique and vibrant people and cultures who call it home.

This season we invite you to embark on an extraordinary journey across the African diaspora with Ayo, while he experiences the creative and resilient cultures that share his heritage (Ayo's Adventure, p. 2). Then visit a small village in ancient China during the Mid-Autumn Festival and meet Su-Ling as she tries to deceive Mongolian guards (Message in the Mooncake, p. 6). Plus, experience a day in the life in Cuba, Pakistan, the Philippines, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo in the four new additions to our popular Our World series (p. 16).

For the littlest readers, we're thrilled to introduce Barefoot Baby-Proof (p. 14) with eight of our bestselling books now in a chomp-proof, water-proof, and rip-proof format. Our latest singalong, Earth Song (p. 4), will spark questions about the natural world as we explore the earth's seasonal cycles. And you can explore more STEAM concepts with an interactive board book that investigates interoception — the signals our body sends when it's hungry, cold, or thirsty (Body Detective!, p. 12).

We hope you find your own meaningful connections within these books, and thank you for being part of our community.

Happy browsing,

PAPERBACK 9798888592298 $9.99 USD / $12.99 CAD

Set in ancient China
during the Mid-
Autumn Festival

Sapphire Chow (1954–2023) grew up in Southeast Asia, where books were scarce, so her love for children's literature wasn't sparked until she immigrated to Canada and had her own children. She embarked on her author journey hoping not only to bring joy to children worldwide, but also to sustain and feed the imagination of growing minds.

Xiaojie Liu is an award-winning illustrator based in New York. She received a BA in illustration from the Hubei Institute of Fine Arts and an MFA in illustration from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. Xiaojie's wide range of projects include children's books, magazines, advertisements, and packaging.

THE MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL

The Mid-Autumn Festival takes place on the 15th day of the 8th lunar month, which usually falls in September or October, and is celebrated throughout China and other Asian countries. Families come together for a big feast and eat mooncakes. Lanterns of all shapes and sizes light up the night and parades line the streets. The Mid-Autumn Festival is a time for joy, gratitude, and spending time with loved ones under the moonlight.

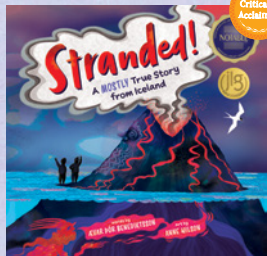

MANY TYPES OF MOONCAKES

WHAT IS KUNG FU?

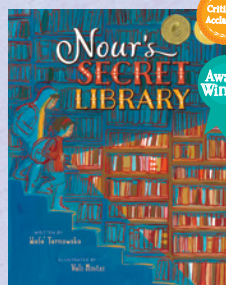

Chinese martial arts is also known as kung fu. It includes several fighting styles, which have existed for centuries. Kung fu is known for trickery and speed. Skill is not just about fighting — most of all, it is about discipline, respect, and self-improvement. It takes a lot of hard work and dedication. In this story, the tiger represents the confidence, bravery, and inner strength that Su Ling has developed through kung fu.

To Live Barefoot is to:

believe in the transformative power of storytelling

know that everyone can make a difference

embrace the connection between grassroots networking and global communication and everyone has a right to be here honor diversity in every sphere of life: cultural and social; ecological and economic; emotional and spiritual

balance doing with being: doing work with being alive

encourage creative play, remembering that to play is to learn

make mistakes, laugh and cry, learn a little more, and start again

tread softly

celebrate the art of story-making in all of its forms: in songs and stories, arts and crafts, music and movement

step into our power as individuals who know that together we are part of something more powerful than we can be on our own.

Opening children's hearts, minds and worlds
