We Do Christmas

by Ezra Elia, Miriam Elia
Oct 23, 2018 Hardcover $19.95 CAD

""Shopping is consumerist rape,"" says Mummy, ""but I really like these shoes.""

The latest in the Dung Beetle Learning series, Mummy, John and Susan are taken on a thrilling Christmas adventure. "Come with me," says Father Christmas, "and I will show you the magic of kindness." "And I will undermine your vicious program of indoctrination," Mummy counters. She then proceeds to strip Christmas of all its magic and meaning, for the benefit of John, Susan and mankind in general. This book will joyfully ruin the Yuletide festival period for children and adults alike.

Noel

by Akilah Newton 🇨🇦, Danielle Murrell Cox 🇨🇦
Oct 31, 2022 Hardcover $19.95 CAD

A stunningly illustrated, rhyming children's storybook that shares a moving story about a determined boy who dreams of becoming Santa Claus. When Noel was asked to create his Christmas wish list, he only asked for one thing - to become Santa Claus. His dream is met with jeers and laughs from his classmates, but despite all odds, his hard work and perseverance saw him live out his dream.

A story for the ages, this book highlights what's possible when we expand our definition of who people can be. Noel's story is the story of anyone who has been told that because of their race, religion, gender, or neurodivergence, there are things they can't do. This universal tale is about more than the Christmas holiday. Children will be delighted by this heartwarming story. They will be inspired to see themselves as anything they can set their minds to. Noel will quickly become a holiday favourite and serve as a constant reminder to future generations of kids to dream big!

Baseball Bats for Christmas

by Michael Arvaarluk Kusugak 🇨🇦, Vladlyana Krykorka 🇨🇦
Sep 12, 2017 Paperback , UK Trade $12.95 CAD

An authentic tale about children living in the Arctic by one of the most acclaimed Inuit storytellers.

Life in the high Arctic is beautifully captured in this classic picture book by award-winning Inuit author Michael Arvaarluk Kusugak. The year is 1955 and Arvaarluk and his friends watch as Rocky Parsons lands his plane on the ice in Repulse Bay, a tiny community "smack dab on the Arctic Circle." Having never seen trees before, the children try to guess what the six green spindly things are that Rocky delivers. One of the boys has a brilliant idea: why not use them as baseball bats? Full of vibrant, richly-colored illustrations, this story gives young readers ages 5 to 8 a glimpse into a time, place, and culture that may be new to them. The Arctic way of life is realistically portrayed by the author, whose narrative voice resonates with the lilt of his native language, Inuktitut.

About the Contributor(s)

Michael Arvaarluk Kusugak is an Inuk storyteller who grew up in Repulse Bay, NWT (now Nauyasat, Nunavut). During his childhood, his family traveled by dog sled, living a traditional Inuit lifestyle. He is the author of many picture books, including Northern Lights: The Soccer Trails, winner of the Ruth Schwartz Award.

He won the Vicky Metcalf Award for Children's Literature in 2008. He lives in Valhalla, Manitoba.

Vladlyana Krykorka has illustrated and designed over 30 books for children. Her work has received numerous awards, including the Toronto Public Library's recognition of Baseball Bats for Christmas as one of the 100 best children's books of all time. In the last two years she has conducted art workshops in several Quebec Arctic communities, working with Inuit teachers in the creation of their own books and class materials, as well as textile printmaking techniques.

Snow Doves

by Nancy Hartry , Gabrielle Grimard
 Sep 15, 2020 Hardcover , Picture book $18.95 CAD

A wordless story of overcoming our fears and finding friendship.

Sami has just arrived in a new country. The snow piled up outside his window is a mysterious and, frankly, chilly surprise! Joy, his new neighbor, does not speak his language, but that does not stop them from communicating as Joy helps Sami overcome his fears. The two new friends get bundled up against the cold, and Sami discovers the magic of playing outside on a snowy day.

About the Contributor(s)

Nancy Hartry is the author of the successful picture books Hold On, McGinty! and Jocelyn and the Ballerina. Her novel Watching Jimmy won the Canadian Library Association's Book of the Year for Children Award and was a finalist for the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award, the Geoffrey Bilson Award for Historical Fiction for Young People, and the Ontario Library Association's Golden Oak Award. Nancy sits on the board of the CCBC and lives in Toronto.

Gabrielle Grimard uses various media to research and create the illustrations for a book, but her favorite aspect will always be color. She uses mainly watercolors, gouache and oil. She adds a touch of wooden pencil for the details. She has illustrated dozens of books and has been nominated for several awards. She lives near Sherbrooke, Quebec.
